

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

EARLY LETTERS FROM SOUTH CAROLINA UPON NATURAL HISTORY

The letters printed below are from the Sloane Manuscripts, in the British Museum. There is some doubt as to whom they were written; Prof. Charles M. Andrews, in the Guide to Manuscript Materials for the History of the United States to 1783, pp. 51, 69, lists them as letters to Sir Hans Sloane; but Mr. J. A. Herbert, assistant keeper of Mss., British Museum, writes that the Sloane Mss. contains besides the letters to Sir Hans Sloane, "some to Dr. Browne and Mr. Petiver;" The letters of Hannah Williams and Joseph Lord, have been indexed in Index to the Sloane Mss., E. J. L. Scott, as letters to James Petiver. An account of Petiver can be found in the Dictionary of National Biography.

Hannah Williams who writes the first letter given here, was in South Carolina before 1692, for as Hannah English widow, she gets a warrant, dated October 25, 1692, for 500 acres of land near Stony Point<sup>1</sup> and in May, 1695, she had another warrant under the name of "Hannah English, alias Williams." She may have been the widow of Mathew English, who arrived here in February 1670, and had a warrant for a town lot as late as 1689.<sup>2</sup> She was certainly the mother of Henroyda English,<sup>3</sup> and married William Williams between 1692 and 1694 Williams arrived with his wife and child 24 December, 1683. He made his will 2d November,

1710, proved 26th October, 1711, as William Williams of Carolina planter, and gives to his son-in-law Henroyda English, all of his estate, real and personal. Hannah Williams, widow to William Williams, declares the above will to have been made with her consent.<sup>4</sup>

The will of Charles Clarke, of Berkley County, dated November 2, 1694, mentions Mrs. Mary Spragg, daughter of Mrs. Hannah Williams, to whom he leaves a house and lot, bounding on late belonging to Gov. Thomas Smith. Mentions also William Williams, gentleman, of Carolina, and leaves the remainder of his property to William Williams and Mrs. Mary Spragg.<sup>5</sup>

Mrs. Hannah Williams was buried December 16, 1722.<sup>6</sup>

Joseph Lord, who writes the other letters, was the pastor under whom the settlers from Dorchester Mass. immigrated to the place in South Carolina, which they afterwards named Dorchester also. "ocktober ye 20-95 was m<sup>ter</sup> Joseph Lord and Increase Sumner and William pratt were dismissed for ye gathering of A church for ye South corelina."<sup>7</sup>

Joseph Lord was of Charlestown, Mass. He had graduated at Harvard in the class of 1691, and at the time of his removal to Carolina, was teaching school, and studying theology in Dorchester. He remained in South Carolina for twenty-five years, returning to Massachusetts in 1720, and on the 15th of June of that year was installed over the church at Chatham, where he remained until his death, June 6th. 1748.<sup>8</sup>

His sister, Abigail, married John Stevens, who was one of the leading men in the Dorchester settlement, and the ancestor of the present Stevens family in lower South Carolina. John Stevens probably came from New England also, since in his will, dated December 24, 1717, he directs that his sons Samuel and John "be brought up at the college in New England to good lerning . . . and my brother Will Titcomb have care of them . . . ;" he also leaves a legacy to Joseph Lord Jr., upon condition that he also be sent to college.

Abigail Stevens, in her will dated 30th March, 1735, mentions, among others, her nephew Joseph Lord, son of her brother Rev. Joseph Lord in New England.

LETTER FROM JOSEPH LORD

Since that w<sup>o</sup> came by Pensylvania, Dated, Nov. 17, 1706. I have rec<sup>d</sup>. no Lett<sup>r</sup> from you. I sent a Lett<sup>r</sup> & a Box of Collections by Capt. Gill Belcher, y<sup>o</sup> last year (y<sup>o</sup> Lett<sup>r</sup>. dated, Jan. 2, 1707, w<sup>o</sup> I hope are come to hand. In yo<sup>r</sup> last y<sup>t</sup> I rec<sup>d</sup>., you mention a Bill of a Bird w<sup>o</sup> was sent either by Mad<sup>m</sup> Williams or me, concerning w<sup>o</sup> I have since written you word, y<sup>t</sup>. I did not rememb<sup>r</sup> y<sup>t</sup> I sent you any such: but I call to mind y<sup>t</sup> I sent you y<sup>o</sup> Bill of a Garr-fish, w<sup>o</sup> has sharp teeth set all along both sides: of w<sup>o</sup> I have also one now ready to send you, as I have also Divers oth<sup>r</sup> things w<sup>o</sup> I have collected. Anoth<sup>r</sup> sort of Tortoise, y<sup>n</sup> that w<sup>o</sup> you sent me y<sup>o</sup> figure of marked 76.4. I have y<sup>o</sup> shell of, w<sup>o</sup> I intend to send you e'er long. Here are divers sorts of y<sup>m</sup>., tho' I don't often meet wth y<sup>m</sup>. The shell 71.8 & 71.9 is, I suppose, y<sup>t</sup> w<sup>o</sup> y<sup>o</sup> wood-snail carries on his back, & houses himself in. I have sent divers of y<sup>m</sup>, if I forget not, but perhaps they might be broken before they came at you, for I find y<sup>m</sup> very brittle. The Centipes, 74.3 is very like a worm wth us, w<sup>o</sup>, w<sup>n</sup> it dies, gathers almost into a circle as yo<sup>r</sup> figure represents: but w<sup>n</sup> y<sup>o</sup> worm is liveing, as it crawls, that side w<sup>ro</sup> y<sup>o</sup> feet are seems flat. You figure a Cowry, 80.9. w<sup>o</sup> I don't know w<sup>t</sup> distinguishes from oth<sup>r</sup> shells: but yo<sup>r</sup> figure puts me in mind of a sort of Insect here, y<sup>t</sup> is covered wth hair, between chestnut & ash colour; y<sup>o</sup> belly w<sup>ro</sup> of is flat, & y<sup>o</sup> two sides run up to a ridge, w<sup>ro</sup> is long<sup>r</sup> hair y<sup>n</sup> on y<sup>o</sup> rest of y<sup>o</sup> body, & carries some resemblance of hog's bristles. The insect is ab<sup>t</sup> an inch long, & ab<sup>t</sup>. half an inch broad at y<sup>o</sup> belly; & ab<sup>t</sup>. as deep from y<sup>o</sup> ridge to y<sup>o</sup> belly. The year before last came a neighbo<sup>r</sup> to me in great pain, & heart-sick, by being bitten by one of y<sup>m</sup> in y<sup>o</sup> neck; & would (for ought I know) have died, if suitable remedies both inward & outward, had not been applied. I had observed y<sup>o</sup> insect before, & would have sent it to you, if I had known how. Yo<sup>r</sup> desire thereof prevailed

wth me to make some remarks, in my last, on yo<sup>r</sup> Natural History of Brasile; w<sup>o</sup> (tho' I know my unskilfulness) I shall now proceed, as well as I can, a little farther in Ch. 2. 87. The Partridge] That w<sup>o</sup> is here called a Partridge, we called a Quail in N. Engl<sup>d</sup>., w<sup>o</sup> seems to be of y<sup>o</sup> colo<sup>r</sup> spoken of in this place: but we had a Partridge in N. Engl<sup>d</sup>. speckled wth white specks (if I forget not) w<sup>o</sup> was twice as big as this here in Carolina. 88. The Great Partridge] There was, in N. Engl<sup>d</sup>. another Fowl y<sup>t</sup> resembled y<sup>o</sup> Partridge, but larger (yet not so large as this great Partridge is Described) w<sup>o</sup> was called an Heath-hen. 93. American Sparrow] I suppose o<sup>r</sup> Red-bird to be a Sparrow; w<sup>o</sup> is y<sup>o</sup> same wth y<sup>o</sup> Virginia Red-bird; & y<sup>r</sup>efore I need not describe it. Also w<sup>n</sup> I was a boy I caught another sort of red Sparrow; but have forgot wherein it differed from other sparrows, except in being Red. They were rare there. I have some notion y<sup>t</sup>. I then reckoned it of y<sup>o</sup> same species wth that wth. a red head: divers whereof had reddish Breasts too: whether it were those y<sup>t</sup>. were old<sup>r</sup> y<sup>n</sup> others, I cannot tell. 94. The Black Sparrow] we had in N. Engl<sup>d</sup>. a sparrow wth. a red spot on y<sup>o</sup> head; but y<sup>o</sup> body was of a greyish brown colo<sup>r</sup>. There is also a Sparrow here y<sup>t</sup>. is like that of N. England; only y<sup>o</sup> spot on y<sup>o</sup> head is not so red. I have heard them in N. Engl<sup>d</sup>. called Tom Tits. 95. The Blewish Sparrow] We have here a Sparrow y<sup>t</sup> is between blew & ash-colo<sup>r</sup>, whose bill is white, & his belly & y<sup>o</sup> outermost feath<sup>r</sup> on each side of his tail. 96-101. Divers Starlings are mentioned, & described. We have here two or three sorts of Back birds w<sup>o</sup> flock togeth<sup>r</sup> :y<sup>o</sup> male of one sort has a scarlet spot on each wing; & y<sup>o</sup> female is a dark grey almost black. 103. The Swallow] The male, here, is shineing black on his back, head, & breast; y<sup>o</sup> female more muddy, & on y<sup>o</sup> breast of a yellowish brown colo<sup>r</sup>. 108. The Throstle] That w<sup>o</sup> was called, in N. Engl<sup>d</sup>., a Robin (but at Dorchest<sup>r</sup> in New England, a Field-fare) I have heard a Lancashire man call a Throstle: It comes hither in y<sup>o</sup> Wint<sup>r</sup>, but is not seen here in y<sup>o</sup> summ<sup>r</sup>. 110.111. We have a Turtle dove here, but wheth<sup>r</sup> y<sup>o</sup> leggs be red or white or eith<sup>r</sup> I can't now say; but I think y<sup>r</sup> are red. The New-England wild Pidgeon, is also a large sort of Turtle, wth red leggs: they come hith<sup>r</sup> sometimes in y<sup>o</sup> Wint<sup>r</sup>. 114-116. Woodpeck<sup>rs</sup>] We have three or four sorts; some as large as Teal. Thus I end y<sup>o</sup> 2<sup>d</sup> Chapt<sup>r</sup> of Birds, I cannot now proceed to any oth<sup>rs</sup>: only

Ch. 9. 158. The Dysenterick Vomit] concerning this I w<sup>d</sup> enquire, is it not Ipecacuanha y<sup>t</sup>. you here intend? If it be, please to let me know wheth<sup>r</sup> you have had any of it from hence, & at what it's flow<sup>m</sup> & berries may likliest be sought. I put a small plant in y<sup>e</sup> Lett<sup>r</sup>, w<sup>o</sup> in y<sup>e</sup> Wint<sup>r</sup> had 5 or 6 Leaves together at y<sup>e</sup> top: please to let me know, by y<sup>e</sup> next opportunity, what is. Which is all, at present, from

Sir,

Yo<sup>r</sup> humble servant

LETTER FROM JOSEPH LORD

Yo<sup>m</sup> of Mar. 15, 1711 I received Jun. 30: wrapped up in a Monthly Mercury for January last, wth. some oth<sup>r</sup> Prints, w<sup>o</sup> is y<sup>e</sup> first News book or Pap<sup>r</sup> I ev<sup>r</sup> received, of all y<sup>t</sup> ev<sup>r</sup> you sent. You write you are glad to understand I received y<sup>e</sup> things y<sup>t</sup>. you sent last year, & I sh<sup>d</sup> have been glad I c<sup>d</sup> have given you to understand y<sup>t</sup> you were rightly informed; for I much regret y<sup>e</sup> loss of y<sup>e</sup> box & w<sup>t</sup> was in it. But not going to Charlestown myself, I wrote to desire my friend, M<sup>r</sup> Samuel Eveleigh, to enquire of him ab<sup>t</sup> it; who sent me word y<sup>t</sup>. Capt. Belch<sup>r</sup> s<sup>d</sup>, there was indeed such a Box, but he had delivered it to some body, he c<sup>d</sup> not tell who; so I nev<sup>r</sup> saw it. I thought (as I had written to you) y<sup>t</sup>. he w<sup>d</sup>. have been more carefull than so. I received, indeed, y<sup>e</sup> lett<sup>r</sup> y<sup>t</sup>. gave an account of it, & w<sup>t</sup> was enclosed therein: & delivered to M<sup>r</sup>. Henchman's widow, y<sup>e</sup> lett<sup>r</sup> directed to him, but what you sent to him being put into my box, she came short as well as I. I don't know weth<sup>r</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> directing to me near stony point (from w<sup>o</sup> my habitation is 14 or 15 miles distant) mayn't be some disadvantage to me. M<sup>r</sup> Henchman (as Capt. Belch<sup>r</sup> informed you) died suddenly of an Apoplexy last Novemb<sup>r</sup> was twelve month. I have spoken wth his wife ab<sup>t</sup> what he left in writeing, w<sup>o</sup> I had looked ov<sup>r</sup> while he was alive; & she promises to lend y<sup>m</sup> me to take copies of, w<sup>o</sup> I think to do, & send to you, when I can find opportunity: but multiplicity of business hind<sup>m</sup>

much y<sup>t</sup>. I w<sup>d</sup> of this nature. Before y<sup>e</sup> comeing of yo<sup>r</sup> form<sup>a</sup> by Capt. Belch<sup>r</sup>, w<sup>o</sup> I rec<sup>d</sup>. not till Jun. 16, 1709. tho' it were dated Nov. 30, 1708. I wrote a lett<sup>r</sup> to you, wherein I proceeded wth. my observations (such as they were) on yo<sup>r</sup> Natural History of Brasile, as far as y<sup>e</sup> end of y<sup>e</sup> second chapt<sup>r</sup> w<sup>o</sup> speaks of Birds: wherein also I informed you, y<sup>t</sup>. I sent no bill of a bird, yet I had sent y<sup>e</sup> bill of a Garr-fish, w<sup>o</sup>, perhaps, you might take for y<sup>e</sup> bill of a fowl; w<sup>o</sup> I mention here, because yo<sup>r</sup> mentions nothing of that lett<sup>r</sup>, w<sup>o</sup> makes me suspect it's miscarriage. I have a small Box of Collections ready, & sh<sup>d</sup> have had more, but partly y<sup>e</sup> inconvenience of doing it wthout collecting-books, partly my much oth<sup>r</sup> necessary business, & partly y<sup>r</sup> confusions & distractions of y<sup>e</sup> countrey, especially at this time, w<sup>o</sup>, tho' I would, I cannot altogeth<sup>r</sup> avoid all concern in, have been an hindrance to me; & wth all being at a great distance from Charlestown, I find great difficulty in getting thith<sup>r</sup> what I have to send, & many times lose y<sup>e</sup> opportunity of y<sup>e</sup> Ship, before I can obtain a conveyance from hence to Charlstown. In that Box I have put such anoth<sup>r</sup> bill, besides many oth<sup>r</sup> things, w<sup>o</sup> I cannot now particularly enumerate. I w<sup>d</sup> have sent y<sup>e</sup> box now, but I have no opportunity to send it to Charlstown. I w<sup>d</sup>. also have proceeded farth<sup>r</sup> in my observations upon yo<sup>r</sup> Natural History of Brasile, but time & oth<sup>r</sup> occasions, will not give leave. With thanks for w<sup>t</sup> you have sent, both w<sup>t</sup> I have received, & w<sup>t</sup> I have not, I take y<sup>e</sup> boldness to request you, if you can obtain y<sup>e</sup> seed of Sena of Alexandria, y<sup>t</sup> you will please to send me a little. I have Italian Sena growing; but whether it be y<sup>t</sup> it contains more lixivious salt than y<sup>e</sup> oth<sup>r</sup>, or y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Air of y<sup>e</sup> countrey is more moist y<sup>n</sup> of oth<sup>r</sup> countrys w<sup>ro</sup> Oriental Sena is kept or first dried, I cannot, wth all y<sup>e</sup> care I can use, prevent it's turning black in a little time. Here is a sort of bindweed w<sup>o</sup> I am apt to conceit may be Scammony; w<sup>o</sup> I believe I may formerly have sent you y<sup>e</sup> branches of. If I sh<sup>d</sup>. send you that, or any oth<sup>r</sup> usefull drugg, if you will please to let me know it, you will much oblige, Sir,

Othniel Beale and his wife Catherine Gale (Dalcho, p. 124), and Hannah Beale, his sister, married the Hon. William Bull; she died in England about 1795, when she made her will. Othniel Beale, was the son of Capt. John Beale and Martha his wife, of Marblehead, New England; this is so stated on the tombstone of Capt. William Beale, late master of the Ship Prince of Wales; who died December 5, 1736, aged 38 years. The stone was erected in the Circular (Congregational) Churchyard, by Capt. William Beale's brother, Othniel Beale.

<sup>49</sup> Evidently the account of the death of Dennis Rolle (this Magazine, vol. xx, p. 207) was an error, for he is mentioned as dining with Mrs. Manigault, November 29, 1767, and again here. Henry Laurens (Letter Bk. 1767-71, p. 77) mentions Rolle's coming from his village on St. John's River, to White Point on Ashley River, in a canoe, with one other person. The S. C. Gaz. and Country Jour. for January 16, 1770, mentions his arrival from East Florida, and his taking passage for London.

[With the above item, ends the earliest register. The second begins in 1762, and was evidently lost for a number of years, for in the Journal of the vestry, February 17, 1811, we find recorded that a number of the Record books are missing, especially the registers of births and baptisms, marriages and deaths between 1759, 1760, and April 1790; the minutes of the vestry from August 6, 1759, to May 1790 were also missing. The journal of the vestry seems to have never been found, but the register, from 1762 to 1788, is still in existence, and also a later one which seems to begin about 1817.]

HISTORICAL NOTES

BURIAL PLACE OF MRS. HOWORTH

The following inscription from a tablet in Wimborne Minster, was copied by Mr. Albert Matthews, of Boston, about 1898; he states that the tablet was on a pillar between the nave and lectern, facing the nave. It reads as follows:

Martha Michie was the eldest daughter of James Michie, Esq; member of Council, chief justice, judge of court of vice-admiralty, etc. James Michie married in 1737, Martha, the daughter of Col. Arthur Hall and his wife Martha Seabrook; James Michie died July 16, 1760, in London. His will mentions his daughter Martha Mayne, his wife Martha, his daughter Mary, under age; his sister Elizabeth Michie, spinster, in London, his friend Dr. David Caw, and his kinsman William Michie of Charlestown, merchant. It was made 6 May 1758, proved 14 November, 1760.

Martha Michie, born 1738, married in October 1755, Charles Mayne, merchant, who died September 30, 1759. Henry Laurens in a letter to Richard Oswald, dated 26 May, 1756, states:

"Mr. Mayne we are told designs for England very soon, he seems very unhappily married to Miss Michie, but whether of the two is the aggressor we can't pretend to say."

Mr. Mayne and his wife separated, and after his death she married Henry Howarth, or Howorth. [Clerk of Court's unfiled papers, case reciting above separation, dated May 6, 1761]

Henry Howarth was a lieutenant in the 15th Regiment in 1758 (Mr. Ford's list of British Officers in America) and owned a tract of 1650 acres on the Altamaha river, which he sold to James Parsons, May 8, 1764. He then describes himself as Henry Howorth, gentleman, of Charlestown. (M. C. O. book B No. 3, p. 386.)

Mary, the other daughter of James Michie, married Charles Ogilvie, merchant, of London. (Ibid. C, No. 3, p. 11.0.)

WHERE SIR JOHN YEAMANS DIED

To the July, 1918 issue of this Magazine Judge Henry A. M. Smith contributed a "Note" entitled "Sir John Yeamans, An Historical Error," wherein he presented records proving that Sir John Yeamans did not vacate the governorship of South Carolina, retire to Barbadoes and die there, as stated by five historians of South Carolina from Hewat to McCrady, but died in South Carolina, while still holding the office of governor, between the 3rd and 13th of August, 1674.

The will of Col. John Godfrey, which is recorded in a volume of records of the Court of Ordinary of South Carolina, 1672-1692, in the office of the Historical Commission in Columbia furnishes additional evidence of the correctness of the conclusions presented by Judge Smith. Col. Godfrey bequeathed to his son Richard "my Gould ring w<sup>ch</sup> I had at ye funerall of S<sup>r</sup>. Jn<sup>o</sup>. Yeamans". Col. Godfrey was present at the meeting of council August 3, 1674, presided over by Governor Yeamans and he was present at the meeting of August 13, 1674, whereat a successor to Sir John was chosen, so that he was necessarily in South Carolina for the funeral and the funeral was on the other hand, necessarily held in South Carolina.

LETTERS CONCERNING PETER MANIGAULT, 1773

The Letters here printed are the property of Miss Elizabeth Heyward Jervey, who has kindly allowed them to be published.

They chiefly are concerned with the last illness of the Hon. Peter Manigault, son of Gabriel Manigault and the Mrs. Ann Manigault whose journal has been appearing in this Magazine. Some account of Peter Manigault will be found on pages 66-67 of this issue.

In my letter to my Father of the 10th Instant I informed him of my having been very ill, & that I then intended to set out for Bristol in a few Days. But finding myself very weak, & being satisfied that I was as well off here, as in any Part of England in Point of air Climate, and good Assistance, I altered my Intention, and determined to remain at this place, until I should be perfectly recruited and though these English Fevers are exceedingly severe yet I have the satisfaction to inform you that I have, mended exceedingly, And though it was with difficulty I could walk across the Room Ten Days ago, I can now march a mile without Inconvenience.—I have met with great Attention and civility from several Persons here, particularly from Mr. Binford and Capt. Hale who carried Governor Lyttleton to Carolina: Otherwise, single and unknown as I was, when I first came here, I should have passed my Time very indifferently, considering how very ill I have been. Indeed to be sick in a strange Land, at a great Distance from one's Friends and Relations, is no desirable Situation; But by the assistance of Providence I have been enabled to bear these Misfortunes with Patience and Resignation.—I am undetermined when I shall go to London. I have no very particular Call there, And it is the universal Opinion that a Re-establishment of my Health which is what I want, is not to be looked for there. Be not Surprised that I did not Write to you before; my Health would not permit.—As I recover, you may depend upon hearing oftener from,

Your ever dutiful Son,

P. Manigault.

Hond. Madam.

I was in Hopes before this Time to have written to you, upon a Subject more agreeable to myself, at the same Time that it might give Pleasuer to you, But since I wrote last, I have not improved in my Health so fast as I expected. However, I thank God, I am so much mended, that I intend to set out for Bristol Wells this Afternoon, from whence I flatter myself I shall soon be able to give you better Accounts. You may depend upon it that I shall omit no opportunity that I know of, to mention my Situation to you or my Father. I therefore desire you will not be frited with any Reports, which upon these Occasions are generally magnified, As I grow better you will find my Letters grow longer. But for the Present, you must be contented with a short one, from

Hond Madam

To receive at the same Time Letters from my Father, my Mother and three of my Children, was too much for my weak nerves. I sunk down upon the Couch, and was the whole Day before I could read them all. My whole Thoughts are so wrapped up in my Friends in Carolina that there is no pleasure, no Satisfaction for me in England. And I am continually making Comparisons, which right or wrong, always and in Favour of my own Country. Indeed I have had little to please me since my arrival. Sickness and melancholy Thoughts, having been my only Portion. But by the Blessing of Providence I think I recover, though but slowly. I now am able to take a Walk Morning and Evening, besides a Ride betwixt Dinner and Breakfast, and have a good Appetite, which however am obliged to restrain, by a very strict Regimen. My Acquaintances all say I look better, But perhaps they flatter me. I do not think I shall be able to return to Carolina, this Winter, though it is my most ardent Wish so to do. The Physicians tell me I must not return so soon, and at the same Time say, that this Climate will by no means do for me during the Winter; so that I think of going to France, I mean the South Part of it, or Italy.—It is a most sensible Mortification to me to be absent from you so long, But my Health requires it and the Duty I owe to my Family makes it indispensably necessary. I would take this Opportunity of Writing to my little ones, but writing is at present a Difficult Thing to me. Assure them of my tenderest Affection, and tell them, that I have not forgot what I promised them, But that my Sickness and absence from London, has prevented me from sending them some little Token of my Regard. I have ordered six pounds of the best Hyson Tea from London to be sent to you, I beg you will sent Two pounds of it to Miss Nancy Wragg, I make an Apology to her for my not writing to her. Another Pound is intended for Mrs. Poaug;<sup>1</sup> who Poor Woman, ought to have these Things, though her hard Fortune has put it out of her Power to buy them.

My Stay at this Place is uncertain, But I believe it may be about three Weeks longer.—Wherever I am, It shall ever be my greatest Satisfaction, to be

Your most dutiful and affectionate Son

P. Manigault.

I believe Mr. Stead will send the Half Mourning for Nancy and Harriett by this Opportunity.

[4]

Hond Madam

I write this with some Expectation of its reaching Captn White before he leaves London as I would not miss an Opportunity of letting you know that I received your letter by the Eagle Packet. I should have been in London before now, but Mr. Stead having wrote me word that he and his Daughters would be here in a day or two, I wait for them and suppose, I shall go to London with them in a week or ten Days.

I have no Opinion either of the Physician's, or the Waters of this Place. I am clear Goose Creek Water is full as good, and the Reputation of Bristol Wells, is cryed up by the Faculty in order to Draw Patients. I hold my Recovery so far, to be owing to the Goodness of the Air, a strict Regimen, and constant Exercise. I have lived Principally upon Milk for Eight Weeks past, and a little Fruit, allowing myself a little Broth once a Day for the first Month, and since that a Bit of White Meat. My Drink has been common Water, not the Hot Well Water, For I soon found, that the only Purpose that served, was to make me drowsy. In all this Time, I have not drank half a pint of Wine, or any other Spirits, not even small Beer, which in this Part of England is almost as Weak as Water. I am grown so 'fond of this manner of Life, and find such good Effects from it, that I believe I never shall quit it as long as I live.

I leave you to imagine from your own Feelings, how happy I am to hear that my Children are well, and how that Happiness is increased, upon being informed that they behave well. I should have no Rest during my absence from them, were I not thoroughly satisfied with their Situation, that indeed, makes me easy, and yet I some times am apprehensive, that Nancy or Henney wear Stays, or some Thing like them. If they do, I shall look upon myself and them too, to be most unkindly treated, when I see the Bristol Women, as crooked as Cow's Horns, I cannot but lament that man, or rather Woman, should attempt to mend the works of God; But am not surprised that they should fail in the attempt, This is sufficient to shew my opinion about this Matter, and I hope you will not take it amis, for I have it so much to Heart, that I could not help mentioning it. I have been wanting to send the Children some little Present, But I find everything so ordinary at Bristol, that they must wait till I get to London. I went to a Fair two or three Days ago, on purpose to try to get some Trifles for them. But could not please myself.

Your Niece Downes<sup>2</sup> has had her child inoculated, and it is recovered. I hear she is expected soon at Bath, and that Frank

Richard Downes and his family went to England in May, 1773 (p. 64), and seem to have not returned. He died in England late in 1776. In his will dated July 3, 1776, proved January 3, 1777, he describes himself as being of the town of Ludlow, County of Salop (Shropshire) gentleman; mentions his wife Mary, his daughters Elizabeth and Ann, both under age; his nephew Richard, son of his brother Thomas Downes, late of Newton, county of Montgomery; nephews William, Edward, and Josiah, sons of his brother John Downes, late of Bishops Castle in County of Salop; nephew Richard Downes, of Wapping, Huger<sup>3</sup> who is lately returned from France, is to be with her. I fancy he wont much like the Company of such old-fashioned People as his Uncle and Aunt.

We have had an extreme fine Summer in England, though I have not had Health to enjoy it. But the Weather begins now to be raw and windy. With all their Brags of the Healthiness of the Climate, I never saw so much sickness in my life. Whilst I was in Devonshire, People of all ages and Ranks, were dying every day of the Putrid sore Throat, the People looked as if they had all been at Ponpon, Fevers and Agues were so plenty, that in some Parishes not a Family escaped, and in Others not one of the Family. At Bristol, a Gentleman his Wife two Sons and a Maid Servant were buried in one Day: and the People as much frightened, as if there were no Mercy in Heaven. In the mean Time the Physicians, of which there are great Plenty, seemed to thrive upon the Spoil, and enjoy the Harvest.

I have met with more of my Acquaintance here than I expected. Collo. Laurens staid with me three weeks. Mr. Izard came from London on Purpose to see me and staid here as many Days. Mrs. Beresford and her Daughters and Son were here for some Time, upon a Pretence to recover Mrs. Delancy<sup>4</sup> of a Cough, But in Fact to enjoy the Diversions of the Place. I have received the greatest Civilties from Mr. and Mrs. Brailsford, and indeed, to do Justice to the Inhabitants of the West of England, I must say that I have been treated with great Kindness, by all Ranks of People, especially during my Sickness.

London; nephews John, William and Thomas Taylor, sons of his sister Sarah Taylor of the Brake, parish of ———, county of Herefore.

Plantation and slaves at Stono, St. Paul's Parish, Province of South Carolina, to be sold if necessary.

His daughter Elizabeth married in 1787, Rev. Thomas Frost, of St. Philip's Church.

I have lately written to my Father by a Ship which is now wind bound at Bristol, and by her I have sent him two Chaise. I find there are like to be frequent Opportunities for Carolina, so that you may depend upon Hearing often from

Your dutiful Son

P. Manigault.

Hond Madam

After being three Months in England, you find that I am at last in London, where I expect very little Pleasure, as my Health is far from being reestablished, though mended, and the Season so far advanced that I must necessarily go into warmer Quarters. I am at present with Mr. Stead by his Invitation, and the Ease and Freedom I enjoy at his House, would make me happy if anything on the Side of the Water could do so, His Daughters are well bred young Women, especially Polly, who is not so reserved as her Sister, and of Course pleases more. His Son Ben is just taken from school, he is a great awkward young Fellow, and will take a Great Deal of polishing. In about a Fortnight I intend to quit England, and either go to Lisborne and Spain or to the South of France. I wait to hear from Blake who is at Paris before I determine. I could not resist the Temptation of going to a Play last Night: But I, did wrong, for the Trouble I had in getting in, occasioned by Weakness, more then counter-balanced, the Pleasure of the Play. I who know the want of Health, most ardently wish it may be granted to you, in greater Abundance than it has been, to

Your ever dutiful Son,

Gabriel Manigault Esquire

By the

Capt. Copeland,
From Falmouth

Westminster 3d. November 1773.

Dear Sir:

Three days ago I put our Sick friend in mind, that a Mail for Carolina was to be made up this Evening and desired him to write to you which, I observed to him, would give more satisfaction to his friends than intelligence from any other person—He promised to have a Letter ready, therefore I had no thought of writing by this Conveyance, before I made the Visit to him, from which I am just now returned, when Mr. Stead informed me that neither Mr. Manigault nor himself had wrote—I think it would be unkind to let the opportunity pass without a Line to you especially as there has happened a considerable alteration within the last 36 Hours.

About 8 or 9 days ago there was a most favourable appearance in Mr. Manigaults Case, as if the grand Cause of his Complaint was removed—Dr. Fothergill<sup>6</sup> was so pleased and surprised that he could not forbear expressing hopes of his perfect Recovery contrary to his former opinion—We all rejoiced at the prospect—but our pleasure received a sudden Check by a fainting fit and slight Convulsion which happened this night and left an Inflammation in the left Eye—the effect of which however was trifling and soon passed over.

The day before yesterday I rode abroad with him, he was chearful and stronger than I could have expected, we alighted under the Wall of Kensington Park on a Dry, smooth spot where he walked a good while to and fro in the Sunshine, then returned home amazingly well—in our Ride he told me of a troublesome boil of the Fistula class—which gave me some anxiety, but upon speaking to a very Skilful Surgeon of my acquaintance as a friend, he assured me that it was a most fortunate Circumstance and probably would prove the Drain through which other Complaints would be carried off and the patient Restored to health—this good Account was Confirmed in the same words by his Apothecary in my presence yesterday Morning—after this Doctor had left him. Mr. Manigault Eat and Drank heartily and not being able to Ride he desired me to walk with him—he leaned on my Arm and walked at least half a mile on the pavement—I left him very Chearful and disposed to a further Walk if the Soreness of the Boil would have permitted—

This Morning proved Rainy which I knew would confine him to the House therefore I delayed my customary visit till Evening, when to my great sorrow, I found him in Bed in consequence of a second attack a few hours after I left him yesterday, by a Convulsion fit much stronger and more alarming than the former; He had been insensible several Hours, passed a painful Night and kept the Bed all this Day. doctor Fothergill was sent for while the Fit was on, ordered him a Vomit, which was forced down and by its operation relieved him—

Miss Stead informed me, that the Doctor said, he would get the better of this attack and be as well he was before it happened—I must confess there is an ambiguity in this Speech which makes me uneasy.—This my Dear Sir is a plain Account of our friends case as it stood two hours ago—if Mr. Stead can write by Candle Light perhaps he may add some particulars which may have escaped me.

We must wait with Patience for the Event, I still hope he will do well, in the mean time all your friends are exceedingly anxious on account of Mrs. Manigault and your self and everything in their power is done for the services of the poor Patient.

I remain with the most affectionate regard

Dear Sir Your much obliged humb. Servt.

Henry Laurens.

Per Capt. Gunn.

Westminster 12th November 1773

Dear Sir,

Two or three days after I had wrote you an unfavorable account under the 3d Inst. of our Dear Friend your Son, he recovered so fast as to amaze every body about him and we held it as certain that the great Cause of his Complaint was removed and that he would every day gain strength, and tho he wrote to you with some diffidence and Caution, he was sensible of the amendment and acknowledged that he was better than he had been since his arrival in England. Doctors and every one conceived in the same opinion—but alas! our Sunshine was soon overcast again—the day before yesterday he was seized by a Chilly fit which carried him to Bed—Yesterday he suffered a more violent shivering than the former and to Day he has been extremely ill, much pain in his right side accompanied by Fever and difficulty of breathing—and at a certain short interval of Ease he intimated to me his apprehensions of approaching dissolution—The continuance of Life he said was very uncertain therefore desired me to write a Codicil to his Will I replied I was not acquainted with the form for such an Instrument and would have delayed it till a proper hand could have been sent for, but he smiled and beconed me to do it—then added, “it would vex me to have it delayed”—as soon as it was wrote he executed and desired me to seal it up—

This Codicil consists only of two Clauses, ordering that the Negro Woman Moll and her children shall be freed from Slavery immediately after his death; and his Man July, at the end of three Years from that period.—

It is now nine o’Clock in the Evening I am just returned from Mr. Manigault’s Bed side, he has been delirious for some hours and the Prognosties of Death were so strong when I left him that I have little hopes of finding him alive to Morrow—I was extremely loth to quit him but the Customs of this Country differ from those of our own.—

As I may yet overtake Capt. Gunn, I thought it my Duty to devote a few minutes to apprise you of this unexpected change of Circumstances—I feel for Mrs. Manigault, for you and for the Dear Children, but My Dear Sir, as I know well your fortitude, I trouble you not with Consolatory arguments on this melancholy occasion such are unnecessary to the Man whose trust is in God—who has habituated himself to a Patient submission to all dispensations of our Wise and Merciful Creator; therefore I have only to add that I continue with the most affectionate regard.

Your much obliged and obedt. Servant

Henry Laurens.

Dr. Fothergill supposes that Mr. Manigault took fresh Cold but I believe the expense through that Channel which they hoped would carry off his disorder has been too great for his weak frame.

Gabriel Manigault Esquire.

LETTER FROM JOSEPH LORD

The letter given below should have preceded those appearing in the last number of this Magazine; it was not available when that issue was printed.

Being addressed to James Petiver, it settles the question as to whom the other letters were addressed. Petiver contributed to Philosophical Transactions, May, 1705 (no. 299, vol. 24, p. 1951) "An Account of Animals and Shells sent from Carolina to Mr. James Petiver, F. R. S.;" most of the shells, he states, were received from "Madam Williams, a Gentlewoman." He also mentions several other people, either Carolinians, or having touch with that Province, such as Major Halstead; Mrs. Danson, daughter of Mr. John Archdale; Mr. Edmund Bohun, and "my curious Friend Mr. Job [sic] Lord;" but Madam Williams was the most frequent donor, and mention is made of reptils, lizards and insects lately sent by her. (See the January issue of this Magazine.)

Dear Madam

It is a long time since I had the pleasure of writing to you, & tho' it is always a great satisfaction to me, I should be glad that at present it were not in some measure owing to Papa's having both hands confined with the gout, which renders him unable to answer yours & Mr. Manigault's obliging letters.

I wish I may be the first that acquaints you with Mr. Manigault's safe arrival in England the 30th last month; & since it is necessary you should know he has been ill, I am happy to have it in my power at the same time to tell you he is recovered. In his way to London between Plymouth & Exeter he was taken with a fever, & as there was no help to be had where he was, he was obliged with difficulty to be conveyed to Exeter: he is now under the care of an eminent Physician there. We have had the pleasure of two letters from him (one of which came yesterday) wherein he says he is much better & hopes to be in town in a fortnight. The fever has lain chiefly in his head, & weakened his Eyes a little but he nevertheless hopes to write to you by this same opportunity. I hope you will not conceive a bad opinion of this Country from this misfortune, but attribute it to the fatigue of a long voyage; & his own poor state of health: but when we get him amongst us, change of climate good care & advice will make him send you such an account of his health, as I dare say you will not

I am endeavouring all I can to recollect him & continually asking Papa something about him. I shall imagine when I see a son so tenderly beloved by you and Mr. Manigault that it is yourselves whom I behold; & guess Madam what a joy that would be to me; you whose goodness to us all Papa has so often told us of, you whom I respect & love so much without being acquainted with you!
I cannot but be happy to hear you continue to enjoy your health & hope you may much longer be a blessing to all you friends, & continue to love me, as I flatter myself you have always done for my father and mother's sake.

Papa & Sister beg leave to join me in respectful Comps. to you & Mr. Mani-

CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS FROM CHRIST CHURCH PARISH

OAKLAND PLANTATION, FORMERLY CALLED YOUGHALL

This plantation, now owned by Mr. Ferdinand Gregorie and his son F. Gregorie, Jr., was part of a grant of 1300 acres on the south-east side of Seewee Sound which was made May 14, 1696, to Capt. George Dearsly; this tract afterwards became vested in Thomas Hamlin, who conveyed part to William Capers, and the remaining 982 acres, he conveyed January 1, 1704, to John Perry, Esq; then of the Island of Antigua, but formerly of the parish of Youghal, near Cork, in Ireland. This plantation was settled for John Perry by his agent in Carolina, John Abraham Motte.<sup>1</sup>

John Perry died in 1713, leaving all his plantations in South Carolina to his daughter Mary, who married in 1728, John Cleland, of London; they removed to South Carolina about 1735, and on March 12, 1740, John Cleland and his wife Mary, conveyed the above 982 acres, then called "Yoeghall," to Captain George Benison of Christ Church Parish, the bounds being then given as, south-east partly on Captain Benison and partly on a great marsh; south-west partly on Capt. Thomas Boone; north-west partly on Mr. Barton, and on Capt. Thomas Boone.

George Benison (who married first Elizabeth Capers, 1700-1733, and second, in 1735, Hannah Screven, widow) conveyed by deed of gift, December 9, 1741, 500 acres, part of the larger tract of 982 acres, called Youghall<sup>2</sup> to his son George Benison, Jr., the southward part bounding on Copahee Sound.

Col. George Benison died June 9, 1748, leaving a will, dated September 15, 1747, in which he bequeaths to his son William and his heirs the remaining 482 acres of the Youghall tract, giving the bounds as being south on Thomas Hamlin, west on Capt. Thomas Boone, northward on his son George Benison, and east on Copohee Sound; if William died without heirs, then Capt. Benison's youngest son Richard was to inherit, failing heirs of Richard, then all of his children, Sarah, Mary, Elizabeth and Jane. Sarah had married John Parris in 1742, and Mary married William Gibbes in 1744.

William Benison married Ann Brown in 1750, and died in 1751 without issue (will). Richard died intestate about 1758; George Benison, Jr., born in 1722, married Elizabeth Bremar; he died intestate between October 1750 and February 26, 1751, leaving sons William and Francis Bremar Benison (will of his wife Elizabeth, dated April 7, 1751.)

Sometime before February 3, 1755, the 482 acres had been conveyed by Rawlins Lowndes, provost marshal, to Thomas Barksdale, who was already a large land owner in Christ Church parish, who on that date, conveyed to his son Charles, who, before his death in 1757, seems to have acquired also the 500 acres belonging formerly to George Benison, Jr.

Charles Barksdale, who had married in 1741, Maria Wingood, widow of Charvil Wingood, by his will, dated April 5, 1756, leaves all his lands to his sons Charles, Thomas and George.

Thomas Barksdale (1745-1800) appears to be the next owner of the tract on which the burying ground is placed; he died in 1800, leaving a will, which mentions his wife Mary, his son Thomas, and daughters Elizabeth, Mary, Sarah, and Sabina.

Thomas, the son of the above Thomas, married Serena Maria Payne and died about 1850, leaving a will, in which he states that it would be a great gratification to have his plantation called Youghall continued in the family, it having been for more than a century in the Barksdale family; he especially provides for the holding of the family burial ground, with privilege of access. He had no sons, and the plantation was conveyed by his wife Serena M. Barksdale, as executrix, to James Macbeth, April 26, 1852; James Macbeth having married Mary Vanderhorst Barksdale, the eldest daughter of Thomas and Serena. The acreage and bounds were changed several times in the various division during the Barksdale ownership.

James Macbeth conveyed, to Philip Edward Porcher, January 20, 1859, the plantation called "Oakland, formerly Youghall," so the name of Oakland was probably given to the plantation by Macbeth.

The place was conveyed by Mr. Porcher to his daughter Mrs. Ferdinand Gregorie.

The house probably built by the Benisons is old and interesting, with good lines and fine wood-work; the burying ground is surrounded by a good brick wall, some what in need of repair, and has a number of handsome tombstones, which have been damaged by the earthquake, and by neglect.

Married. On Thursday evening. Dr. DeRosset, of Wilmington, to Miss Mary Fullerton, of this City.

Died. Dr. John Budd, in the 59th year of his age, who for nearly forty years, had practised physic with great reputation. He was descended from respectable ancestors in New Jersey, among whom was one of the original twenty-four proprietors of that province. His father was 80 and his mother 50 years old at the time of his birth. His father who labored under the gout for sixty-years, transmitted that disorder to his son; but he by rigid and perhaps excessive temperance. . . . suffered little from it for several of the last years of his life; nevertheless, from the suddenness of his death, it is supposed, that at last it proved fatal, by an instantaneous attack on the brain. . . . In November, 1775, when hostilities commenced within the harbor of Charleston by the Cherokee and Tamer, armed vessels of the king of Great Britain firing on the provincial schooner Defence, commanded by capt. Tufts, Dr. Budd paddled himself in a canoe, from a wharf on the Bay, and boarded the Defence in the midst of the firing in order to give the aids of his profession to his countrymen, who were supposed to have suffered much from having been long exposed to the fire of two British vessels within gunshot.

For several years the doctor had the honor of representing Charleston in the legislature of the state. . . . In the year 1780, when the British troops had nearly over ran the state, he renounced the comforts of home and the profits of his profession rather than return to his allegiance to the king of Great Britain, and as such had the honor of being exiled to St. Augustine, by Lord Cornwallis, as an incorrigible rebel against the royal government. (Saturday. Oct. 8, 1791.)

Married. On Wednesday evening, Mr. William Scott, to Miss Rebbecca Ham, daughter of Mr. Richard Ham, of this city. (Friday, Oct. 14, 1791.)

Died. On Sunday last, at Walnut Hill, near Dorchester, in the 14th year of her age, Miss Harriet Walter, daughter of Mr. John A. Walter deceased. Her death was occasioned by the burns she received in the fire of the 16th instant, as mentioned in our paper of Saturday last. During the fire she saved the lives of two negro children, by bringing them down stairs; she then ascended the stairs again, and assisted her aunt the third time she went to get some clothes, and save some articles, but before her return the flames had hemmed her in. (Thursday, Nov. 24, 1791.)<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> About one o'clock, on Tuesday morning last, the elegant house of Ralph Izard, jun. Esq; a few miles from Dorchester, took fire and was burned to the ground. Miss Oliphant and the two daughters of Mr. John Alleyne Walter, deceased, were living in the house, which was almost in a general blaze before they were apprised of their danger. Miss Oliphant and the eldest Miss Walter escaped unhurt, but the youngest, in attempting to save some articles

ADVERTISEMENTS OF ARTISTS

Following are a few advertisements of artists and their works which have been gathered from the Gazettes.

S. C. Gaz. Dec. 15, 1766. Warwell, from London, now at Charles-Town, South-Carolina, Begs leave to inform the Curious, who are collecting Natural Productions for Cabinets or Grottoes, that they may be supplied with a great variety from his collection opposite to the Right. Hon. Lord Montagu's—He is finishing a Grotesque Fountain of 400 weight, composed of English Topazes, Amethysts and other Petrifications, and builds small ones for chimnies niches, or brackets—He paints Altar-Pieces, Landscapes, Sea pieces, Scene painting, coaches, windows and coach Blinds, Deceptive Triumphal Arches, Ruins, Obelisks Statues &c for Groves and Gardens—Pictures carefully cleaned or mended Gilding. A collection of Ancient Drawings to be sold. White-washed rooms or passages painted in water-colours, in a new and lively taste. On April 13, 1767. “Warwell Sr.” advertises that he intends to leave the Province.

So. Ca. Gazette, March 30, 1767. Lewis Turtaz, Limner and miniature painter, from Lausanne in Switzerland, Gives notice

That he proposes to open a School on Monday of April next, at Mr. David Boillat's (French Baker) in Church Street, to teach Drawing in all its branches and also Miniatures; and that he will wait upon ladies that chose it at their own houses.

He will also draw Ladies and Gentleman's Pictures in miniature at the moderate rate of Twenty pounds for a head and bust; one half to be paid at the beginning the other half on delivery of the peice.

Ibid. November 30, 1767. A parcel of Italian Marble Chimney Pieces of the newest fashion to be sold, Enquire on board the ship America lying at Col. Beale's wharf of JOHN RAINIER.

So. Ca. Gazette. April 4, 1771. Mr. Fournier, Miniature Painter, &c. Is removed to Mrs. Rivers in Tradd St., almost opposite to Mr. Andrew Broughton's: and having now, in a great measure, recovered his health, is ready to wait upon any Gentlemen or Ladies who may be pleased to favor him with their Commands.

Ibid. May 7, 1772. Mr. Fournier, Miniature painter &c. Is returned from Georgia, He may be found at Mr. Juhans, in the House lately possessed by Dr. Fayssoux, near the New-England or White Meeting.

So. Ca. Gaz. Mar. 26, 1772. On Friday last, Mr. Bambridge, an ingenious Limner, &c. embarked on his Return to Philadelphia, with some other Passengers in the Brig. Prince of Wales, Capt. Moore.

Ibid. April 5, 1773. . . . From Philadelphia, Mrs. Benbridge (the wife of Mr. Benbridge, Portrait Painter) a very ingenious Miniature Paintress.

[Henry Bembridge was born in Philadelphia about 1750; studied in Rome under Pompeo Battoni, and received instructions from Meng. He is said to have commenced his portrait painting in CharlesTown, and was the instructor of Thomas Coram. He married a Miss Sage of Philadelphia. In 1799, according to Thomas Sully, he was settled in Norfolk, Va. He died in Philadelphia in poverty. (Dunlap—Hist. Arts of Design in U. S. vol. 1.)

The Copley-Pelham Letters, page 208, Dr. John Morgan to Mr. Byers, Philadelphia, Nov. 24, 1773, mentions Bembridge as follows

"In a visit I lately made to CharlesTown South Carolina, I saw Mr. Bambridge, who is settled very advantageously there, and prosecutes his Profession with Reputation and success.”]

So Ca. Gaz. Dec. 31, 1772. The General Gazette of last Monday tells us, that “A Lady arrived here a few Days ago who is a Niece of her Majesty’s Portrait Painter, the celebrated Miss Reid, and was by her instructed in the Art of painting Portraits in Crayons, which we are informed, she intends following here.”—But that Paper does not favour us with her name, or make it known that she is a Scotch Lady, and related to the Hon. His Majesty’s Superintendant &c. of Indian Affairs for this District.

So. Ca. Gaz. Dec. 12, 1774. The Drawing and Painting Academy (as formerly advertised) was opened on Wednesday the 23d. Nov. last, by John & Hamilton Stevenson, Limners, who propose to teach the Principles and Practice of this beautiful Art in all its various Branches, after the Manner they are taught in the Roman Schools, viz. Portraits, Landscapes, Flowers, Birds, Figures and Drawing from the Bust and Statue, in a stile never before taught in this Province; Painting from the Life in Crayons and in Miniature on Ivory: . . . .

They Continue to paint, as usual, at their House in Meeting Street, next Door to James Parson’s Esq; History and Portraits, Large, in Miniature for Rings and Bracelets; executed in Colors, in a Manner never before attempted: also sewing with Hair upon Silk for Bracelets, a Method which preserves the Hair and Work to the Latest Ages. . . . .

Hamilton Stevenson has been employed for some years of late in the most distinguished Families at Home, as a teacher of Drawing and painting. They intend to give a Constant Place and Materials gratis to Two Young Men of Genius that may be recommended by the Church-Wardens or the South Carolina Society, the Place to be supplied by new Pupils every Year.

S. C. Gazette, Supplement, Oct. 31, 1774. Proposals for publishing by Subscription, A view of Charles-Town; This view has been taken with the greatest Accuracy and Care by Mr. Leech, who is now employed about painting a finished Picture from the Drawings already made by him—The Picture will be ready to send home by the best Ships, expected from London, in order to be engraved; and will be so exact a Portrait of the Town, as it appears from the Water, that House in View will be distinctly known:—

And that nothing might be wanting to render it most complete, the two greatest Artists in the World—Messrs. Woollett and Smith have been engaged to undertake to engrave it.

Mr. Leech cannot support the Expence of such a Work without Assistance, and therefore proposes to all the Lovers of Polite Arts, opening a subscription, at so low a Price as a Guinea a Piece:—Half to be paid down at the Time of Subscribing, the other half on the Delivery of the Print.

The Print will be Thirty Inches long, by Eighteen high: and the Impressions may be most compleate, as soon as Three Hundred are subscribed for, the Subscription will be closed, the Picture sent Home, and no more Struck off than are Subscribed for. The Print will be delivered the First of January, 1776. . . . Subscriptions will be received by Mr. Leech, at his House in Meeting Street, opposite the Surveyor General's Office. . . .

SWISS NOTES ON SOUTH CAROLINA

BY GILBERT P. VOIGT

"On Tuesday last [February 1st] arrived——(Charlestown) Capt. Dunbarr from Rotterdam with above 200 Switzers out of the Canton of TOCKENBURGH [Toggenburg],<sup>1</sup> who are come to settle a Township on Savanna River called New Windsor, which was reserved for them upon a Petition to the Honorable the Governor and Council, granted some time since to one of their Commissioners Sebastasian Zouerbuhler, who was sent here by them to look out for and pitch upon Land which he should think most convenient for planting of hemp and Flax, and which, 't is hoped in time will be of no small Advantage to this Province."

So reads an item in the Gazette for January 29–February 5, 1737. This party of German-Swiss settlers had left their mountainous fatherland "in the beginning of August last" [1736] and had journeyed to Rotterdam, where they arrived "in September following" and "where they met with great hardships and a long detention from the Magistrates" of that city, the latter "pretending to oblige them to embark in a Dutch vessell when the said familys had already contracted for their passage to Carolina in an English Vessel which occasioned a demurage of Six weeks and an expence of several hundreds of pounds".<sup>2</sup> This delay had entailed a "Great Loss and Detriment" to these "familys" as well as to Sebastian Zouerbuhler and "his Friends".<sup>3</sup> The British "Minister at the Hague" had interceded for them with the result that they had "obtained leave to embark in the said English vessel." This they had done in November 1736 and had "sailed directly for Carolina."

In Sebastian Zouerbuhler's account of the migration of these Switzers, no mention is made of his having been sent to South Carolina by them for the purpose of selecting and securing a tract, or tracts, of land, as is stated in the Gazette.<sup>4</sup> It was "the Encouragements given to Colonel Purry for the settling a Township upon the River Savanna" that led him to come to the Province in the year 1734 "at his own cost and charge—in hopes of meeting with the same encouragements in proposing to People another Township." He further states that "during his stay in South Carolina he travell'd all over the Country to take a view of the Lands," on which His Majesty had "Ordered the Townships to be laid out, and after several conferences held with the Council at Charles Town he . . . concluded a Contract with them signed the 17th July 1736 for settling a Township up the River Savanna on a Place formerly an Indian Village, then called Savanna Town (at present New Windsor) and for bringing over one hundred Protestant Familys in the space of one Year wth a farther promise to bring over two hundred Familys more after the first hundred be well settled and able to subsist themselves."<sup>5</sup>—"In pursuance of the said Contract" he writ to his friends at Appenzel to come away with as many familys as could be got ready accordingly they set out with about fifty Familys consisting of one hundred and ninety two Persons (most able body'd young people and not above twenty children among them) . . . . Upon their arrival in Charles Town, the party encountered another hindrance and delay, so that it was not until that April they began the journey to New Windsor. "After a great deal of Trouble," writes the Rev. Bartholomew Zouberbuhler from "Charlestown in South Carolina" April 9th, 1737, "to his Son Sebastian Zouberbuhler at London,"<sup>6</sup> "The Government of South Carolina Resolved on the 2d of April to assist the People with three Pettiagos for Transporting them and their Baggage hence to New Windsor. But that in case they wanted more The People should provide them at their own Charges. Whereupon the People who absolutely refused to be at the Charge of a Sufficient Number of Pettiagoes and Boats, came to me and told me that as I had promised them that they should be carried to the Place free of all Charges, so they desired that I might provide them with a sufficient Number of Pettiagoes and Boats. Thus I found myself obliged to hire One Pettiagoe, over and above those provided by the Government, for which I am to pay One Pistole per diem; as also Two Trading Boats to carry them and their Baggage from Purrysburgh up the River to New Windsor for the Pettiagoes cannot go higher than Purrysburgh. All which Expences fall upon my Account. And therefore you must see to find Ways and Means for discharging the said Expences." The journey from Charles Town to Purrysburg lasted "four full Weeks," while the remaining distance from the latter point to New Windsor required "Seventeen days more."<sup>7</sup> On the evening of the seventh of May, some of the party<sup>8</sup> arrived at Ebenezer, Ga., where they spent the night with the Saltzburghers, while almost a month later, June 4th, another boatload touched at this place.<sup>9</sup>

<sup>4</sup> He first proposed in 1735 to bring over 100 Protestant Swiss families and asked for Provisions, Cattle, Tools and free Warrants Plots and Grants. After having "spent some time in viewing several Places in consequence of this Petition and having been taken ill he found it impossible for him to transport to Carolina the said 100 Familys in the time he at first Proposed." (Transcripts, vol. XVIII, p. 267 ff.)

<sup>5</sup> He does state that "they are chiefly qualified for cultivating hamp and Flax, and the Lands of the said Township" are "very fitt for that purpose."

The emigration of these settlers of New Windsor is mentioned at some length in the "21stes Neujahrsblatt der Zuerchersichen Huelfsgesellschaft," 1821.

"Enticed by these descriptions,<sup>10</sup> the number of emigrants soon increased. The town of Savannah (Savanna Town?) was populated chiefly by Switzers, and later (sic!) Newbern, North Carolina, was likewise settled by our fellow-countrymen. It was observed that at that time several hundred families passed through the pass near Wallenburg into the Canton of Basel alone. One of the largest crowds, consisting of inhabitants of eastern Switzerland, set out under the leadership of Governor Tobler, who had been dismissed from his position during the disturbances that took place in Appenzell at that time, and of a St. Gall preacher by the name of Zuberbuhler.<sup>11</sup> According to the reports of the latter, they had landed happily in Charlestown after a voyage of seven weeks. During the journey they had lost only two children out of two hundred and fifty persons. They had found enough fertile land and had been accorded a friendly reception everywhere. They had every reason to be sure of their future prosperity, provided that they should be industrious and orderly. He added that, in view of these facts, his son would return to St. Gall shortly and would bring fifty to sixty families more. The ordinances of the government prevented this; nevertheless Tobler and Zouberbuhler kept in touch with their fatherland for yet a

John Pierre Purry, which is mentioned as follows: "When toward the end of the year 1733, Purry made a journey to Switzerland, he brought with him several letters by different emigrants, who all testified as to their great satisfaction with their new fatherland. He himself, too, published some reports about Carolina. These, along with the afore-mentioned letters, were translated into German, under the title . . . , printed, and scattered everywhere."

<sup>11</sup> "There is a man among them (i.e. the settlers of New Windsor, who spent the night of May 7th at Ebenezer), whom they call Governor. long while, and the former, who was not unlearned in surveying and astronomy, dedicated to the states of Glarus, Appenzell and the three confederacies an almanac<sup>12</sup> for the year 1754, which contained a description of South Carolina and on whose title page he designated himself Justice of the Peace of Granville County. Meanwhile, not all of his former fellow-travelers (i.e. emigrants) had been in like measure satisfied with their lot. Several returned to Europe in a wretched state, and one of these, Wernhard Trachsler of Elgg published a short account of his journey, in which he complained bitterly of the hardships of the journey, the unfriendliness of the climate and of the inhabitants, poor food and dwellings, diseases, wild people and wild animals, and dissuaded everyone from journeying thither. There also appeared with this report a lament of those who had remained behind in Carolina, which contained among other stanzas the following one: [Note. A prose translation is given.]

"I journeyed from a free land, in which I lived honestly and honorably. I did not know of Carolina, where I am now a slave. I have no freedom at all. Great God, grant me Thy grace!"

Hans Wernhard Trachsler's "short account of his journey," which has been mentioned in the foregoing paragraph, bore the following title: "Brief Description of a Journey to the Province of Carolina, situated in the West Indies, together with a Report of the Character, Nature, and Features of this Land by a Citizen who Recently Returned to his own Country." It was published in 1738 at Zurich and was "printed in Burckli's Printery." A translation which follows is complete save for a few words that are unintelligible in the written copy from which it was made.

"Hans Wernhard Trachsler of Elgg, district of Zurich, formerly soldier in Imperial and Royal French service, had the desire to see Carolina and undertook to do it. Accordingly on the ninth of September, 1736 he took leave of his wife and children at Elgg and with eighty five gulden<sup>13</sup> cash journeyed to Holland alone. From Basel to Rotterdam it costs a person over twelve years of age eight gulden; from four to twelve years four gulden, boat passage alone, without food and drink, besides baggage six gulden per hundred weight. In Rotterdam he met many persons who also intended to travel thither, from various places, especially Switzers from Appenzell, Pundten? (Graubuenden?) and Rheintal; among whom were Mr. Zuebli<sup>14</sup> of St. Gall, Pastor Zuberbuehler of Troguen, Governor Tobler of Herisau, and others. These men and all the rest present, making a company of 250 persons, entered into an agreement with the captain of a vessel before the voyage to the afore-mentioned province of Carolina. He undertook to carry them, and made them pay him for freight, care, and food, for a grown person five louis d'ors; for a person from three to twelve years old, two and a half louis d'ors; and for children under three, nothing. During this time there was apportioned to them, in messes of five persons, every twenty-four hours on Sundays and Tuesdays, dried beef, On Saturdays, pork; on Fridays, cod-

<sup>14</sup>In a letter of the Salzburger pastors, Boltzius and Gronau, dated July 29, 1737, mention is made of Mr. Zueblin, who had "recently brought" them "the letters and the gift," and who had been sick in Purrysburg "almost as long as he" had been "in the land." From the diary of these pastors we learn that Mr. Zueblin of Purrysburg had two brothers who had desired to be taken in at Ebenezer. The date of this item is Dec. 19, 1737. The entry for Feb. 25, 1736 contains the information that two brothers named "Ziebely" had been supplied with provisions "from the store-house in Savannah" at the request of the pastors, when "some time ago" they had been "in very great want of" these and had been "forsaken by everybody." Their parents in St. Gall were said to be "wealthy people," and they wished to "pay back everything with joy in due time." "Both brothers fear God," we are told, "and make use of our (the Salzburger pastors') ministry, as often as we come to Purrysburg." From the entry of November 8, 1742, we learn that Mr. David Zuebli had a son in Switzerland, who was studying theology. . . . "The father should have liked to have had him become the German preacher in Purrysburg; but, because the number of the German people is becoming continually smaller and he himself no longer has a great desire to remain there, therefore he desires that the German people in Savannah might call him to be their preacher." We are further informed (February 8, 1743) that "Mr. Zuebli from Purrysburg" had written to one of the pastors "that he wished to keep the most of his negroes only a few days longer and to release himself from this burden (or charge) and to change his manner of life according to God's apparent direction." Again (February 8, 1743) we are told that "Mr. Zuebli" had "bought, on his arrival in the land, a plantation of two hundred acres on the Savannah River, but" that he had "long ago been forced by the frequent flooding, which now for two years had continued longer than formerly, to abandon it and" had "rented another in the interior that" was "very remote (isolated)." [These items are taken from the Salzburger Nachrichten.]

fish; on other days, boiled rice, peas, and barley together with a quart of water and beer and a piece of zwieback per head. Children under three, as they paid no passage, were counted to their parents. But this supply of food was not sufficient for them, they being people not accustomed to voyages, so that every one had to try at times to buy something from the ship-steward out of his own pocket. Moreover, they had to lie on the hard floor without any beds, and the sea caused them many sick days and fever. After twelve weeks and three days they finally arrived in Carolina, and they disembarked in the chief city, Charleston, situated in South Carolina, and were lodged in two shacks. There they caused a petition to be presented to the English Council and the Governor that they, like those who had arrived before them, might receive the provision and support for the first year, as was promised to the aforementioned Pastor Zuberbuehler's son in Carolina and even in London; but they were refused and silenced, inasmuch as His Royal Majesty of England has issued an order not to advance or give anything more to anybody.<sup>15</sup> Hereupon they found themselves in the most extreme poverty; they had to eat themselves, as it were; home and hope they had none; work they did not find. They scattered here and there. Some remained in Charlestown; others went to Purrysburg and Orangeburg, Congaree, Savannah (Savannah Town, i. e. New Windsor?) and other places, where they were assigned to woodland and raw fields; others, and especially the women who had lost their husbands on the voyage, begged.<sup>16</sup> Trachsler, for his part, found some credit <sup>15</sup> The Minutes of Council for February 4, 1737/8 contain the reply of the Council to a message from the House, in which reply we find the following words: " . . . the late Lieut<sup>t</sup>. Governor by the advice of His Majesty's Council, with proper prudence and Caution near a Year Agoe Caused an Advertizement to be Published and Continued in the Weekly Gazette giving Notice of the Expiration of that Law (i.e., the Appropriation Law) and of the Insufficiency of the Fund to provide for the poor Protestants then Arrived" . . .

<sup>16</sup> On February 3, 1737/8 a message was sent by the House to the Council in which we find the following reference to the plight of some newly arrived immigrants: " . . . Especially as we have Such frequent Complaints that for want of some Provision being made for these people (Irish Protestants) and the Other Poor Protestants lately arrived in this Province, this Town is filled with people begging from Door to Door in So much that Unless they are Some way forthwith provided for they will become a perfect and began to butcher, and rented in Charlestown a shed or shanty made of boards for 20 Batzen of our money per week. Some time afterwards, when Spain made some moves looking to an invasion of the country and on this account the fortresses were occupied, he received from the said Council in Charlestown the favor to be placed in the fortress of Port Royal, which lies in the direction of Georgia, as sergeant with fifty men from the best people under the command of a lieutenant from Prussia. Here they had enough to eat, but after four months were paid off and discharged. Then he went to Orangeburg and tried to support himself again with butchering and soap-boiling, which he had learned years before in France. He also entered into an agreement with a captain, to whom he offered to teach soap-boiling, for four years for a half of the profits. But he was unable from the very beginning to come to any accounting with the gentleman. Therefore he applied to the magistrate and there had himself released from the contract. As he now had some money on hand, he again hired passage with it on a ship and sailed back to Holland, taking with him the wife of a smith in Troguen. Only a few days ago he returned to his children in Elgg.

All persons who get to Rotterdam will be transported to this province. Such as are provided with money can engage passage themselves on the ships, which sail at intervals. But such as are not in a condition to do this will be taken charge of and sent over by the Messrs. Hoppen,<sup>17</sup> prominent merchants there, (a few unintelligible words) in the manner described above, except that those who live only by grace fare even somewhat worse in the treatment over the sea and in this province. To those who pay the ship-passage out of their own money, immediately a portion of land, thirty acres<sup>18</sup> to the head, is apportioned, but without Nusance to the Present Inhabitant of the Town." Relief and action was urged. The Council replied on the following day (cf. note on preceding page) and recommended that the "poor Protestants" "Enter into Service without more loss of time."

<sup>17</sup> In a pamphlet entitled "Umstaendliche Nachricht vor diejenigen, welche auf eine sichere Weise nach S. C. America, ziehen wollen," Speyer, 1741, there is a copy of a contract drawn up between some emigrants to South Carolina and the firm of "Archibald Isaac Zachariah Hope, Merchants in Rotterdam." The date of this contract is April 5, 1741.

house, barn, victuals nor implements for the cultivation of this land: but they are simply assigned to the apportioned piece of land thus bare of all things. It is true that in the beginning the provision in victuals and other things was advanced to the Europeans who arrived in this land for the first year; but in the year 1736 His Majesty of England issued a manifest that no advance should any more be given to any stranger. But the others, who are taken charge of by the aforementioned Messrs. Hoppen in Rotterdam, are sold to the farmers settled there for four years. They serve for food and clothing, but must do such work as is too severe for them in this hot country and uses the most of them up. This South Carolina is a very hot country. Already in March the heat is as great as in the middle of the summer in Switzerland. In December there is sometimes wet and cold weather, but not enough to freeze at this time. But especially in the approaching spring, often so sharp a wind blows that one needs the best clothing if one wishes to work outdoors. Around the towns and along the two rivers the land is very fertile, so that anything can be planted in the gardens; but there are no grape-vines. Every acre around there is worth 200 gulden.

But the land which is distant from the rivers and which is distributed to the new-comers, is hot beyond all measure, and if one wishes to plant anything at all on it, especially in the beginning when it must be cleared, it requires strong hand-work. This land is full of wild men who live in the woods stark naked, but who do no harm to other people. They do nothing but shoot wild animals, bears, wolves and deer and bring their skins and pelts to the towns to sell them and exchange them for victuals. Besides, there are very many negroes who have been sold thither as slaves. These people are worth a high price, because they are much more able to do the work and much cheaper to keep in food and drink than the Europeans. As to divine service, there are neither ministers nor churches anywhere except in the chief city Charlestown, where there is a French Church.<sup>19</sup> Neither does one find Bibles or other books for sale. In Orangeburg, a goldsmith, Gietzendanner of Liechtenstaeg,<sup>20</sup> has lately set up as a pastor and preached every Sunday in an open place near to his own cottage. Children as old as nine years were brought to him for the administration of baptism, and people came a distance of forty English miles (one of which makes half an hour) to his preaching. On account of the vehement heat and the bad food and drink, everybody who comes to this country must endure severe diseases, especially fevers, from which the most die. One sees no money consisting of silver and gold, but only paper, on which the English coat of arms and the value are printed. There are notes of four, two and one louis d'ors, an English pound containing ten batzen of our money, and so on down to a half crown, which is equal to ten kreutzer. If anyone is fortunate enough to obtain a loan, he must pay ten per cent interest per year to Englishmen for it, and fifteen per cent to the Jews, who have also invaded this country. In the government as in all other matters there is not the least order. Everybody can trade, work and undertake whatever he wishes to. But crimes, especially theft, are severely punished. Everything produced by handiwork brings a high price; clothing and agricultural implements can scarcely be had. Tools necessary for work and cultivating the ground are worth very much: a saw is sold for nine English pounds, a shovel or a hoe for thirty batzen, an axe for twenty batzen, a hand-mill for nine pennies, and so forth. This country, like other countries, is subject to blessed as well as unfruitful years; but all provisions are always dear. A hundred weight of rice is worth four to five Carolina pounds, a loaf of bread half a pound, a pound of lean beef a batzen (altogether the cattle in this country is small, and the largest ox will weigh not more than four and a half hundred weight; it is not stall-fed, but roams wild in the woods), a pound of tallow ten kreutzer; one pound of sea-fish ten kreutzer, and so forth. On account of the great heat, there is no fruit, figs and the like. The drink consists of bad water or in a mixture of brandy, sugar, lemon and water, which is called punch there and is dear. A quart is sold for twenty kreutzer. But it is quite unhealthful and unadapted to the nature of Europeans. Wine from Spain is also brought into the country, but on account of the high price only the rich can afford it. Only in and around the towns are houses to be found, but in the country only shacks or shanties made of boards and covered with brush, in which the people stay. All that these are able to plant on the land given to them, and that too with the most laborious work, consists of Indian corn, of which they make cakes, bake them at the fire and so nourish themselves. But the poor get nothing all the year round for their sustenance but potatoes, which they dig out of the ground themselves. With these alone they have to keep themselves alive, and they see neither bread, meat, nor anything else.

"Jno. Ulrich Giessendanner Silversmith gives Notice, that he makes & mends all sorts of small work, designs and engraves Seals, Coats of Arms &c. in Gold, Silver, Copper or Pewter. He lives on the Green by the Church in the House of Mrs. Hammerton. He likewise sells a Balsamus Aromaticus good for the head and tooth-ache and other Infirmities, also an excellent and comfortable Balsam of Mace."

This province of South Carolina, here described, is four hundred miles distant from Pennsylvania. But there, according to reports, life is much more miserable and toilsome. This deponent, Hans Wernhard Trachsler, met some of the people who disembarked there, who were in extreme poverty and could not sufficiently lament their misery, so that one even broke out into this lamentation: 'It is better to die upon the ocean than to come into West India and perish there.' For not a few die from misery and sorrow upon the almost endless open sea and find a grave in the wild waves of the desolate ocean. Therefore one cannot sufficiently thank God when he gets back healthy into his dear fatherland and into his old home, especially as it is very difficult to get free and away again; for it must be known that if one wishes to leave the country again, he must first give notice at the state chancellory in Carolina and have his name called out for three weeks and three days in order that if anybody has any claims against him, he may report and make everything right before his departure. But the principal thing is that they are not willing to let people out, because the more populous the country is, the safer they feel; among other things also on account of the pests, like snakes and crocodiles, of which there is a multitude. Finally, one of the chief hindrances to getting away is the overwhelming costs which are demanded of those who return. For instance, the deponent and Anna Maria Hugendobler, with three children, had to give 162 gulden for passage as far as London, Gabriel Schaeffer, however, had to pay 125 gulden for himself alone, because they had to give him more serviceable food; although the journey is also long and one reckons from Carolina to Rotterdam alone 2200 hours on the water, in which there is many a bitterly sad moment, to which the person mentioned at the outset will testify from his own experience to the end of his days."

DEATHS AND BURIALS

Beati in Domino Morientes

On Sunday June ye 17th 1770 Departed this Life Jacob Motte Esq; Thirty Years Public Treasurer of this Province, and was interred in his Family Burying Ground in St. Philips Church Yard on Tuesday following Aged Sixty Nine Years Six[?] Months and Eighteen Days.

“His Corps was attended to the Grave by a very considerable Number of the Inhabitants, who were indeed real Mourners. The Characters of Husband, Parent and Relation, in which he stood foremost may be paralleled, but cannot be exceeded. His publick Character rendered him generally known, his private virtues as unanimously respected. He lived in constant practice of every Christian duty and was a striking example of that vivacity and cheerfulness which distinguishes the man void of offence. He esteemed every good character and in return was beloved by all. His Charity was distinguished by a prudent application to deserving objects—And it may well with great truth and justice be said, that in him the Province has lost an excellent citizen, and the poor a most generous benefactor.”

Thomas Lynch Dart, the fourth Son of John Sandiford Dart and Martha Dart, was born at Cooks Farm in Christ Church parish on Saturday Febrary ye 10th 1776 and was privately baptized by the Revd. Henry Purcell A.B. Rector of the said Parish on Thursday June 6th 1776.

Motte Alston Read

MOTTE ALSTON READ became a member of the South Carolina Historical Society in 1909 and was chosen as a curator in 1912.

He was born June 20, 1872, and was the eldest son of William Melvin Read of Virginia by his wife Jane Ladson Alston, daughter of Mr. Jacob Motte Alston of South Carolina.

He completed his college education at Harvard University where he received the degree of Bachelor of Science in 1893. His subsequent scientific work can be best told by a quotation from the News and Courier (August 6, 1914) telling of his election to the chair of Biology in the College of Charleston, which the condition of his health prevented him from ever filling:

"He continued his scientific work in Munich during several years in the later nineties and in 1901 was elected to the chair of Physiography in Harvard University. In 1902 he was again in Europe, engaged in palaeontological faunal studies in the Tyrol, and returning to Harvard in the fall was elected, while still holding the Harvard Chair, to the instructorship in Physiography in Radcliffe College and in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Prof. Read was at various times vice president of the Harvard Natural History Society, a member of the Boston Natural History Society, field assistant in the United States Geological Survey, member of the International Congresses of Geologists, which met in Washington in 1891, in Russia in 1897, and in Paris in 1900. He is also a member of the German Alpine Verein, and a charter member of the Harvard Traveller's Club, devoted to furthering scientific travel. The principal subjects of his research have been palaeontology of the Amphibia and Reptilia, the geographical distribution of life and lands past and present, and eugenics. His chief publication is Gastropods of the Volcanic Tuff of the Seisser Alp, Tirol, Triassic."

Mr. Read was also an earnest student of history, principally in its economic and racial development. For he was a careful observer of heredity both in its narrower or personal aspect and in its broader sense, as involving the development or decay of groups of individuals, connected by blood or descent, called loosely tribes, nations, and races.

This it was that gave the impulse to his historical studies of the older families of Virginia and the Carolinas, and led to his continued interest in this Society, and its publications. And it is a distinct loss that the increasing infirmity produced by his cruel disease prevented his completing the work he had in hand for publication in this magazine. This disease it was which in the full vigour of manhood broke off his professional career and compelled his retirement to his Texan ranch in the hope that an active out-of-door life might assist his powers of resistance. Finding this hope a vain one, he made his home in Charleston and resigned himself to the sedentary life of his library, where his mental activities in the acquirement and arrangement of knowledge continued to his death, even though his own productiveness became daily more limited by pain and loss of physical powers.

And yet visits to this library were constant pleasures to his friends, for they found in it a fortitude which allowed no place to regrets for lost opportunities and no complaints over present disabilities. But in place of these they met an active interest in current events, a keen intelligence, a superb memory, and a readiness to discuss the great movements of the intellectual world whether in science, in history, or in art. For among his acquirements was a knowledge and developed taste in the last, which made his opinions authoritative among connoisseurs, and enabled him to form for his own pleasure a fine collection of Japanese Color Prints.

A BILL OF COMPLAINT IN CHANCERY, 1700

Contributed by MABEL L. WEBBER

The following rather amusing and unusual bill of complaint was copied from a paper found among some unindexed documents in the office of the Clerk of Court, Charleston, S. C.

Most of the people mentioned were prominent at that period; Thomas Cary and John Danson were sons-in-law of Governor Archdale, Cary being at one time a member of Council (McCrady, Vol. 1). George Dearlsey was a member of Council in 1697, and a large land owner, had several holdings in Christ Church parish (see page 73); he made his will June 20, 1702, and mentions Patrick Logan, son of George Logan Esq; to whom he leaves negroes, and two of four lots in Charles Town purchased of John Barksdale, George Logan the brother of Patrick to inherit in case Patrick die; leaves to Susannah Cornish household goods and plantation (goods?) whatsoever in Carolina, two negroes and 200 acres at Boowatt purchased of John Nix; to her daughter Ann, under age, four negroes; To Edward, son of Susannah Turlow, four negroes and one town lot, and plantation of 400 acres at Wap-petaw; to his sister Elizabeth Quelch and her heirs, plantation where he lived, with all buildings, stock and 10 negroes. To friend George Logan Esq; horse and negro boy Buckingham, said George Logan to be sole executor.

The fourth part of the briganteen Mayflower which he owns to be sold on her return to Carolina to pay for the finishing of the ship he is now building for his father Richard Dearsley in Barbadoes, but if the said vessell make a profitable voyage, then after debts are paid, one half to father Richard Dearsley, Esq; and in case of his death to brother and sisters in law equally divided; one fourth to sister Elizabeth Quelch and the other to be divided equally between Susannah Cornish and her daughter and Susannah Turlow's son Edward.

Witnesses were Robert Dacres, Wm. Allen, John Morgan and Anth'y Mathews; Examined April 20, 1704 (or 9?) and recorded July 6, 1719. (Probate Court 1711-18, page 60.)

George Hearne was a bondsman for Frances Betterton, widow of William Betterton, May 9, 1705 (This Magazine, vol. xii, 213).

Robert Dacres "late of the Province of Carolina, bachelor" died intestate; administration was granted 28 April, 1707 to Robert Johnson, Esq; attorney for Hon. Thos. Broughton, Dame Mary Dacres, mother of the defunct, first renouncing (Ibid vol. iv, 236).

May ye 8th, 1700

Humbly Complaining Sheweth unto ye Hon<sup>'bls</sup> Your Orator Robert Dacres of Carolina Gent. That on or about the thirteenth day of January 1698/9 Your Orator being on board of a Ship to take leave of Some friends, And being there Overtaken in drinke coming home One George Hearne came into Comp<sup>a</sup>. wth. Your Orator and Invited him to his the sd. Hearne's house, And there perceiving Yr Orator's Disorder, He took that Opportunity to tempt Yr. Orator to play, And so wone of Yr. Orator the Summe of ffifty-Nine pounds, and accordingly gott Yr. Orator being So in drinke to Sign a Note or bill Under his hand to pay the Sd. Hearne the Said summe of ffivety Nine pounds, And in Some few days afterwards, he the sd. Hearne demanded the sd. Summ of ffivety Nine pounds of Yr. Orator, But your Orator not remember that he was in the Comp<sup>a</sup>. of the sd Hearne, Or had played with him Or had given any Note or bill for the sd Summ of ffivety Nine pounds refused the payment of the Same, Whereupon upon the sd Hearne Relating how he had won moneys of yr Orator to Coll<sup>n</sup> Thomas Cary & Mr. John Danson of Carolina Merch'ts: They the sd Cary and Danson acquainting yr Orator with the Same, did propose to yr Orator that if he would Venture five pounds they would play off the sd Note for £59:—wth the said Hearne, And win the Same back again for yr Orator, And take up yr Orator's Note, Which Yr Orator consenting to, and Engaging to pay the sd Cary & Danson—if they Lost so farr as five pounds Upon this Consideration, That what they wone of the sd Hearne, it should be to the discharging of yr Orators Note of £59—as aforesaid, And upon this Consideration the sd Cary & Danson played wth the sd Hearne, and wonn of him to ye ffule Value of £59 in discharge of yr Orators Note, togeather with more Monys for themselves, But the sd Cary & Danson after having wonn of the sd. Hearne as aforesaid, pretended to yr. Orator that they could nott gett his Note for the sd Summ of £59; from the sd Hearne, Excepting yr Orator (for a Colour) would give a Note Either to ye sd. Cary or Danson for the Summ of £59;—And accordingly the sd. Cary drew a bill for ffivety Nine pounds payab'le to the sd Danson Who both of them promised yr. Orator it should not be made use of against him, but that the same should be given up to yr Orator when desired, And yr Orator confiding in the Promises of the sd Cary & Danson, accordingly Signed the same, and had the Note for £59 pay<sup>ble</sup> to the sd. Hearne delivered to him, But so it is may it please yr Hon<sup>rs</sup>. that the sd Danson being bound on a Voyage to England on Or about the Latter End of, the Sd. Month of ffebruary or beginning of March 1698/9 Yr Orator desired y sd. Danson to give him up the sd Note for £59: so Obtained as aforesaid, According to his the sd Danson and Cary's Promises to ye sd Orator. And the sd. Danson replyed that he had put the sd Note into the hands of the sd Coll<sup>n</sup> Cary and further say'd that the said Cary would deliver yr. Orat<sup>r</sup> the said Note when desired, When in truth the said Danson had not delivered the sd Note to the sd Cary, but had delivered the syne to Maj<sup>r</sup>. George Dearsly with Power and Directions to put sd Note in Suite, against yr Orator, as soon as he the sd Danson was gone off, Which the sd. Maj<sup>r</sup>. Dearsley

Accordingly did, in the Name of the sd. Danson by causing Writts to be prosecuted against yr Orator, who was arrested upon the Same on or about the 22th day of March 1699/00—in an action of Debt for ffivety Nine pounds, And a Declaration upon the Same filed against yr. Orator the fifth day of Aprill 1699 in the Court of Common Please of this Province, as by the Records of the same doth appear, all which practices of the sd Danson are Contrary to all Rights, Equity, and good Conscience, In tender Consideration whereof, And for as much as yr Orator is not relievable in the promises by the Strict Rules of the Common Law, but is altogether remediless in the same, Unless by the Aid of this Hon<sup>ble</sup>. Court, yr. Orator may have A Particular discovery thereof by the Corporable Oaths of the sd John Danson Thomas Cary, and yr. sd. George Hearne, who are well known and are Satisfied of the Truth of all and Singular the promises before Sett forth, who when they doe answer to these Upon Oath, must & will discover the same, To the End therefore that the sd. Confederators Danson Cary and Hearne, and Every of them may Sett forth upon what Consideration the sd. Note of £59: pay<sup>bl</sup>. by yr. Orator to ye sd Danson was given, And if the Same was for the moneys Lent of Goods & Merchandise sold and Delivered, or any other Lawfull Consideration, And if the same was not Obtained from yr. Orator as above sett fforth, and Upon noe Other Consideration whatsoever.

May it Please Yr. Hon<sup>ls</sup> to grant unto yr. afors<sup>d</sup> Orator the Writt or Writts of Supoena to be directed to the sd. John Danson, Thos. Cary & George Hearne, commanding them & Every of them att a Certain day, and Under a certain Penalty, there in to be Limited personally to be and appear before yr Hon<sup>rs</sup>. Court then and there to make direct Answer upon Oath to Every Clause and Article in this yr. Orators bill of Complaint, as fully as if the Same had againe been reported and interrogated, And further to stand to and abide such Order & Decree therein, as to yr. Hon<sup>s</sup>. shall seem just wth. Equity.

And also the writt of Injuction injoying him the sd. John Danson, his Councill<sup>s</sup>. Attorneys & Sollicitors, to Stay & Surcease all further prosecution upon the Note or bill, and that there be noe further proceedings on the Same, untill Other Orders shall be taken therein by Yr. Hon<sup>rs</sup>. And that y<sup>r</sup> Orator by Decree of this Hon<sup>ble</sup> Court may be ffully relieved in the Promise According as to y<sup>r</sup> Honr<sup>e</sup>. in Your Wisdom shall seem meet, agreeable to Equity and good Conscience.

And Y<sup>r</sup>. Orator as in Duty bound

TWO LETTERS FROM CHARLES COTESWORTH PINCKNEY TO RALPH IZARD

(From Collection of South Carolina Historical Society)

[1]

(Address missing)

Charleston Nov<sup>r</sup>: 5th: 1794

Dear S—<sup>r</sup>:

By Strong we had expected the pleasure of Mrs. Izard's Company; but as she has preferred the Journey by Land I have agreeable to your desire written to M<sup>r</sup>; Chesnutt, & I have no doubt but that he will pay her every attention when she arrives at Camden, and we still flatter ourselves we shall be favoured with her Company when she comes to Charleston—

From one of her letters to Mrs. Pinckney I find I have not received one or two of your Letters, and that one of mine has miscarried—In that I informed you that Mr. Hamilton<sup>1</sup> the Ship Builder did not chuse to be concerned in the Building of a Frigate; that Mr. Pritchard<sup>2</sup> thought it might be done here, and that Capt<sup>a</sup>. George<sup>3</sup> said he would undertake it; I also inclosed you Copies of Capt. Mayrant's<sup>4</sup> Commission and Certificates, and which I also now inclose, that if more Frigates should be put into Commission he may be in the way of promotion—a Letter from the Secretary of War to me has also miscarried, as in a Letter of his to the Governor, he directs him to cause a certain vessel to be delivered up to the original owners, and mentions to him “that if he did not chuse to execute the order I could, and that a copy of the order and of the Letter was sent to me for that purpose—”

This Letter the Governor shewed to Judge Bee and to Mr. Holmes the Collector, and at the same time caused the vessel to be delivered up, but no copy of it, or of the order ever came to me—

The Letters I received from the Secretary at War were previous to this, and had no allusion to the vessel which was the subject of this Letter—I wish I could discover the rascals who amuse themselves in interrupting my Correspondence—By Capt. Strong I send a small Box with two articles sent in it, to be altered agreeable to the paper in the Box, also 25 Dollars with which I will beg you to pay the inclosed Bill [of] Gardelters, and to return the Articles when altered either by Strong or any other safe opportunity.

I am just setting out for the review of the Southern regiments, and on my return shall not remain in Charleston above three days before I set out for Columbia where I expect to have a very disagreeable sessions owing to, the Appian politics—

With great regard and Esteem I remain

CHARLES COTESWORTH PINCKNEY.

Dear S<sup>r</sup>:

On the 20th instant I wrote to you from Columbia, and gave you an account of our Elections and the termination of the Appian business; this Letter will be confined altogether to the management of your plantating Interest. Mr. Owen called on me yesterday and we had a long conversation on that subject. I find with 220 workers you have not made this year more rice than E Rutledge and myself have at Charleywood with ninety; That in some of your plantations there has been considerable embezzlement; and that on your plantation where you make most to the hand and really a good crop, there is no overseer but only a Black Driver—From hence I conclude that your planting Interest is most abominably managed, and that it will continue to be so while Mr. Pryor has anything to do with it—He is infirm, unwieldy, without activity Monstrum, horrendum, informe, ingens, cui lumen ademptum.—<sup>5</sup> It is impossible for him, (if he had the inclination) to look after your business with the attention it requires, and both Mr. Owen and myself are of the opinion that it is essential to your Interest that Mr. Pryor should be dismissed. Fraser is dead—Mr. Owen thinks Mr. Perry might be prevailed on to superintend it, if that could be accomplished, as he already rides through your plantations twice or thrice a week, and is an excellent Planter. it would be most a desirable object—But if Mr. Perry should decline this business I think that you had better let Mr. Owen direct as he did in 1777 when without the Santee Negroes, you made fifteen hundred Barrells of Rice, whereas this year with the addition of the Santee Negroes will not make a thousand. I have thus frankly given you my sentiments on your affairs, you however are the best judge how they should be conducted and will act accordingly.

I inclose a paper with the additional Militia Act and the Numbers of the Divisions Brigades and regiments which I will request you to shew with my Compts to Generals Pickens and Winn—accept the Compliments of the Season and be assured I am

Your friend

CHARLES COTESWORTH PINCKNEY.

Died. On Tuesday morning, 9th July, in the 50th year of his age, Mr. Casper Wershing, an honest man, and for many years an inhabitant of this city. (Saturday, July 12, 1793.)

Died. In the seventy first year of her age, at Philadelphia, whither in compliance with importunate solicitations of her friends, anxious for the preservation of so valuable a life, she had gone for the recovery of her health, Mrs. Elizabeth Pinckney, the amiable relict of the honorable colonel Charles Pinckney, formerly so eminent at the bar, on the judiciary bench, and in the legislature of this country; and mother of brigadier general Pinckney, and of Mr. Pinckney, the present minister of the United States of America, at the court of Great-Britain. This all accomplished lady, possessed, in a most eminent degree, all the amiable and engaging qualities, united to all the virtues and graces, which embellish and exalt the female character.—Her manners had been so refined, by a long and intimate acquaintance with the polite world, her countenance was so dignified by serious contemplation and devout reflection, and so replete with all that mildness and complacency which are the natural results of a regular uninterrupted habit and practice of virtue and benevolence that it was scarcely to behold her without emotions of the highest veneration and respect. Her understanding, aided by an uncommon strength of memory, had been so highly cultivated and improved by travel and extensive reading, and was so richly furnished, as well with scientific, as practical knowledge, that her talent for conversation was unrivalled, and her company was sedulously sought after by all, without distinction of age or sex, who could be so happy as to gain admission into it. Her religion was rational, liberal, and pure. The source of it was seated in the judgement and the heart, and from thence issued a life, regular, placid, and uniform.

“Mild as the blest above, without serene
As Eden’s air, and calm as heaven within.”

In a word, her whole life was like the Milky way with stars, thick-set with the genuine fruits of sincere piety and active benevolence. The natural consequence of such a life was, that she met death in the midst the most excruciating pain, with a truly Christian fortitude, and a Heaven born tranquility.

“She taught us how to live, and, oh too high
A price for knowledge! taught us how to die.”

(Wednesday, July 17, 1793.)

Died. In Laurens county, on the 16th day of June, in the 19th year of her age, Miss Jane Hunter, eldest daughter of the honorable John Hunter Esq. This youthful lady is much regretted by her relations and friends, and all those that had the pleasure of her acquaintance. (Friday, July 19, 1793.)

Married On Monday last, two celebrated widows, ladies of America and France, after having repudiated their husbands on account of their ill treatment, conceived the design of living together in the strictest union and friendship; the said amiable ladies, in order to give a pledge of their fidelity, requested that their striped gowns should be pinned together, that their children should be looked upon as one family, while their mothers showed them an equal affection. Mr. Lee officiated with dignity as their proxy, and explained the reciprocal obligations these two ladies promised to confer on each other, inviting their children at the same time to imitate their mothers; Mr. Samuel Prioleau acted as the sponsor of the American lady, with that dignity, which such a deserving ward required; Mr. Huger, Ramsay, and Burke, three of her faithful guardians, assisted at the feast on this occasion. The brave artillery signed that contract by the fire of their guns, and all their brothers in arms by thousands of huzzas; the merry guests waited for his excellency in an anxious solicitude, they lamented his absence, but they rested assured of his patriotism; the representative of the gallic lady, M. A. B. Mangourit, was so feelingly touched at this so noble a scene, that while his eyes overflowed with tears of joy, he only lamented the absence of the president and all those of his colleagues that are true friends to those ladies, to join with the French Americans to celebrate the Carmagnole and sing Ca Ira. (Saturday, July 20, 1793.)

INSCRIPTIONS FROM THE CHURCH-YARD AT STRAWBERRY CHAPEL.

The name of Strawberry was used for this locality on the Eastern side of the Western branch of the Cooper river, as early as July, 1698, when James Child had a grant of 1200 acres there; he early laid out a town at the bluff on the river, which he called "Childsberry Town," and in his will, dated October 29, 1718, he gave an acre and a half in the town, for a Church, or Chapel.

On December 9, 1725, an Act was passed for establishing a Parochial Chapel at Ease at Childsbury to the Parish Church in St. John's Parish, Berkeley County. The Chapel was built at the charge of several of the parishioners, on the land given by James Child in his will; it was of brick, and is the same building which stands to-day. The name of Childsbury soon disappeared, and the chapel has always, and still is, called Strawberry chapel. The burying ground is still in use.

A full account of Childsbury, with a plat of the town, and the Strawberry locality, written by Judge Henry A M.. Smith, will be found in this Magazine, vol. xiv, pages 198-203, and vol. xv, pages 107-112.

IZARD-LAURENS CORRESPONDENCE

[HENRY LAURENS TO RALPH IZARD]

Ralph Izard; London.
Per Portland—Wilson
Copy per Purchase.

10th February 1775.

Dear Sir:

If I should any longer delay writing you might not only wonder, but ascribe my silence to Some wrong cause.

To morrow will complete two months since my arrival here in that time the attention of every Man of any rank obscurity has been more or less engaged in public affairs, not one more particularly called upon than Mr. E. Rutledge,<sup>1</sup> to this circumstance I attribute his inability, after many promises, to join me in a visit to your plantations which I should have made several weeks ago if he had not particularly signified a desire to accompany me, and in order to accomodate him as well as to indulge my self I would continue to wait, if it were not likely to be attended with great injury to your Interest—but I have heard from Mr. Thomas Smith, concerning your Goose Creek Plantation and of Mr. Farr, of your Estates in general such bad Acct's as oblige me even at the hazard of further losses in my own to interpose as far as I can in your concerns.—I shall begin a journey this Morning towards Bacon Bridge and endeavour to take the Several Plantations in this Quarter under examination, all that can be accomplished in so few days as I have to spare shall be to the best of my ability—my own Estates soward of CharlesTown require my attendance full as much as yours, but these shall have the preference. I have not seen my own nor will I go to them before I visit yours—at my return from this Journey I shall report to Mr. Rutledge and engage his more particular attention during my absence from Charles-Town—when I go to the Southward.

Your box of papers is not yet come to my hand when it does I shall take the best measures in my power contents (sic).

From Mr. Rutledge's accounts of Remittances which he has made to you we compute that £1200 Sterling more will be necessary to borrow in order to make your demand of Four Thousand,—hitherto our endeavours for procuring so much Money on our joint Bond have been fruitless; Money is exceedingly scarce, as I too feelingly know in my own affairs I am obliged to beg and intreat for the payment of three and four years arrears of interest due on Bonds to my self and even under such well grounded claims can scarcely bring in enough to keep my House expences from debt.

Mr. Manigault,<sup>2</sup> my Brother<sup>3</sup> and another friend will endeavour to assist me—a few days longer delay, provided I succeed in the end will probably be attended by advantage to you as the source of Exchange seems to be inclining to the old standard 700 per Cent.<sup>4</sup>

In a word Sir although I count myself in an unfortunate engagement yet I will do all that I can to serve you but I perceive too clearly that your affairs require as my own did and still do the Eye and direction of a Master.

I must close here for the present and shall [do] what may be needful at my return on the 14th or 15th Inst.—My best wishes attend you and Mrs. Izard and my compliments to your fellow traveller, Mr. Lee<sup>5</sup>—not a single Syllable has been imported to me upon the subject of the ANSWER,<sup>6</sup> altho I have exchanged visits and been often in company with our friends from whom we had some expectations and I am too nearly Interested my self to admit of breaking the Ice you seem to be the midle Man.

I remain with great regard &c.

Ralph Izard: London
Recommended to W. Manning, Per Capt. Yowart.

Sunbury in Georgia, 27 Mar, 1775

Dear Sir:

I beg leave to refer you to my last Letter from CharlesTown of 10th february.—

I visited your several plantations, the Camp, Jack Savanna, Walnut Hill, Round Savanna and twice, Goose Creek<sup>7</sup>—at each I

<sup>6</sup> Answer refers to the reply to Sir Egerton Liegh's anonymous pamphlet, entitled Considerations on Certain Transactions of the Province of South Carolina (McCrary, vol. 2, p. 722), which violently attacked Laurens.

From a letter written by Laurens to John Lewis Gervais, dated Westminster, January 24, 1774 (Laurens's papers, Mss.) we find that Leigh's pamphlet came out in January, 1774, and a copy was at once sent to the Library Society in Charles Town; Laurens attributed it to Leigh, with whom he had quarreled, with good cause, both for political and family reasons; Laurens took up the matter of a reply with Charles Garth, London agent for South Carolina, who agreed to furnish material for the Answer; he then consulted with Izard who took up the cause; the Answer prepared by (Arthur?) Lee, appeared April 8, 1774 (Laurens papers, letter to John Laurens). Edward Rutledge in letter to Izard July 21, 1774, mentions Lee's pamphlet, and states that he and Lynch will do what is proper. (Izard Correspondence, pp. 5, 77.)

McCrary (vol. 2, p. 722), thinks that the Answer resembles the style of Wm. Henry Drayton. Mr. Wallace (Life of Laurens, p. 173) states that he knows of no move of Izard's in the matter. The evidence above, taken with the letters now being printed, seems to show that the Answer was prepared by (Arthur?) Lee from matter chiefly furnished by Charles Garth, edited by Laurens and Izard, and the expense borne by Laurens, with the expectations of assistance from Edward Rutledge and Thomas Lynch.

found affairs in such order as displeased me and made some arrangements which I hope will be attended with benefit to you—I took a state of the Negroes Cattle &c—at each place the particulars of which shall be soon transmitted to you after my return to Charles Town, whither I am now proceeding from a visit from my own plantations in this Province. I mean to call again on yours in the course of my Journey—

When I left home which was on the 25th febr'y I had recd encouragement from Mr. Manigault and Mr. Thos. Smith to hope of finding at my return Money in their hands for your use, which if I am not disappointed shall be immediately remitted to your direction—

I have conferred with Mr. Wainwright<sup>8</sup> in the encroachment which it was supposed he had made in your Jack Savannah Tract; said I must go to Law with him, that I should endeavour to support your right effectually, and hoped I might do so without danger of forfeiting that regard which he had always professed for me—Mr. Wainwright met me short by a proceudure and declaration the most candid and unexceptional—he produced his plat, showed, as he alledged, that he held in his Tract many Acres less than of right belonged to him and none of yours—proposed a survey of your respective possessions and to be determined by the opinion and Award of impartial judicious Arbetrators, all expenses to be paid by the party who should be found to be wrong in claim or defence—a fairer answer could not be expexted from any Man, it therefore lies with you now to give your Attornies proper direction on this head.

I have also conversed and corresponded with Mr. Maine, late Surveyor of Lands—his answer to my letter which you will receive inclosed will shew you that no aid can be hoped for from him in your claim upon Crowfield Land<sup>9</sup> which you suppose has encroached upon your Goose Creek Tract—

You will perceive that I have not been quite unmindful of your concerns and may rest assured that I will do every thing in my power to assist Mr. Rutledge in conducting them for your advantage I can only add my Compliments to Mrs. Izard and that I remain with great regard, &c.

[RALPH IZARD TO HENRY LAURENS]

London, 4th June, 1775.

Dear Sir.

I am favoured with a letter from you of the 10th Feb'y, and another from Georgia of the 27th March. I think myself much obliged to you for the trouble you have taken, and do not doubt but my affairs will be in a much better state under your management, and friendly attention. You think that my estate requires the eye of a Master. The eye of a friend will I hope for some time answer all the purposes of it. The proposal that Mr. Wainwright has made seems very fair; you will be so good as to communicate it to Mr Rutledge and have the matter settled. Whatever you, and he agree to I will certainly abide by. You will be so good as to speak to Mr. Macpherson on the subject, and learn who the old people are in the neighbourhood who are acquainted with the lines. I am entirely a stranger to the mode of settling these kind of disputes, but I have been told that a great deal of care is necessary to avoid being over reached. I am not in the least acquainted with Mr. Wainwright, but Mr. Manigault has described him to me as a man extremely litigious, and ever watchful to take advantage of whatever may be turned to his own interest. I hope to hear that his character has been misrepresented.

With regard to the Goose Creek Tract, Mr. Maine acted I suppose according to the intelligence which he received from Mr. Gerardeau who surveyed Crowfield.

They certainly cut off part of my land, and Gerardeau told me he did it in consequence of what he had heard from Mr. Walter which was that my Grandfather had given it to Mr. Middleton when he married my Aunt. The old negro Joshua at Goose Creek, or Robin can inform you more about it than I can. Mr. William Middleton<sup>10</sup> has assured me that my Grandfather never gave him any land. I am extremely anxious about having my lines settled, and knowing the value of all my property in Carolina. As the Country disagrees with me I am desirous of dividing it and having part in money at interest, and part in land in New York;<sup>11</sup> will you be so good as to give me your advice on this subject. If any favourable opportunity were to offer, I should be glad to dispose of half my lands, and Negroes for that purpose.

Mr [Benjamin] Bewicke tells me that he has received twenty casks of Indigo which he cannot sell according to the value of the Invoice. Neither Mr. Rutledge nor Mr. Farr have written me a syllable on the subject; my being on the Continent may probably have been the reason. I wrote to you from Florence, Leghorn, Rome and Naples; some of my letters I hope have got to your hands. It is incredible what a number of my letters I have lost during my Tour. Many that came safe appeared to have undergone an examination at the Post office; surely the curiosity of the Gentlemen there is insatiable. I am much surprised that neither Mr. Lynch nor Mr. Rutledge has mentioned anything to me about the Pamphlet. Rutledge indeed in one of his Letters to me, tells me that he, and Lynch would take care, and do what was proper about it.<sup>12</sup> Whatever they intend doing I am sure it is not proper to delay it so long. If nothing is done I shall certainly share the loss with you. After the trouble we have had in this business I think it will savour a little of ingratitude if we are suffered to be losers. I shall write to them about it.

Ralph Izard, London.

Per L. Despeser; 23 October, 1775

Dear Sir:

I had intended by this opportunity to have written you a very circumstantial account concerning your affairs in this Country, but Public business and some untoward occurrences which are pretty public too have robbed me of the proper time, I have risen this Morning long before daylight in order to write and dispatch this on board the Packet which is to sail at Dawn—

Your Indigo Plantations at Santé have made bad Crops, that under Boyd's care scarcely enough to pay expences. And the

Camp yields as bad an Account as either, the Rice was almost totally destroyed by Spring Rains after being planted and replanted three times, I went there the 9th September to view the Indigo and had intended to have shipped it, but found it too wet, and I am sorry to add that the whole quantity will not exceed eight hundred weight.—At Goose Creek and the Beech Hill Plantations the Crops of Rice are also short but you are as well off as your Neighbours in general. I shall be able to make out Cloathing enough for about half your Negroes not more.

In the late, I may say present, bustle of people removing from Charles Town, Mr. Rutledge's Clerk called upon me to take charge of a quantity of Madeira Wine which he said belonged to you the first intimation I had ever had of it.—

I found it in extreme bad order the Casks in which it had been packed all loose and open some of them fallen asunder and much breakage at the same time a Cedar Chest which I suppose contains your Papers was discovered and said to belong to you together with certain Household plate, which are now in my hands.

Such large demands are made upon me for amounts due by Your Estates before I came into the Colony as will oblige me to borrow perhaps £1500 Currency or Subject your Estate to attachments—these are all unpleasant tidings and shew you the necessity there is for a personal attendance—you may rely on this for truth that I attend your affairs full as much as I do my own and so much more as that I have called in the aid of Mr. John Lewis Gervais a Gentleman well qualified for the purpose and have promised to give him all the Commission to which I shall be entitled in return for his assistance.—here I must close or my Letter will be left behind the Boat people call on me and will wait no longer.

Our public affairs are not a whit more satisfactory than the accounts which I have given of the Crops.

[RALPH IZARD TO HENRY LAURENS]

London. 16th. July, 1777.

Dear Sir.

It is a melancholy situation for a person of any modesty to be in when he is obliged either to have an undeserved censure cast upon his conduct, or to speak in his own praise. To you I think it will be unnecessary to say much of my political opinions, and conduct. If the knowledge that have had of both when you were in London, was not sufficient to make you think favourably of them, neither would you be induced to do so, by any thing I could say to you now. I had flattered myself that it would have enabled you to have given my Countrymen so favourable an opinion of me, that when the measures of withholding the property of those Gentlemen who were absent, was resolved on, I might not have had such an affront offered me; not as a favour, no man has a right to expect that, in such times as the present. In the winter of 1775 I sent a proposal to Mr. Lynch, which I desired him to communicate to his friends who were at that time in Philadelphia. It was months after, before I received a Letter from him, which was written in such a manner that I could not understand it; I had not then learned of his misfortunes.<sup>13</sup> However strong my inclinations may have been since that time to carry my family to America, my Wife has been in such a situation, that I have never had it in my power to do it, without great danger to her. I have not however been idle here. Every exertion in my power, has been made to be of service to the cause I have so much at heart, and to stop the progress of Tyranny, which has produced such Convulsions, and Calamities in every part of the Empire. It is some consolation, though but a small one, to think that if the doctrine which I endeavoured to inculcate had been adopted; if Commissioners to treat with the Congress had been sent without an Army and no bloody Germans had been engaged, we should be now in the enjoyment of the blessings of Peace. These points I urged as forcibly as I could with L; North, L; G. Germaine, and Sir Gilbert Elliott; but their system was determined on, and nothing upon Earth could have prevailed on them to give it up. Other attempts to be of service I have made, not proper for a Letter, and which I hope have not been altogether ineffectual, I have been attentive to the duties of a good Citizen, labouring for the success of a cause, which I think the noblest that ever was contended for. Conscious as I am of this, it is humiliating for me, when I expect approbation, to receive the censure of my Countrymen, which I attribute to their not having been properly informed about me, and which I cannot help lamenting as a misfortune. I have lately written to your Son, to E. Rutledge, and to my cousin Ralph, on the subject of remittances. This was done before I received your letter of 2d. April, delivered to me by Mr: Wells, and which was the first information that I had of your being restrained from sending my property to me. I have desired a remittance of £1500 or £2000 Sterling to be made; but for the reasons which you give in your Letter respecting the price of Indigo, and the difficulty that I find there is of getting any produce to an European market, I wish not to have above five or six hundred pounds sent. The economical plan which I have adopted, and the receiving some money lately that was due me from my Uncle Johnson's<sup>14</sup> estate in Ireland, enables me to make a shift some time longer without any remittance; and I should not be very anxious about having any, if I did not consider it as a removal of the misconception about me. This matter I leave entirely to yourself, and desire that you will let me hear from you about it, as soon as you have leisure.

So much for my publick conduct, which to mention a syllable of to you in a way that looks like justifying myself, wounds something within me, which an Enemy would call pride, but which I think ought to have a gentler appellation. With respect to my private conduct, there cannot be much difficulty in clearing up that. You say "that you have frequently written to me, and that you have never received a line from me; that possibly Letters from each may have been intercepted; which was to be admitted only as a possibility because your Letters to other friends, and theirs to you have been received on each side." If I were capable of so great a neglect as this, I should be altogether unworthy of your friendship. That I have not, I do in the most solemn manner in the Presence of God declare. As to my own private affairs, I seldom said much about them, having the most implicit confidence in your management and thinking then, as I do still, that the less there was said about them under the appearance of giving directions, the better; as you, who were on the spot, could judge with more propriety what ought to be done, than I at this distance. I wrote several political Letters to you wishing to keep up a correspondence with you in that line, but not receiving any return, I conceived that the business, and engagements you had entered into, made it troublesome, which was the reason of my discontinuing it. It is extremely unfortunate that our Letters should so frequently have miscarried. I have received none from you but those of 10.th Feb: 1775, 27th March, 1775, and 23d Oct: 1775, and likewise a note of about four lines, informing me in general terms, that my affairs were in a bad state, and that the American Fleet<sup>15</sup> had just made its appearance off the Bar. I have been for these two, or three years very little in London, and therefore was not in the way of being informed of private opportunities. When I was in France, and Italy, I enclosed my Letters to you, to Mr: Sayre which he put in the Post office expecting that they would go by the Packet. This I also did myself upon my return to England. Mrs. Izard's letters to her family at New York have been constantly opened, and almost as constantly withheld, and mine have without doubt been served in the same way. My letters to you have not been regular for the reasons I have given above; but I do again in the most solemn manner assure you that I have written to you since your departure from England, at least seven or eight, which if they had been received, would have exempted me from the charge of neglect. I do not always keep copies of my letters, but think myself fortunate in having found three among my papers, which I shall transcribe several times, together with this Letter, in hopes of getting one copy to your hands. You say that you had heard in CharlesTown, that I had taken Lodgings in the King's Bench, whether this report was fabricated by malevolence, or folly, I cannot tell. In either case it cannot affect me otherwise than exciting my pity, or contempt. I could wish for the Gentleman's own sake, be he who he may, that it were the latter; as the character of a Fool, is not so bad as that of a Knave. You say that you are sorry to hear such a report, and would not believe it. I should have expected no less of you, from the friendship you have been so good to express for me ever since I have had the pleasure of your acquaintance. You will, I doubt not, do me the justice to believe, that if you had been at any time seperated from your estate, and such misfortune had befallen you, I should have sincerely lamented it. Dean Swift never knew a person who could not with philosophy bear the misfortunes of another. He was I believe too severe; but I cannot help being afraid, that if diligent search were to be made in Charlestown, some Philosophers might be found who would come under the Dean's description. You will I fear be troubled with the length of this Letter; and yet I cannot conclude without reminding you, of what must have escaped your attention when you wrote yours of 2d. April, I mean the difficulty there will be for me to send cloathing for my Negroes. My family, which is not very small,<sup>16</sup> cannot be supported without considerable expense; and you know that for these last two, or three years, I have not been very plentifully supplied with the means of doing it. I have been told that there have been considerable importations of Negro cloth into Carolina, and that a great deal has also been manufactured there. It has been said that some Gentlemen have made such a quantity, as not only to serve themselves, but likewise to sell to their neighbours. Colonel Heyward in particular I hear has been able to do this. You inform me that you have £8000 of mine out at interest; I should therefore be obliged to you, if you would apply as much of that as is necessary to the cloathing of my Negroes, even if you should receive no more money on my account, which I think can hardly be the case.

I now conclude with offering the Compliments of my Wife, and both our congratulations on your late appointment.<sup>17</sup>

I am Dear Sir, with great regard

Yr. friend and humble Servant

Ra: Izard.

Henry Laurens, Esq.

The above items complete the earlier registers of Christ Church Parish; the Church Proceedings cover from July 12, 1708, to August 6, 1759; and from May 1, 1797, to April 5, 1847. On August 6, 1759, according to the Journal of the Vestry, it was agreed to have a new book bought for a Register, to commence from that date; this was evidently the second of the two old parchment covered books, from which most of the entries printed in this MAGAZINE, beginning with volume xviii, and ending as above, have been taken. The second register was used for records only, the first contained the Church Proceedings as well.

The church seems to have been long without a Rector, the Rev. Henry Purcell being the last one of the Provincial period. The church was burned by the British in 1782 or 1783, but was rebuilt about 1787, and was incorporated in the same year.

In the Mss. Journals of the Vestry for May 1, 1797, there is a letter to the Rev. Daniel McCalla, and the members of the Congregational Church of Christ Church Parish [Wappetaw church] stating that they had been long without a clergyman, and requesting that Dr. McCalla give them two services once a month in the Parish Church. After some correspondence, the request was granted, and he served until his death in 1809.

In February, 1811, a report was made to the Vestry concerning the minutes of the Vestry, and the Church records; a chasm in the minutes from August 6, 1759, to April, 1797, was reported; and the Register showed a break in births and baptisms since April, 1750; marriages, since July, 1760, and burials since 1759.

The second register was afterwards found and recopied by Edward O. Hall, Secretary and Treasurer of the Vestry, in 1880, and it was from Mr. Hall's copy that Mr. Langdon Cheves made the copy owned by this Society, which has been used in connection with the two original registers.

ENTRIES IN THE OLD BIBLE OF ROBERT PRINGLE

Contributed by HENRY A. M. SMITH

Robert Pringle the immigrant to South Carolina was the second son of Robert Pringle of Symington in the Parish of Stow in the County of Edinburgh, Scotland. Symington was the name of the family estate, which still remains in the possession of a descendant of the name. The date of his birth the writer has never ascertained, exactly, but he seems to have arrived in Charles Town in the Province of South Carolina about the year 1725, and there established himself as a merchant. On 18 July 1734 he married Jane the daughter of Andrew Allen an eminent merchant of Charles Town. She died 3 June 1746, leaving no surviving children. On 16 April 1751 Robert Pringle married Judith Bull the widow of Stephen Bull the eldest son of William Bull late Lieutenant Governor of the Province. Her maiden name was Judith Mayrant and she was the daughter of James Nicholas Mayrant and his wife Susanna Gaillard. By her first husband she had one son William Bull who was quite young (three years old) at the time of his mother's second marriage. Robert Pringle in 1760 was appointed one of the Assistant Lay Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in the Province and so continued until 1770. He was one of the Judges who concurred in the rendition in 1765 of the famous order to open the Court and carry on its business without the stamps required by the Stamp Act. In 1741 he constructed a brick residence on his property on the North side of Tradd Street—one lot West of Meeting Street—which was taken down some years ago when the property was sold.

In 1774 he constructed on the same property a large three storied brick mansion which is still standing, the residence of Arthur R. Young, Esq. He died 13 January 1776 aged, according to the published notice, 74 years. He left surviving him three children by his second marriage:

John, born 22 July 1753.

Robert, born 4 April 1755.

Elizabeth Mayrant born 29 March 1757. In 1783 she married William Freeman of Charleston and died without surviving children.

John Pringle the eldest son of Robert Pringle added Julius to his name and was always known as John Julius Pringle. He studied law in England where he was a student in the Temple. After the close of the Revolutionary war he practiced law in Charleston for many years with great success. In 1789 he was appointed by General Washington United States Attorney for South Carolina and in 1792 he was appointed Attorney General of South Carolina which office he held for sixteen years. In June 1805 he was offered by President Jefferson the post of Attorney General of the United States which he declined, preferring to remain in his native State. He was the owner of Runnymede plantation referred to in the Article on the Ashley River and its settlements. (This Magazine, vol. xx, p. 98.) On 1 January 1784 he married Susannah Reid the youngest daughter of Dr. James Reid. Dr. James Reid of St. Bartholomews Parish married Susannah Maybank the daughter of Joseph Maybank and his wife Ann Dupuy. Susannah Maybank married first Henry Michaud (or Mashow) by whom she had no issue and second Dr. James Reid by whom she had three daughters Elizabeth, Mary and Susannah. After Dr. Reid's death his widow married as her third husband in 1773 the Rev. Edward Jenkins Rector of the Parish of St. Michael, who declined the office of Bishop of South Carolina. The three Reid sisters married, Elizabeth, to William Bull the stepson of Robert Pringle, Susannah to John Julius Pringle, and Mary to Robert Pringle his brother—the three sisters thus marrying the two brothers and their half brother. John Julius Pringle died 16 March 1843 in his ninetieth year. He had children by his wife Susannah, viz;

1st. John Julius Pringle born 18 October 1784 married Mary Izard daughter of Ralph Izard; died ———.

2d. Robert William Pringle born 10 October 1786, died 16 December 1790.

3d. Susannah Pringle born 8 January 1789, married Wm. Mason Smith, died 18 May 1846.

4th. Elizabeth Mary born 9 May 1791, married Robert Smith, died 8 April 1873.

5th. Robert Pringle born 28 March 1793, died 26 October 1860.

6th. Mary Pringle born 23 August 1795, died early unmarried.

7th. Edward Jenkins Pringle born ———, married Maria Middleton daughter of Governor Henry Middleton, and was lost with his wife and two children in the destruction of the Steamer Pulaski in June 1838.

8th. Charles James Pringle died young.

9th. William Bull Pringle born 8 July 1800, married Mary Motte Alston daughter of Col: William Alston, died 13 December 1881.

10th. Emma Pringle born 23 January 1803, married Charles Alston, died 23 April 1889.

Robert Pringle the second son of Robert Pringle the emigrant married first Mary Reid the second daughter of Dr. James Reid. She died in August 1784 leaving one child, James Reid Pringle who married Elizabeth McPherson and died 11 July 1840.

Robert Pringle married second in June 1787 Ann Amelia Garden, daughter of Col. Benjamin Garden, and granddaughter of the Revd. Alexander Garden generally known as Commissary Garden. By his second wife he had children viz;

1st. Ann Amelia Pringle born 22 April 1788 died unmarried about 1860.

2nd. Robert Alexander Pringle born 12 January 1790, married Sarah Mackewn Maxwell died about 1824.

3rd. Mary Susannah Pringle born 3 February 1792, died 20 March 179—.

4th. Elizabeth Freeman Pringle born 18 March 1794, died unmarried in 1873.

5th. Benjamin Garden Pringle born 22 March 1799, died 24 January 1800.

6th. Charlotte Marianne Pringle born 29 May 1801, married Joseph Clark and died ———.

The following entries taken from the old Bible are all in the handwriting of Robert Pringle the emigrant except the six last which are in a different hand. The entries made by Robert Pringle are in a fine large distinct clear hand. The Bible itself is a thick folio sized volume containing the Book of Common Prayer and the Old and New Testaments "Printed and sold by Richard Ware at y<sup>e</sup> Bible & Sun on Amen Corner" and "Oxford. Printed by John Baskett, Printer to the University, MDCCXXXVIII." The Bible contains a large number of later entries from which most of the condensed information given above as to Robert Pringle's descendants has been obtained. The entries which follow are valuable among other information for the statements concerning the Allen and Smith families they contain.

REGISTER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES GRANTED, DECEMBER, 1765, TO AUGUST, 1766

The marriage licenses listed here are taken from a volume of Records of the Proceedings in the Court of Ordinary from December 21, 1764, to August 28, 1771. This volume has recently been returned to South Carolina through the courtesy of the Overseers of Tufts College, Massachusetts, it having been in that Library of that college for many years.

Just why there seems to have been no systematic record kept of the marriage licenses granted, is hard to explain; in the above mentioned volume, the list is in the back of the book, upside down, and only the briefest possible entries made, even the name of the clergyman is not given in the first few. So far as the Editor has found in the records, this is the only list that attempts to be chronological; occasionally a stray record of a license will be found.

THE MANUSCRIPT GENEALOGICAL NOTES OF MR. M. ALSTON READ

The collection of genealogical notes gathered by the late Motte Alston Read, Esq., covering many of the Coast families, in some cases nearly complete, and numbering several thousand items, has been carefully arranged in folders, pages numbered, and indexed by the folders, by his friends Mr. D. E. Huger Smith and Miss Alice R. Huger Smith; placed in metal cabinets by his sister, Mrs. Joseph Hume, of New Orleans, and presented by her to this Society. This is a very valuable gift, which will be of great assistance in future genealogical research.

LETTERS OF JACKSON

The Department of Historical Research in the Carnegie Institution of Washington is collecting the material for an edition, in several volumes, of the correspondence of Andrew Jackson, to be edited by Professor John S. Bassett of Smith College, Jackson's biographer. All persons who possess letters of General Jackson or important letters to him, or who know where there are collections of his correspondence, or even single letters, would confer a favor by writing to Dr. J. F. Jameson, director of the department named, 1140 Woodward Building, Washington, D. C.

IZARD-LAURENS CORRESPONDENCE

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA HISTORICAL SOCIETY COLLECTION

[HENRY LAURENS TO RALPH IZARD]

Ralph Izard, London. Per Miss Wells, under cover to Mr. Wells.<sup>1</sup>

2d April, 1777<sup>2</sup>

Dear Sir—

I have often writ you, never favoured with a line from you, possibly letters from each have been intercepted, to be admitted only as a possibility because my Letters to other friends and theirs to me have been received on each side.

I will try once more by the hands of a Lady whose promise I have to deliver Letters from me to the parties to whom directed.

After an infinite deal of trouble and many a personal Visit turning away and transposing vilanous Overseers, some of whom had been wasting and other appropriating your Estates to their own use, I have put the whole in tolerable Order—now I am ordered to leave them and my own again to the pious trust of Overseers, I am to be sent to Philadelphia, what effect my absence will have on your Estates I cannot tell—but I mark down 40 per cent loss on some of my own.

I yesterday made a return of Taxable Estates for you I gave in 8070 Acres of Land and 508 negroes the best Account I could get in each case, and also £6000 at Intrest—I have paid off the sums borrowed and remitted to you in 1775—and now have £8000 at Interest on your account in good hands—£2000 lent since the above £6000 above mentioned. I must continue to improve money arising from the Sale of your Rice in this manner because tis impossible to make you remittances until next Winter—the Owners of Vessells will not take ffreight of Rice on board, and Indigo is run up to such prices as promise nothing less than 40 to 50 per Cent loss and in many Instances more, for Instance, in the case of your own Indigo produced at Santa it was sold at 301 per lb, the Markets must be extremely high in Europe if it sells there at 215 Ster., the ffreight Insurance and Charges will abate at least 30 Per Cent. Besides this I am not Permitted to remit to any person who is not coming immediately to America a Subject not to be dwelt upon—Your Money will be earning you 7 Per Cent here. I hope you will be able while you do remain yonder to live at 5 Per Cent.

I have strove hard to Clothe your Negroes two years past even to Stripping in part my own, you may depend on this as truth I have Saved in the purchase of such Cloths as I could give them a very large Sum of Money to you, but it will be incumbent on you to take some thought for them this year, I shall probably not be in the way, and I do not know in whose hands I shall leave your affairs. Mr. Rutledge seems reluctant to interfere in them again and in fact for your sake I am reluctant to return them to him, because I perceive it will not be in his power to attend to any kind of business out of Charles Town nor out of his proper sphere—his head and his hands will be crammed full of law and politics however I shall consult him and do nothing against his consent—

Mr. Farr in the most peremptory terms when I offered him all the Commissions arising from the Estates refused to have anything to do with it—indeed certain reasons offered for such a refusal disgusted me so much on your Account, I cannot with propriety apply to him again—on such terms I had engaged with Mr. Gervais to take charge of the plantations but I found it so little in his power to give the necessary attention I was forced to resume the burthen—but this I cannot promise to do when I return from Philadelphia, hitherto I have acted from motives of friendship but the additional weight of your affairs has made the general burthen of business which falls to my share too heavy—besides I do not Love to do business for a Man who takes no care of his own Affairs, such a one can never be a proper judge of the endeavors of his friends to serve him—he is too apt to ascribe ill success to the Neglect of those who have taken great pains to promote his Interests. He is too apt also to assign wrong motives to the Labors of his friends and to think that Commissions are the temptation—I do not apply these remarks by any means to you, but from very long experience of Mankind I am sure they will apply to most Men who are careless of all their own affairs their Estates I mean except the Income—when that does not reach their expectations, which has been strained to the very upper line of possibility and no allowance made for casualties, they are dissatisfied and too often make improper expressions of their displeasure.

I have never been able to trace an account of agreements with one of your Overseers—not to find an Inventory of your Household Goods and effects at Goose Creek Plantation—consequently in the former Case I have been obliged to take the words of the Men themselves—in the letter, the very Devil has been played by some body or other, Negroes or Overseers—to save the remainder which appeared to me, I have already ordered part to be sold and shall make a clean House for you—Goods were never dearer, perhaps the Amount of what I shall collect for fragments will be equal to the original value of the whole—I understood that you had left four pipes of Madeira Wine here, these I first learned of when people were moving their effects from Charles Town, then I found all that was said to be the produce of these four Pipes tumbled about in a Store accompanied by amazing breakage—the Net quantity saved will not amount to Ninety dozen, it had been very badly managed was so thick no body would buy of it a second time. I had put it into the hands of a proper Man for sale he obtained from 12 to £15 per doz. for so much as he did sell—there remains about 75th which I will order to be sold next week.

'Till that event of the people's flying from Charles Town and removing their effects I had not received either your plate or your chest of Papers—Mr. Rutledge then in Philadelphia—one of his clerks pointed those articles to me. I had applied a hundred times before for them—but to this hour I have not received the Key of the Chest—lately fearing your papers would have been all destroyed by Vermin I caused the Lock of the Chest to be forced and a new Key made.

You must not blame Mr. Rutledge for anything amiss I dare say from my own experience—that he was just as careful of all your affairs as he has been of his own, as much this, as you would expect at my time—full as much as could have been expected from any Man in such times as we have lived in the past two years.

A report has been whispered that you had taken lodgings in the King's Bench<sup>3</sup> it hurts me much to hear it—I will not believe it—however it had reached the ears of your Negroes, I could not contradict the story, but recommended strongly to them to work you out again—upon some, this had a good effect—others, who think themselves more judicious than their fellows—say tis your own fault—you don't deserve Negroes.

I will do everything while I stay here to promote your Interest but I recommend to you to come and take it into your own Custody and management, at least for a while or 'till you can sell it to advantage.

I am &ca

Ralph Izard, Richmond near London.

Goose Creek, 9th June, 1777. Copy, dup.

Dr. Sir

I am now on my Journey to Congress halted at this empty House last night in order to inquire into Plantation Affairs generally and to give the needful Instruction to Mr. I. Owen a

Gentleman whom I have prevailed upon to superintend and order your Estates in this Country during my absence or until you shall made a different Disposition—I say prevailed upon because I found it a very difficult matter to prevail upon any proper Man.

I have long since informed you that Mr. Farr had peremptorily refus'd to continue his Attention—altho I had endeavored to tempt him by an offer of the whole Commission and to add my Advice and Assistance gratis as often as he s'd require—that upon such terms I had persuaded Mr. Gervias a very honest sensible Man and well qualified for the Purpose to take the Charge into his hands—but his Engagements in public and other Concerns rendered proper Attendance impracticable, I was obliged to resume the Task, not a little to my own Damage.

In my last Letter which I sent by the hand of a Lady thro France you were told that Mr. Rultedge had discover'd a Reluctance, this ended in the most positive Denial to receive into his Custody any of your Estates or Effects, he thinks himself at best unqualified for directing plantation Affairs and at present under an absolute Necessity of attending closely to his own which he says and no doubt with great Truth have been sadly shattered by the times in his absence. His advice upon every occasion when applied for, he said might be depended upon, but he could not promise anything more.

In this Dilemma I applied to Mr. Owen who altho he is not a Planter I believe will conduct the Business of all your Plantations in their present State and for the remaining part of this Year as well as any one Man in the State could do—if indeed we could prevail upon Neighbors to attend specially each plantation, more success might be expected but this is not even to be hoped for in these times every Man finds his hands filled by his own Affairs, and knows himself every moment liable to be called from them to Public Duty in Camp in Committees in Assembly or some other Branch.

In many respects Mr. Owen's Central situation will give him an Advantage in your favour, particularly in Procuring Articles important of all must be watch'd with great Attention—I have contrived to conduct your Negroes thro' two Winters Pretty much to their satisfaction and at no great expense to you—as the third approaches they will anticipate sufferings, and be very clamorous unless they perceive that Provision is made for covering them—it seems also to be absolutely necessary that you sh<sup>d</sup> have representative in Charles Town, your Negroes are continually deserting the Plantation and going there where I have no doubt many of them would have embark'd in the Men of War and other Vessels and have been totally lost to you if I had not been upon the spot, sometimes to shield them from the Tyranny and Villainy of Overseers and sometimes to restrain their own vicious Designs—nothing more troublesome than that branch of Plantation Business and I have had more of it fall to my lot from your Negroes within two last years than I have experienced in twenty years of my own.

Mr. Owen is altogether disengaged from Business, public and private a very honest Man and not quite a novice in Country Affairs and I am sure will be frequent in visiting the Plantations and will prevent a Repetition of such Enormities as has been practiced on most of them, he will also conserve and keep together the whole, hence I felt myself happy on your account in having prevailed upon him. The Crops however are all set and all in this Quarter very promising—how they are at Sante I shall know as I pass along for I mean to call at each before the planting of another Crop or even before reaping the present. I hope you will be in Carolina and take Charge personally of your Estates, or you may give such further orders as you may judge proper.

Agreeable to my late Intimation I have ordered all the bed Furniture (one Feather Bed and one Mattress excepted) which remain'd in this house to be sold, it was highly necessary to realize it—the whole had suff'd exceedingly by Vermin and Time, and much of what you had left, had been plunder'd by the Negro Woman to whose Care you left the house and by her Companions—and probably by some whose interest it was to impeach the Negroes—Chairs Glasses Bedsteads China and Chimney Furniture remain—even these do not seem to be all you had found use for—your Library had been long closed up and the Key lost, I caused the Lock to be forced and the Books clean'd—I have never been able to get a Catalogue of these, an Inventory of your Effects in this or any other Plantation, or even Copy of former agreements with any of your Overseers—this Deficiency may oblige me to submit to some very sad fellows almost upon their Terms, there are no less than three whom I dismiss'd for very bad Behaviour whose Accounts are not yet settled

My Son inform'd me upon his Arrival here that you express'd an Anxiety to have your Madera Wine preserv'd, I had previously sold almost the whole, that Article had been greatly mismanaged, Mr. Farr tells me Mr. P. Manigault's Negro had stolen the greater part of one out of the four Pipes. I have already told you I had never heard of the Article nor of your Plate until the Inhabitants of Ch. Town were making a general move of their Effects, then I was call'd upon to take Charge of those, and then your Chest of Papers, without a Key was deliver'd to me, the plate was loose, I caused it to be carefully pack'd—and with my own sent to one of my Plantations less exposed to Danger than this—the wine was tumbled about a Room by the Bursting of the Heads of Barrels, where the whole Bottles lay like heaps of Bricks amidst the pieces of broken, which added to the Robbery above mentioned had reduced the quantity to about Ninety Doz. these were of very mix'd Quality some very good, but the majority ordinary and all very foul—part I order'd to be sold it yielded from £12 to £15 per Doz. as many bottles as fill'd five casks I had reserv'd and sent here, hoping you would have drunk it last Winter, but upon hearing you had taken a new habitation in England—seeing the Barrels again growing bad, and learning the Consequence of leaving it exposed I ordered this also to be sold from £15 to £20 Pr. Doz. and I am persuaded I have done well for your Interest it was not Wine that would ever have been fit for Company without great Waste—every Body who purchased complain'd of it.

The Quantity of Rice made of Crops 1775 and 1776 amount in the whole to about 1910 bbls. besides a pretty large Quantity still unbeat at Round Savanna and Walnut Hill—Goose Creek the Camp and the two Sante plantations have made very little, the produce of these three latter in those two years 3695 lb. (?) of Indigo not fit to have ship't to you, even if I had been permitted, no less than three Barrels were said to be stolen while the Overseers were upon Militia duty—two more probably by one of the Overseers himself which I resent and refuse to pay him his claim for Share or Wages—the other thro' the neglect of Streater who was Overseer at Camp, which compl'd me to dismiss him—I w'd willingly proceed and be very minute in Account of all your Affairs but the great uncertainty of reaching you intimates that generals may be better.

I have your Acct before me 'tis too bulky to impose upon any Friend who is charg'd with other Letters and w<sup>d</sup> go very unsafely—Let me therefore conclude by informing you that the Debt which I had contracted for those Bills remitted in 1775 is paid off—that your Plantations are free from all but small Curr<sup>t</sup> Debts and that I have lent of your Money at 7 per cent., the legal interest, £20100.

which brings your Accounts nearly to balance and leaves no Cash in my hands—in Mr. Owen's there is one Boat Load of Rice about 23 bbls. and 97 large half bbls. the amount of which must rest with him for the Purchase of Cloths and other necessaires for the plantations and possibly before the Crop comes round he may find it necessary to borrow a little upon the fund above mentioned—I am apprehensive it will require a large sum for the Article of Clothing alone.

As far as it shall lie in my power I will continue my Advice and my Services and while your Affairs remain without your presence or a new Appointment, which in these uncertain Times may spite of all your Endeavours be very long, they shall not be abandon'd to Waste and Ruin.

The Voice is much against you for neglecting the Public Call.<sup>4</sup> I wish on that account as well as for the Amendment of your Estate you w<sup>d</sup> attempt to appear—If I were near I might whisper many Things new to you but I hate to talk loud to a Friend when People stand between us.

I wish this may get safe to your hand—Be assured of my Wishes for the happiness of you and yours and that I am Dr Sir your &c

[RALPH IZARD TO JOHN LAURENS]

London, 18th July, 1777.

Dear Sir

Since my last letter to you I have received one from your father which has hurt me a good deal; and Mr. Lloyd<sup>5</sup> has just sent me from Nantes an extract of a Letter which he received from Mr. Lowndes, informing him that "whatever may be said by absentees in excuse for their remaining out of the State, suspicions will be entertained to their prejudice, and disadvantage; and it will be imputed to a motive either of avoiding danger to their persons, or a disaffection to the cause." I am conscious that no such motives actuate me; and I had flattered myself that others in Carolina would likewise have been convinced of it. I can not think for a moment upon such ungenerous opinions, and suspicions without the greatest uneasiness; especially as it is totally out of my power to go over, and remove them in person. In my last Letter to you I expressed a desire of having some remittances. If Five, or Six Hundred Pounds could be sent to me to France, with the approbation of the Public, it would make me very happy, as I should consider it as the removal of all misconceptions respecting me. This I hope to have, as a matter of justice; not of favour in such times as the present; and whoever is disaffected to the cause of his Country, which is the noblest that ever was contended for, is undeserving of it. I have received no letters from you since your arrival in Carolina, but I hope to have one

<sup>5</sup> John Lloyd, born in Bristol, Eng., in 1735; died in Charleston, S. C., 8 Nov. 1807. For several years he was a member, and president of the Senate of S. C. soon in France, where I expect to be next week. I send by this opportunity a Letter to your Father<sup>6</sup> which I have purposely left open for your perusal, as I think it very probable that he may be at the Northward when it gets to Charles Town. I am exceedingly vexed that all my Letters to him should have miscarried. One was sent by way of Bristol. Mr. Braislford tells me it was put on board a vessel that was taken on the coast of Carolina. Another was sent by a gentleman who was endeavoring to get from Bristol to the Continent of America, so far about as by the Magdalen Islands, in the Gulf of St. Laurence. These opportunities I heard of while I was at Bath. I heartily wish you success, and happiness, and am Dear Sir,

Your Friend, and Humble Servant,

Paris 21st Dec: 1777. Copy.

Dear Sir

I congratulate you on our important success against Mr: Burgoyne,<sup>7</sup> and assure you that our affairs in this part of the world stood much in need of some such event. The conduct of the French Ministry has for some time past been very equivocal, and in many instances extremely offensive. At present our affairs here wear a very pleasing aspect, but I am sorry to say that our new friends appear to me to act so little upon manly, and honourable Principles, that had the arms of our enemies prevailed against us we should have been sacrificed without any ceremony. It is improper that this should be generally known, but it would be more so that the Members of Congress shou'd be ignorant of it. This I mention to you because I wish you to be persuaded that our salvation must depend upon our own exertions.

In my last Letter to you I mentioned something of the extraordinary conduct of Mr. Thomas Morris<sup>8</sup> the Commercial Agent in this Kingdom. In truth I cannot help thinking, but the unprosperous appearance of our affairs of late at this Court may have been occasioned by this Gentleman. The French Ministry have long known that his enormities have been laid before Congress by our three Commissioners here, and yet they see him continued in his Office, and know from unquestionable authority that his Brother was determined to support him in it, and had influence enough in Congress to do it in defiance of every application. This seems the more extraordinary as he has taken the management of his own private affairs out of his hands, being convinced how unworthy he was to have the care of them. They were inclined from this to hold the Commissioners in contempt, and their opinion of the Wisdom and Virtue, even of Congress itself was I fear lessened. So convinced am I of the great power and influence of Mr. Robert Morris, that I have not a doubt were he to know of this representation to you, that my removal from the appointment which I have at present the honour of holding under Congress would be the consequence of it. I wish therefore not to be subjected to his enmity to no purpose. In writing to you on this subject I have no motive but public good. I have not the least acquaintance with the Gentleman complained of; even his person is unknown to me. I wish his character were so likewise, but as that is so often spoken of by every body who comes from Nantes, I should think myself guilty of a neglect of my duty were I not to mention it to you. I will not trouble you by entering upon particulars of the Commissioners, and especially those of Mr. Deane, you will meet with full information. Let the consequences be what they will; Whether the grievance which I have mentioned to you be removed, or whether I be removed myself, it will always be a consolation to me that I have discharged my duty.—In my Letter of the 6th:<sup>9</sup> October I informed you of my having made an engreement for a quantity of Blankets and <sup>8</sup> Thomas Morris was U. S. commercial agent to France; he was a half brother to Robert Morris, who gives an account of his character in a letter to Henry Laurens dated Dec. 26, 1777 (Diplomatic Correspondence of the American Revolution, v. 2, pp. 460–461). Thomas Morris died in France before Feb. 28, 1778 (Journals Continental Congress, VXII, p. 879).

Negro Cloth to be shipped from hence. One part of the conduct of the French Ministry which I have mentioned above as offensive consists in their throwing considerable embarrassment in the way of the ships that were loading in their Harbours for North America. At one time they were suffered to get ready, at another the Officers at the different Ports received orders to put a stop to all preparations. My Cloth was to have been shipped by the 15th October at farthest. The Vessel that was to have carried it is not yet sailed and I have lately been informed by the person who was to have executed my Commission, that he has not been able to do it for the above reasons. Indeed if he could do it, it seems now too late. The Winter would be nearly passed before it could possibly arrive in Carolina, and Mr. Owen will I hope have taken care of my Negroes with these necessary Articles, let the price be what it would. The Negroes ought to be comfortably cloath'd, if there is a possibility of doing it I cannot think of their not being so without the greatest uneasiness, and I would take any chance of borrowing money in Europe for the maintenance of my family, and have the whole of my Crop appropriated to that purpose, rather than that they should be subjected to that distress.—

My intimacy with the Tuscan Minister at this Court has enabled me to do my business more effectually than if I had been at Florence;<sup>10</sup> he is a man of ability, very friendly to our cause, and in great favour with the Grand Duke<sup>11</sup> his master. By his advice I have delayed my journey into Italy, and I have reason to be satisfied with it, though contrary to my own wishes. It is certain that the King of Prussia<sup>12</sup> has lately refused a passage through his Dominions to some German Troops intended to be sent to America, and it is said to have been done at the desire of the Emperor.<sup>13</sup> This is a point that I have continually pressed with my Florentine friend, and he has repeatedly assured me, that the Grand Duke's interest <sup>10</sup> Ralph Izard was appointed by Congress Commissioner to the Court of Tuscany, July 1, 1777; the state of European politics became such that he did not visit the Court to which he was destined. Congress recalled him July 8, 1777, and a few months later he returned to America.

with his Brother might be depended on. This is a matter of such a nature, that you will of course take care that it be entre nous. It is very possible that the King of Prussia may have been induced to act by motives that we are not acquainted with. The contrary is likewise possible; and that possibility affords me some satisfaction.—When Congress did me the honour to give me a Commission, and Instructions, they neglected furnishing me with proper funds to execute them. This I have avoided mentioning in my Letters to the Committee for Foreign Affairs from a point of delicacy. I need have no such scruples with you, and I depend upon your friendship to set this matter in its proper light. The public service has not been retarded a moment on this account; nor shall it be. Mr. William Lee<sup>14</sup> who was appointed at the same time a Commissioner to the Court of Vienna is in the same situation. This seems extraordinary, as the three Gentlemen at this Court, whose Commissions are exactly the same as ours, have very ample appointments. It is proper that I should inform you of this. It should be said that it is difficult to make remittances, the answer is very plain; a vote of Congress that the Commissioners at this Court be directed to pay such a sum out of any money they have now, or may hereafter have in their hands, will be sufficient. I have had a very severe fit of the gout, which has already confined me seven weeks to my Chamber; it is considerably abated, and I hope my confinement will not last much longer. The weather however is extreamely cold, and of course unfavorable to me.

Mrs. Izard desires her compliments to you.

I am Dear Sir,

Your friend and humble Servant,

RA: IZARD.

After the outbreak of the American Revolution he accompanied his brother Arthur to France; in 1777 he was appointed commercial agent for the U. S. to Nantes; he was later appointed Commissioner to the Hague and to Berlin and Vienna, but owing to unwillingness of the neutral powers to offend Great Britain, he was obliged to remain chiefly in Paris; in 1779 he was concerned in his brother Arthur's quarrel with Franklin at Paris, which ended in their recall.

P. S. This letter will be delivered to you by Mr. Stevenson, who is recommended to me by a friend at Bristol as a very worthy Merchant of that City, and as such I present him to you.

Dear Sir

My friend Mr: Carmichael<sup>15</sup> will probably pay a visit to whatever Town the Congress may be sitting at upon his arrival in America. As I am sure that a mutual satisfaction will be the consequence of your acquaintance I take the liberty of introducing him to you. He has been employed here confidentially on the public service, and nobody can give you a better account of the state of affairs in this part of the World than he can. You may safely confer with him, as he is warmly attached to the cause of his country. Mrs. Izard desires her Compliments and I am Dear Sir with great regard

THE EXCOMMUNICATION OF JOSEPH ASH

The case of Joseph Ash is recorded in the volume of Records of the Court of Ordinary 1764-1771, recently returned to South Carolina through the courtesy of Tufts College.

That ecclesiastical excommunication for failure in civil duties was very unusual is apparent from the statement of Judge John F. Grimké of So. Ca. in his Duty of Executors and Administrators, printed in New York in 1797, pp. VII-VIII, in which he laments the lack of power in the court of ordinary, now called the court of Probate, which at the time he wrote, subsequent to the Provincial days, had no power to punish persons for neglecting or refusing to obey its process. He states that "formerly, indeed, the Ecclesiastical thunder was hurled at the disobedient . . . . So much indeed were persons intimidated by these Ecclesiastical censures, that I believe only one occasion has been offered in this country from its first settlement to the expiration of the British government in this State for the Ordinary to proceed to the greater excommunication."

The case he then cites is the Ash case. Excommunication is of two kinds. By the lesser, the offender is deprived of the use of the sacraments and divine worship, which sentence is passed by the ecclesiastical Judge, on such persons as are guilty of obstinacy or disobedience in not appearing upon a citation or not submitting to other injunctions of the Court. By the greater excommunication, in addition to the above mentioned penalties, the offender is absolutely deprived of the benefit of the society and conversation of the faithful. These powers were vested in England in the Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury which had jurisdiction over the administration of estates of deceased persons; in the province of South Carolina the power was vested in the Governor.

From the genealogical notes collected by the late M. Alston Read Esq., it appears that Cato Ash, who died intestate about 1757, was a brother of Joseph Ash, Richard Cochran Ash, John Ash, all mentioned as administrators; another brother was James Ash, and his sisters were Portia, Theodore and Priscilla; these were the descendants of John Ash who was sent to England in 1703 by the Dissenters to lay their grievance before the Lords Proprietors; Ash died in England in 1704. Sarah, the widow of Cato Ash married Henry Livingston, and after his death, she married Charles Odingsell.

The proceedings are as follows:

South Carolina

By the Honb'le William Bull Esq. Lieut. Governor and Com'r in Chief and over the said Province and Ordinary of the same to Joseph Ash, Rich'd Cochran Ash and John Ash, admors of all and singular the Goods and Chattels Rights And Credits which were of Cato Ash late of St. Pauls parish in the province afs'd. planter deceased Greeting.

Joseph Ash & oth's Def'ts

In the Court of Ordinary 8th March, 1765.

Mr. Pinckney moved that Jos: Ash being unwilling under sentence of Excommunication, might be absolved therefrom which Mr. Rutledge consenting thereto was ordered accordingly on the said Defendants paying the Fees Contumacy—

Then Mr. Pinckney produced the said Defendants acco't of his Administration and they were referred to ye Register to be examined and reported upon next Friday—

Mr. Rutledge moved also that the sd Defendant might also produce an Inventory of what the Intestate's Estate at present consists—the sd. Defendants answer by his Proctor is that the Estate consists only of Money as mentioned in the sd. Account.

Whereupon Mr. Rutledge suggested that there are Divers negroes Goods and Chattels belonging to the Estate of which the Defen't ought to exhibit an inventory and for proof thereof refers to the original inventory filed in the Secretary's office and such other Evidence as he may adduce in his Cause and Prays that such Proof being made the Defendant may be obliged to exhibit an Inventory and be accountable for such Articles—Mr. Pinckney Protested Generally to the Admission of such proof and Mr. Rutledge Dessented to the sd. Protest.

[There follow a number of other hearings on the same case, until it was settled.]

Note. By English laws, jurisdiction in matters concerning the Probate of Wills and the administration of the personal estates of deceased persons including the supervision of the acts and accounts of executors and administrators was vested in what were called the Ecclesiastical Courts. Anciently these courts were strictly ecclesiastical being the courts of the Archbishop or Bishop or their representatives, as the case might be.

Having no secular power, the final sentence these Courts could pronounce upon a contumacious litigant who refused to obey the decree of the Court was to declare him "excommunicate." The person so excommunicated was to be turned out of church by the church wardens and not to be allowed Christian burial; was disabled to be a witness or to sue or commence any action in any of the Courts of Justice. If, notwithstanding these penalties, the party excommunicated still continued in his contumacy, resort could be had to the secular arm, and the ecclesiastical judge certified to the King that the party excommunicated had obstinately persisted in his contumacy for more than forty days, which certificate being delivered to the Chancellor in the Court of Chancery, a writ styled the writ of excommunicato capiendo issued directed to the Sheriff of the County in which the excommunicated person lived, directing the Sheriff to apprehend him and keep him in prison until he satisfy the Church or ecclesiastical Court for his contempt and be absolved from his contumacy.

The right to this writ existed at common law but it was recognized and directed to be enforced by the Statute enacted by Parliament in the fifth year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth.

This Statute was never made of force in South Carolina and as no ecclesiastical courts, properly so called, ever existed in that Province, jurisdiction in the matters of wills and estates being exercised by the Governor as ordinary under the Statutes of that Province, no right to issue the common law writ of excommunicato capiendo seems ever to have been admitted or given by Statute. Thus a decree of excommunication by the Provincial Court of Ordinary against a contumacious person could not be enforced by the secular process of seizing the person of the offender and committing him to prison until he obeyed and was absolved."—Note by Judge Henry A. M. Smith.

LANDGRAVE THOMAS SMITH'S VISIT TO BOSTON

Contributed by EDWARD LÉODORE SMITH of Boston, Massachusetts.

In the Warrants for Lands in the Province of South Carolina, 1680-1692, 166 is recorded a warrant for 650 acres of land to be laid out to Mr. Thomas Smith for the arrival of himself, and wife Barbara, sons Thomas and George Smith, Matthew Crosse, Philip Adams, Joan Atkins, Johanna Atkins, Elizabeth Adams, Aron Atkins, Ellen and Mary Atkins and Michael Peirce. Dated 10 July, 1684.<sup>1</sup>

In respect to the name of Philip Adams, above, a mistake may have been made by the recorder, and it may be fairly inferred that instead of Philip, it was Phillis Adams who was meant.

What was the occasion of Landgrave Thomas Smith's voyage to New England? Can it be true, after all, that the statements of "The Octogenarian Lady,"<sup>2</sup> so flouted by some, had a real base of substantially true tradition?

President John Adams, whose wife was of the Charlestown, Mass., family of Smith, stated that she was connected with the family of Landgrave Thomas Smith of Carolina. And it is a matter of record in our Middlesex County Register of Deeds that a Carolina Smith quit claimed his interest in property of his grandparents, of Charlestown, Mass., to an uncle there.

In working among the files of the Supreme Judicial Court, now in Court Files of Suffolk County, some time ago, I discovered the following papers.

Indenture 20 June 1684; Benjamin Waring of Warrington ffort near the ponds, Berkeley County, merchant, to Joan Atkins of Berkeley county, Charles Town, widow; 1600 acres of land near the Ponds and ffort called Warrington fort. . . being measures out to the said Waring by right of himself and family.

The Boston records of Births, Marriages and Deaths give only the information below. I have been unable to find any further information of this family.

Lydia,	of Wm. and Phillis	Arnold, b. Apr. 22, 1688

Elizabeth,	" "	Phillis Arnell, b. Aug. 19, 1694
"	" "	" Arnold d. Sept. 8, 1694
"	" "	" Arnel b. Feb. 4, 1695

After this latest date the family removed, it is evident to Charleston, South Carolina.

As to Elizabeth Adams the same records show only her second marriage.

Alexander Duncan and Eliza. Turnerr were married by Mr. Miles July 6, 1698.

In the Registry of Probate for Suffolk Co. are the wills of Alexander Duncan, and of his widow Elizabeth Duncan. Among the papers in the settlement of Alexander Duncan's estate is a petition from his widow asking for an accounting, as the executors had included in the estate, the estate of her former husband, Matthew Turner. In order to redeem the said estate, administration on the goods of Matthew Turner, Joyner, deceased, was granted March 23, 1715, to Elizabeth Duncan, late Turner, widow, of Boston, his relict.

Matthew Turner was rated for a tax in Boston in 1692. After which I have no knowledge of him.

Elizabeth Turner, widow, is rated in Boston for a tax in 1698. Probably in March. And on July 6, same year, she married Alexander Duncan.

Alexander Duncan's will is dated Jan. 26, 1712. He gave his wife Elizabeth all of his estate after his executors should pay to his "Honored Mother Margaret Sands £40." "Loving sister Anna Duncan £20." "Brother William Duncan £40." [All of South Queen's Ferry, Great Britain.]

Elizabeth Duncan of Boston, widow, made her will Oct. 6, 1733. Inventory dated November 6, 1733; she mentions the ministers of the old Church in Boston, Thomas Foxcroft and Charles Chancey each to have £10 in bills of public credit; to Mrs. Rebecca Bass £10; to her executor Mr. John Bassett £20; the rest of her estate to "two of my nearest kindred by blood descended from my family named Adams in Dorsetshire in Great Britain."

[RALPH IZARD TO COMMITTEE OF CONGRESS FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS]

Paris 25th July 1778.<sup>1</sup>

Gentlemen

I was on the 9th Instant honoured with your Letters of 5th. February, and 14th May, which are the first that I have ever received from you.

The death of the Elector of Bavaria,<sup>2</sup> which happened on the 30th of last December, has produced a war between the Empress Queen and the King of Prussia. This will not, I hope, materially affect America; but it has occasioned an unlucky circumstance. The Empress Queen before this event was very well disposed towards us; and the King of Prussia expressly declared that he would be the second Power in Europe to acknowledge our Independence. The death of the Elector of Bavaria has made an alteration in the political sentiments of both of those Powers.

As soon as the Austrian Troops had taken possession of part of Bavaria, the King of Prussia applied to the Court of France as one of the quarantees to the succession of the Elector of Barvaria, in case of the failure of male issue in the latter, settled at the Peace of Westphalia in 1640. The French Ministry declined giving any succours to the King of Prussia, which has disposed him to look towards England. The Troops of Hanover, Hesse, and Brunswick, together with several other German Princes in friendship with England, may be of considerable service to him, and therefore he is very unwilling at present to offend that Crown. On the other hand the Empress Queen applied to the Court of France for 24,000 Men to assist her against the King of Prussia by virtue of the Treaty of Versailles, concluded in 1756; but the French Ministry declined likewise affording her any assistance. France in that Treaty guaranteed the Dominions which the Empress Queen was at that time poss'ed of; and the 24,000 Men therein stipulated to be furnished, could not have been intended to assist her in encreasing them. The refusal has however offended her; and in conséquence of what I have related, the Courts of Berlin, and Vienna have both refused to receive Mr. Lee. The Grand Duke of Tuscany is unfortunately obliged to regulate his proceedings, by those of the Court of Vienna. Had his conduct depended upon himself, I should have gone to Florence several months ago; but in the present situation of affairs I have the mortification of not being received by the Prince to whom I am appointed, when I know that he is desirous of receiving me, and will do it as soon as it is in his power. I have been invited to reside at Florence as a private Gentlemen, and have been assured that it would be agreeable to the Grand Duke. If any circumstances should happen to make it probable that by going there, I may be able in any manner to accomplish the wishes of Congress, I shall set out immediately. I have hitherto acted as appeared to me most likely to meet with their approbation, and shall continue to do so; it will make me very happy to be informed that I have not been mistaken. The Abbe Niccoli is the person whom I mentioned in my Letter of 18th December.<sup>3</sup> He is the Tuscan Minister at this Court, and I am well assured he is in great favour at his own. Every thing in his power I am convinced has been done, to serve our cause. I enclose you two Letters which I have written to him on the subject of money, but am sorry to say that the situation of affairs in Germany does not allow me to have very flattering expectations at present. I have thought it proper to state these facts, that Congress may be enabled to judge of them, and give me their instructions accordingly; which I shall follow to the best of my ability.

I have the honour to be Gentlemen,

Your most obed: hble Servant

Ra: Izard.

The Honble the Committee of Congress for foriegn affairs.

P.S. I have received the first volume of the Journals of Congress, and hope soon to be favoured with the second.

Dear Sir,

I have waited with the utmost anxiety for Letters from you, and the Committee. Your Letter of 19th May is the only one that I have been favoured with since your arrival at Congress. I have frequently informed you of my reasons for staying here, and of the impossibility of borrowing money according to the Resolution of Congress of 4th last February.<sup>4</sup> Genoa is the only part of Italy where it is possible to procure any money; and even there it will not be lent without the Court of France would become security for the repayment of it. I have repeatedly applied to the Ministry for their assistance, which has been refused. I have informed myself of the nature of Loans in Genoa, and find that if the Court of France would have agreed to become our security, I should notwithstanding have met with great embarrassment. Each sum of money procured, must have been deposited in the public Bank, without my having the power of touching a farthing of it, till the engagement entered into upon the occasion should return, ratified by Congress. The interest however, must commence as soon as the deposit should be made; which would be at least Six per Cent, besides the charges. These terms appear totally inadmissible.

As the Resolution of Congress does not limit me to any place, I was desirous of going to Holland, and endeavoured to borrow the money there. The Commissioners at the Court of France have opened a Loan in Holland which has not hitherto proved successful. It has been begun two, or three Months, and yet there has not been more than between Fifty, and and Sixty Thousand Florins received; which shews that there would be no probability of my accomplishing the wishes of Congress there. If the Court of France would exert themselves, they might supply America with several Millions Sterling. Some difficulties would certainly occur but they could be surmounted, and when the great advantages which this Kingdom will derive from what America has already done is considered, every exertion ought to be made, and every assistance afforded us in their power. From the Letters that have been sent you, you will judge how extremely disagreeable my situation for some time past must have been. It was my duty to take notice of the scandalous proceedings of Dr. Franklin;<sup>5</sup> and as he is not very remarkable for having a forgiving temper, he has been constantly watching for an opportunity of shewing his resentment. You have been informed that I had received the Two Thousand Louis D'Ors from the Commissioners for my support. This sum I managed with the utmost frugality which is evident, from my having maintained my family with it for Fifteen Months, from September 1777, the time when I was informed of the appointment, with which Congress had honoured me, to December 1778. This sum is considerably less than I had ever been able to maintain my family with in England, when it was much smaller than it is at present; and there does not appear to be any difference in point of expense between Paris and London. I wrote to the Commissioners, and informed them that the money which I had received from them was spent, and desired to know whether they chose to renew my credit at the Public Bankers, or that I should draw on them for what money I might have occasion for. Dr. Franklin wrote me that they would supply me with no more money. This Letter he desired his Colleagues, Mr. Lee, and Mr. Adams, to concur in; which they both refused to do. The unreasonableness of this proceeding was pointed out to him. He was desired to consider how improper it was to create new causes of dispute at so dangerous a time as the present. He was reminded of the Resolution of Congress of 9th May, 1778, which directs "that the Commissioners at the other Courts of Europe be empowered to draw Bills of Exchange from time, to time, for the amount of their expences, upon the Commissioners at the Court of France." He was base enough to quibble about words, and said that the instruction set forth that those Commissioners who were at the other Courts of Europe should be supplied with money; but that as I was not at Florence, nor Mr. William Lee at Vienna, it should not extend to us.

As soon as I was informed of this matter I drew a Bill for Five Hundred Louis D'Ors, in favour of the public Banker, and waited on the Commissioners at Passy with it myself. I was fortunate enough to meet them all three together and presented the Bill to Dr. Franklin first, as the eldest. He refused to accept it, repeated the conversation which he had had with his Colleagues on the subject, and in addition to it said that the sum which I had already had was so extravagantly great, that he was sure I could not have spent it; and if I had he saw no reason why the Congress should maintain my family. It will be unnecessary to trouble you with the whole of the conversation, which was full of insolence, falsehood, and brutality. I reminded him of the impropriety of my going into Italy; of my staying in Paris being in consequence of the advice received from the Court of Florence, and from the Commissioners at this Court, himself being included among them. All arguments with him were fruitless. He had taken his Resolution, and could not be dissuaded from attempting to gratify his revenge whatever might be the consequence. Mr. Lee, and Mr. Adams totally disapproved of the proceeding, and accepted the Bill. I can not express to you how much this affair has shocked me, from every consideration Public and private; and I call upon you as a man of honour, and a friend to your Country to set your face against it. It can not possibly be conceived that Congress, who have upon the most virtuous principles opposed the Tyranny of the King, and Parliament of England, should calmly suffer their authority to be insulted, their instructions evaded by a contemptible quibble, and these Gentlemen whom they have honoured with their confidence, to be ill treated for doing their duty, by any haughty, and Tyrannical Individual whatever.—It was strongly reported here sometime ago, that you were coming over as Minister at the Court of France. I am extremely sorry to find that this report is not confirmed, and can with truth assure you that every friend to America would rejoice at such an event. It is a misfortune that it has not taken place; and so essential is it to have a man of ability, and honour in that office, that I think it a duty you owe your Country to obtain it, if it be possible. Our interests at the different Courts of Europe are so intimately connected with the proceedings of the Court of France, that it is of the greatest importance they should be well conducted here; and I am most thoroughly convinced that no man of honour can do his duty, and serve his Country properly, who has any connexion with Dr. Franklin. It is a painful part of my duty to write to you in this manner, and I hope it will be properly attended to. It is said here that Mr. Deane is to come over to Europe in a public character, that his interest, and Dr. Franklin's are triumphant in Congress, and that those Gentlemen are to have the entire management of the affairs of America in Europe. If so, it will be high time for every honest man to retire, as the only possible means of avoiding embarrassment, and disgrace. The public dispatches from Congress are daily expected; and till they confirm this report, I can not believe it to be true.

There has been no great change in the Politics of Europe, since I wrote to you last. The war in Germany still continues; but the Courts of Versailles, and Petersburg are endeavouring to bring about an accommodation, which many people think will be effected before the opening of another Campaign. The Spanish naval Armaments still continue to be carried on with vigor; and though no declaration has yet been made by the Court of Madrid, to that of London, every appearance seems to indicate an intended cooperation with France. The English amuse themselves in expecting to derive some advantages from the divisions among our General Officers in America, in which I hope they will be mistaken. Their own Admirals and Generals are at the same time tearing one another to pieces. Sr. Hugh Palliser has brought Admiral Keppel to a Court Martial for misconduct, and neglect of duty on the 27th and 28th of last July; and the proceedings of the two Howes are to undergo Parliamentary investigation as soon as the vacation is over. The whole nation is divided about these matters, and it is likely that some important consequences may be produced by them. Would to God that the Peace of America could arise from the divisions among her enemies! My Wife desires her Compliments to you, and we both offer them to your Son. She has very lately received a Letter from Mrs. Laurens, who is very well, and writes that little Fanny is grown a fine healthy Child. When you communicate this intelligence to the Colonel, be so good as to present him at the same time with the dutiful respects of his Godson George, who is a least as fine a Boy as any in France.

I am Dear Sir

Your most ob't Hble Serv't.

Gentlemen

I had the honour of writing to the Committee for foreign Affairs on 28th of last month, desiring that they would obtain leave from Congress for me to return to America. This I did because it appeared impossible for me to be of any service to my Country in the present situation of affairs. The interests of America have already suffered too much by the disagreements among the Servants of Congress in this part of the world, and an immediate stop should be put to them if possible. I see no way of doing this but by recalling that party who have it least in their power to be of service to America in Europe. I am willing to suppose myself one of them, and therefore request that you will be good enough to move for me to return to America. As soon as this is procured I must beg the favour of you to transmit me several copies of it in hopes that one of them may get to my hands time enough for me to avoid a winter's passage.

I should be obliged to you if you would at the same time procure a particular order from Congress that my expenses may be paid me, as you will find what an attempt has been made to evade the Resolution of 7th May 1778.

I beg your pardon for the trouble I am giving you, and am with great regard

Gentlemen,

Gentlemen

The Reverend Mr. Ford<sup>6</sup> has been a considerable time in France, and I have every reason to believe him an honest man, and a friend to his Country. He will have the honour of delivering this, and I take the liberty of introducing him to you—Our enemies appear to be making every preparation against us in their power, The Hostilities in Europe will prevent their sending any great reinforcements to America. Germany has however been ran-<sup>6</sup> Hezekiah Ford, Arthur Lee's second Secretary; his first being Thornton, a British Spy; Ford was also under suspicion, it being claimed that he was a tory and a British Spy. He passed for a Church of England Clergyman, and was chaplin to the 5th N. C. Regt. (Continental) enlisted 20 April 1777 (N. C. State Records, vol. 16, p. 1056 and Wharton, *Dip. sacked, and may probably afford about Three Thousand Men. These added to what are expected to be sent from England, and Scotland, may amount to about Seven, or Eight Thousand Men.

We have been long without receiving any News here directly from America, and are very anxious to know the event of the Campaign in Carolina and Georgia. Comodore Gillon has done, and is still doing every thing in his power to accomplish the objects of his Commission; but I am sorry to say that I have no very sanguine hopes that he will meet with that assistance from our Allies, which our necessities require, and their abilities can well afford. The State of South Carolina could not, I think, have chosen a fitter person for this business, than the Comodore. M.. Garard is to be immediately recalled, and replaced by the Chevalier de la Luzerne who was formerly Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court to the Elector of Bavaria. He is a very worthy Gentleman, and will do the business of his Court with fidelity; and will not concern himself with, nor enter into the party views of any Individual whatever, to the dishonour of his own Country, and confusion of ours.—

I have the honour to be with great regard

Paris 18th Febr'y 1779

Dear Sir

I enclose you two papers which I received on the 13th instant, a day, or two after the arrival of the Marquis de la Fayette in this City. They were directed to me under the same cover, to the care of Mr. Grand, our public Banker here. As soon as I received them I called on Mr. Grand, and enquired of him who delivered the Letter thus addressed to him. He informed me that Colonel Gimat, one of the Marquis de la Fayette's Aids de Camps brought it to his House. I wrote to the Colonel, and begged to know from whom he received it. His answer was that it was given to him at Passy, by young Mr. Franklin. This last Gentleman informed me that it was put into his hands by the Marquis de la Fayette. I then waited on the Marquis, and begged that he would let me know how it came into his possession. He told me that he brought many Letters from America, but as he had made no list of them, it was impossible for him to tell if the one I shewed him was among the number or not. I shewed him the contents of the Letter, pointed out to him the intentions of the writer, and hoped that he would assist me in discovering so wicked a person. He seemed to feel the matter very properly, and promised that he would do everything in his power observing at the same time that it was very possible that some artful person might have contrived the means of conveying the Letter among those which he sent to Passy.

No 1, and 2 were not written by the same hand. The writing of No. 1 is extremely like that of Dr. Bancroft.<sup>7</sup> I shewed it to Mr. Pringle, and Mr. Lee, and asked them whose writing they thought it, without giving them my opinion about it. They are well acquainted with Dr. Bancroft's hand, and are both fully of the opinion that it was written by him. The papers No. 1, and 2 had both been dipped in water that the writing might be blotted, and have the appearance of having been wet at Sea. But the cover which contained them was clean, and the direction had evidently not been wet. Perhaps the writer thought that if he had wetted the cover, it must have given it so remarkable an appearance, that the Marquis, upon having it shewn him, must have known that no such Letter had been brought by him. I am unable to express to you how this villainy has shocked me. It is evident from the paper No. 2 that most of my Letters to you have been opened, and copied before they got to your hands.<sup>8</sup> You will see what use is intended to be made of this, by the infamous misrepresentations contained in that paper. Mr. Deane, and his adherents know that both you, and I are likely to prove formidable opponents to them, and therefore think it would be very serviceable to their views if they could make a break between us. The enclosed papers were thought likely to produce that effect I have too good an opinion of you to have a moments doubt about the falsehood of the charge laid against you, or to suspect that my confidence in you has been ill placed. After having read Mr. Deane's Address in November last to the people of America, I shall be surprised at nothing that he or his party are capable of doing. If the Congress, and the People do not unite in punishing so outrageous, and daring an attack upon their Liberty, and Independence, the friends of America in Europe will be seriously alarmed for the continuance of them. The wisdom of the Congress has withstood every effort of the enemy, and I can not believe that Mr. Deane will be allowed to effect that ruin to our Country which Great Britain has in vain attempted. The Congress is our Centre of Union; and our safety depends upon the confidence of the Public in that Body, which Mr. Deane has exerted himself to destroy. Mr. Lee will give the most satisfactory answer to the charges which have been made against him in Mr. Deane's publication, and I doubt not but Congress will do justice to a faithful, and able Servant of the Public, who has been most cruelly injured. Our dispatches from Congress of 28th October inform us that Dr. Franklin is appointed Sole Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court. In my last Letter to you of 16th January, I acquainted you with his having refused to furnish me with money for my support in defiance of the order of Congress. The Grand Duke of Tuscany has it not in his power to receive me publicly; and I think it would be injurious to the dignity of Congress if I were to reside at his Court in a private Character. My Commission therefore does not enable me to render any service to my Country; and I think of endeavouring to get to America, especially as I have not the means of maintaining my self long in Europe. As I have repeatedly acquainted you, and the Committee of my situation respecting

Italy, I hope my next dispatches will be so explicit, as to enable me to determine on what I ought to do. I shall most truly rejoice if they contain leave for me to return home. I shall continue my endeavours to get to the bottom of the affair respecting the Letter above mentioned, said to be brought by the Marquise de la Fayette; but I fear it will prove as difficult a matter as the robbery of the dispatches that were intrusted to Folgier.<sup>9</sup>

My Wife has lately presented me with another Daughter,<sup>10</sup> and is as well as possible. She desires her Compliments, and I am Dear Sir

Sir/

Though a perfect Stranger to you personally, yet I think it my duty to inform you, that all your Letters to the President have been read in Congress; Copies have been given out to Mr. Deane, and to the friends of Dr. Franklin—that many observations have been made much to your disadvantage, while your Friends can only say “those Letters were never designed to be made public, and that you suffer in consequence, of an ill placed confidence; be it as it will you must be sensible that you suffer, when I assure you that the enclosed is handled about among the Members of Congress, and Gentlemen out of doors, as containing in plain English the

[Of the two enclosures, numbered 1 and 2, and endorsed by Laurens, "Traits of the infamous practices of party in Congress," No. 2, is a copy of a parody, not without force and cleverness, on Izard's letters to Henry Laurens denouncing Deane and Franklin. It is printed in full in Wharton, Revolutionary Diplomatic Correspondence, vol. 1, page 590-591 also to be found in's Materials for History, so we will not reprint it here.]

[RALPH IZARD TO S. C. DELEGATES IN CONGRESS]

Gentlemen

I had the honour of writing to you on the 5th February; a Copy of which is enclosed.

It is said that Mr. Laurens is gone to Carolina; I enclose therefore an extract of a Letter which I wrote to him on 16th January.

Wishing as much as possible to avoid disputes with Dr. Franklin, I desired Mr. Grand the Public Banker to speak to him, and to endeavour to prevail upon him to comply with the order of Congress of 7th May 1778. This application proved fruitless; and when I found that Dr. Franklin was determined at all events to gratify his revenge by distressing me, I wrote Mr. Grand, and desired him to advance me such a sum of money on account of Congress as might be necessary for my expense until the pleasure of Congress should be known. My letter reminded him that there was a peculiar propriety in my making the application to him as the Banker of the Congress; that if I should be compelled to leave Europe without the permission of my Constituents they might know that it was not come without my having taken such steps as appeared the most likely to put it in my power to avoid it. Mr. Grand in very civil terms, declined complying with my request. Indeed, as his employment of Banker to the Congress, is profitable to him, it would have been dangerous for him to have attempted to render Dr. Franklin's designs toward me ineffectual. Dr. Franklin pretended to Mr. Grand that if the order of Congress was complied with, the Bills which were drawn on him from America, must be protested. I do not doubt but this will appear to you, as it does to me, a most frivolous excuse for his conduct. My Letters to Mr. Laurens, which I understand have been laid before Congress, show very clearly how unfit this person is to be entrusted with the management of their affairs. The mischief he has already done is irreparable; and I am convinced that if he is not removed, the affairs of America in Europe will grow from bad to worse—It has been shown that he disobeyed the directions of Congress, respecting the communication of the Treaties to me, to answer some private purpose, that he endeavoured to lay his Country under a very improper. and unequal restraint in the 11th and 12th Articles of the Treaty of Commerce, and that some other parts of the Treaties may prove troublesome to America by his conduct. Congress have never signified their disapprobation to him that I have known of. On the contrary, they have put it in his power to distress such of their Servants as have fallen under his displeasure for having done their duty to their Country. I am in daily expectation of receiving Letters from the Committee, which I hope will put it in my power to return to America, as Congress have long known the reasons of my not going to Italy. I have the honour to be

Your most obed't hble Servant

Ra. Izard.

To the Delegates from the State of South Carolina at Congress.

[RALPH IZARD TO JOHN LAURENS]

Philadelphia 27th March 1781

Dear Sir

You will by this time, I hope, be safe arrived in France; and before this gets to your hands, I hope that you may have executed the business that has been intrusted to you, with advantage to your Country, and honour to yourself. The greatest exertions have been, and are now making by our Countrymen to the Southward. Immediately after the defeat of Colonel Tarleton, on the 17th January, Lord Cornwallis made a rapid March, with 3000 Regulars, after General Morgan, in hope of recovering the Prisoners, amounting to between five and six hundred, which he had taken. This pursuit was made through North Carolina, even to the borders of Virginia. His Lordship lost his object, and the Prisoners are secured. His next attention was to General Greene, who made a very masterly retreat, with an inferior number of Men, chiefly Militia. Lord Cornwallis has since retreated as far as Guilford Court House, about 40 miles to the Southward of Hillsborough, in North Carolina. General Greene followed him immediately, and the two Armies are now very near each other. Frequent skirmishes have happened, with various success. On the 15th of this Month a considerable part of both Armies engaged, with much loss on both sides. There is no Letter from Gen'l Greene about it, but Congress received one yesterday from Governor Jefferson which mentions what I have just related. Gen'l Greene has been considerably reinforced; but his Army are badly armed, badly Cloathed, and in want of almost every necessary. We are yet at a loss to know here why the cloathing and arms which have been so long lying in France, have not been sent to this Country. Captain Jones has not given any satisfactory account of this affair; and it is a matter that merits the attention of the Court of France. Congress will soon, I hope, have Letters from you on that subject; and I doubt not but you will have got such information as to enable you to be very explicit about it. Arnold has been doing a great deal of mischief in Virginia. He has been a considerable time fortified with about Fifteen Hundred Men at Portsmouth. General Washington has been at Rhode Island and concerted with M: de Rochambeau, and M: Destouches a most excellent plan for the relief of our Country. The whole Squadron, with Twelve Hundred French Troops on board, sailed from Rhode Island on the Evening of the 8th of this Month against Arnold. Admiral Arbuthnot followed on the morning of the 10th and arrived at the Capes of Virginia, before M: Destouches had got in. An engagement happened on the 16th in which two of the French Ships, and as many of those of the Enemy were greatly damaged. Unfortunately Arbuthnot with his Squadron has got into the Capes of Virginia, and Arnold is relieved. The Marquis de la Fayette, who is now in Virginia was to have co-operated with the French Troops. Twelve Hundred of the Light Infantry from Genl. Washington's Camp, are now at Annapolis, and were to have gone down the Bay immediately upon M: Destouche's getting into it. Five hundred Maryland Troops are with them at Annapolis. This force added to a considerable body of Militia, which Baron Stuben has near Arnold's Lines, would not only have secured success against that Traitor, but also have given such assistance to General Greene as would have enabled him in one Campaign to recover the whole of the Southern States, which would soon, I think, have given Peace, Independence and happiness to our Country. We are in daily expectation of hearing of the arrival of a considerable reinforcement of ships, and Troops from France. God grant that we may not be disappointed and that something effectual may be done before the Enemy get reinforced likewise. Captain Lavacher who has been exchanged, and is lately arrived here from Charles Town, gives a melancholy Picture of the sufferings of our friends in that unhappy Country. If the reinforcement arrives soon from France, I think that Genl. Washington's first object will be to relieve them. I am with great regard

Dear Sir

Yours friend, and hble Servant

Died. On Tuesday, aged 23 years, Mr. Marshus Buckley, of a very respectable family in Colchester, Connecticut. In his relative situations he deported himself as a dutiful son, and affectionate brother; as an artisan was diligent and industrious. . . . His remains were decently deposited in the New Independent church yard. (Thursday, July 2, 1794.)

Married. On Wednesday evening Ray Green, Esq. attorney-general of the state of Rhode-Island, to Miss Flagg, only daughter of George Flagg, Esq. (Friday, July 25, 1794.)

Death. On Friday last Mrs. Mary Rivers, the wife of Thomas Rivers, Esq. (Monday, July 28, 1794.)

Died. On Monday last, the 28th inst. Master Joseph Glover, son to Wilson Glover, Esq. (Wednesday, July 30th. 1794.)

Died. On Tuesday night, Daniel Wilson, Esq. in consequence of a wound received in a duel fought on the 27th. ult. (Friday, August 1, 1794.)

Died. On Friday-morning, in the prime of life, Mr. Daniel Thomson, of New York; on the evening following his remains were decently interred in the Presbyterian church yard, attended by a number of respectable citizens. (Monday, August 4, 1794.)

Died. On Saturday morning, 2 instant, Mr. Thomas R. Smelie, a young man held in high estimation by his friends. (Wednesday, August 6, 1794.)

Died. On Wednesday night, Mr. Henry Tucker, son of Dr. Thomas Tudor Tucker.—Capt. Lierson of the ship Nordische-Lowe, very suddenly. (Friday, August 8, 1794.)

Died. On Thursday last, Mr. Henry Balfour, lately from Edinburgh. (Monday, August 11, 1794.)

Died. At Mrs. Riddlesberger's, on the road between Charleston and Orangeburg, James Green Hunt, Esq. one of the chancelors of this State. Mr. Hunt left Charleston on Tuesday last, in company with Mr. Harper, for Columbia, but was seized on the way with a violent attack of the fever which terminated in his death on the Sunday morning following. Every possible assistance was given him by doctors Waring and Prentice, who very obligingly and humanely went to his immediate relief. His disorder however, was so violent, as to baffle the effects of medicine, and the skill of his physicians. The public, in the death of this gentleman, has sustained the loss of an able and upright judge; and his friends, of a polite and agreeable companion. He died in the belief of the great truths of Christianity, and evinced a well grounded hope of a happy immortality. (Tuesday, August 12, 1794.)

Died. On Tuesday morning last, Mr. Charles Otis, in the 18th year of his age, son of brigadier-general Joseph Otis, of Barnstable, state of Massachusetts. He was sensible of his approaching end, and died with a fortitude becoming a Christian, and uncommon in a youth of his age.

On Monday evening died, that celebrated and pleasing comedian Mr. John Bignall. By his death, the community have lost, not only the principal ornament of the stage, but an agreeable member of society and his family an affectionate relative. His funeral was attended by the fraternity of Ancient York Masons (of which he was a member) in masonic procession, and a numerous assemblage of respectable citizens. (Tuesday, August 14, 1794.) [The paper for August 15 gives the committee appointed to confer on the subject of the yellow fever then prevalent, and also gives an account of a benefit given by West and Bignall for the Orphan House, and the letter from the Commissioner of the Orphan House upon the death of Bignall.]

Died. On Wednesday morning last, after a short illness, at Mr. Wood's tavern, in St. John's parish. on his way from Charleston, major Joseph Lyons, inspector of the brigade of militia of Pinckney district. (Sarutday, August 16, 1794.)

Died. On Sunday morning, the 17th instant, Mr. Edward M'Crary who endured a long and painful illness without a murmur. Sincerity and warmth of heart invariably characterized his friendships; and, next to the welfare of his family, it seemed his most cordial delight to relieve the unfortunate, and aid the friendless stranger; nor, in his breast, did the cause of liberty, of his country and of humanity, lack a firm and strenuous advocate. (Monday, August, 13, 1794.)

Deaths. Mrs. Hutchins, the wife of Mr. W. B. Hutchins, schoolmaster. Mr. Thomas Philips, sadler. (Tuesday, August 19, 1794.)

Died. On Sunday evening, after a short and painful illness, Mr. Samuel Baker, lately from Brighthamiston, Sussex, in England. (Wednesday, August 20, 1794.)

Deaths. The 19th inst. at Mrs. Nott's in Church Street, Joseph Hutchinson, Esq. after a short and severe illness, which he bore with much Christian fortitude. He was educated at Dartmouth University, in New-Hampshire, and afterwards graduated at Yale College; since which he has practiced the law in Georgia, and lately came to settle on this state. His lady and children had gone to visit their friends in New England. His father is pastor of the congregation at Coventry, Connecticut, and brother to governor Huntington. (Friday, August 22, 1794.)

Died. On the 20th instant. Mathias Leopoldus Stupich, doctor of Physic: being perfectly sensible of his approaching dissolution, he resigned to his creator's will with that fortitude becoming a christian. His remains were deposited according to the Roman Catholic rites, of which denomination he was a worthy member, in the Roman Catholic church-yard.—On Thursday night, Mr. Robert Jones, of New-Jersey.—And Mr. James Wakefield, of this city. (Saturday August 23, 1794.)

Died. On Friday last, Dr. George Pugson, nephew of the rev. Henry Pursell, D. D. of this city, and rector of St. Thomas's parish. (Charleston, August 26, 1794.)

Died. Early on Monday Morning, much lamented by all who knew him, rev. William Jones, minister of the Episcopal church at Georgetown. (Tuesday, September 2, 1794.)

Married. By the rev. Mr. Gallaher, Louis Nicholas Allard, Esq. to the accomplished Mrs. Gaultier, relict of Pierre Joseph Gaultier, Esq. deceased, both of St. Domingo. (Wednesday, September 3, 1794.)

Tuesday the 2d. instant, were interred in her family vault, the remains of Mrs. Murray, of Wentworth street. . . . (Thursday, September 4, 1794.)

Deaths. On Thursday night last, in the 22d year of his age Mr. Thomas Taylor, of James Island. . . . He was a tender and affectionate son, a loving brother, and a kind master.—

Also Mr. James Nelson, formerly an eminent merchant of this city.—Mr. William Snowden. (Saturday, September 6, 1794.)

Died. James M'Cauley, senator for the election district of Clarendon and Claremont, and lieut.-colonel commandant of the Clarendon county regiment of militia. (Tuesday, September 9, 1794.)

Married. On Thursday last, William Adams, Esq. to Miss Elizabeth Muncriff, daughter of Richard Muncriff, Esq. of Wadmalaw.

Died. At his plantation in St. Bartholomew Mr. Peter Youngblood, one of the members for the election district of St. Bartholomew, in the house of representative of this state, and lieutenant-colonel commandant of Colleton county regiment of militia. (Wednesday, September, 10 1794.)

Departed this life the 2d. instant, in the parish of St. James Santee, Miss Sarah Bell, niece of Alexander Chovin, Esq. . . . (Tuesday September 16, 1794.)

Married. On Thursday last, Mr. George Petrie, lieutenant of Fort Johnson, to Miss Mary Simons Swinton.

Died. At his plantation, near the Eutaw, in St. John's parish, Robert M'Kelvey, a major in the Eastern regiment of militia for Charleston district. (Wednesday, September 17, 1794.)

Died. On the 10th. of last month, in Chester county in this state, Dr. James Knox, a member of the legislature, a judge of county court, and master of Lodge No. 28, Ancient York Masons. (Thursday, September 18, 1794.)

Died. On Monday last, Mr. Josiah Payne, lately from Ireland. (Friday, September 19, 1794.)

Lately died at his plantation at Oakatee-creek, soon after his return from this city, colonel John Lewis Bourquin, a firm supporter to the establishment of American independence, an affectionate husband and father, and a sincere friend. (Monday, September 22, 1794.)

Departed this life, on the 15th of September, in the 51st year of her age, Mrs. Magdalen Fripp, consort of Mr. William Fripp, senior, of St. Helena. . . . She was a tender and affectionate wife, indulgent parent, and a loving sister. (Tuesday, September 23, 1794.)

MAIDEN NAME OF GOVERNOR GIBBES'S FIRST WIFE

A power of attorney, dated January 12, 1688, was executed by Capt. William Davis, of Barbadoes, gent., to "my Trusty & loveing son in law Cap<sup>a</sup> Rob<sup>t</sup> Gibbs of the province of Carolina" to "aske demand require and recover and receive of and from y<sup>e</sup> right Hon<sup>ble</sup> James Colletion of Carolina Esqr full satisfaction for one full Quarter part of a Ketch formerly Called y<sup>e</sup> Mary Ketch of Carolina of About fifty Tuns." It is recorded on page 117 in a volume of "Records of the Court of Ordinary of the Province of South Carolina, 1672-1692," in the office of the Historical Commission of South Carolina at Columbia. This would seem to establish the fact that Capt. (afterwards Governor) Gibbs had married the daughter of Capt. William Davis.—A. S. Salley, Jr.

CRACKER

The South Carolina and American General Gazette for August 7, 1767, gives an early example of the use of the term "Cracker" as applied to the uneducated classes.—"CharlesTown, August 7. Letters from Silver Bluff, on Savannah river, dated on tuesday last week, inform us, that a number of the people called Crackers, who live above Augusta, in the Province of Georgia, had gone in a hostile manner, to the Indian town and settlement at Okenee, where, on their arrival finding only one old Indian man, all the others being out hunting, they plundered the village of everything of any value that they could carry of, and then burnt every house in it. . . ." This item in detail was reprinted in the London Chronicle, Oct. 27, 1767, according to information furnished by A. B. Andrews, Esq, of Fayetteville, N. C., long a member of this Society.

The South Carolina Gazette for September 26, 1778 gives another article in which the word is used in the same sense. It is to be found in a long communication addressed to "Every Freeholder in the Province," and is signed "A Freeholder of Goose Creek," to which has been added in ink the initials "J:M:k:e", probably intended for John M'Kenzie. In discussing the Legislature's attempt to deal with the Regulators the writer says: "There is an absurdity in the bill which must strike the brain of a Cracker."

PORTRAITS OF LYNCH, GADSDEN AND RUTLEDGE

"The honorable the commons House of Assemble of this Province have requested of Thomas Lynch, Christopher Gadsden and John Rutledge Esqs that they will sit for their pictures; which are to be drawn at full length and preserved in the assembly room as a testimony of public regard for those gentlemen, and that the remembrance of the signal service they have done their country, as a committee from this province at the congress held at New York in October last may be transmitted to and remembered by posterity; the expence whereof is to be defrayed by the province."—South Carolina Gazette, June 9, 1766.

HYRNE FAMILY

COMPILED BY MABEL L. WEBBER

In compiling this tentative genealogy, for there are numerous gaps and no attempt is made to extend it beyond the beginning of the nineteenth century, the notes of the late M. Alston Read, Esq., have been used in addition to the researches of the compiler. Mr. A. S. Salley, Jr., has also been of great assistance in making abstracts from documents in the Office of the Historical Commission.

There were seemingly two families here in South Carolina, with the name of Hearne, Hern, Hearn, or Hyrne, spelled indifferently in the records, but with a careful distinction made wherever a signature is found.

The earliest mention of the name yet found is that of Peter Hearne, who was a member of the parliament elected by the free-men of Carolina April 20, 1672<sup>1</sup> and who received a warrant for 400 acres of land October 26, 1672.<sup>2</sup> He had a grant for land near James Town; and December 30, 1676 had warrant for 780 acres; March 3, 1677, he had a warrant for one town lot in Oyster Point; May 18, 1678, another warrant for 140 acres; as Peter Hearne, Sr., he had a warrant for 10 acres near Jamestown 5th October 1681, and continued to receive warrants as late as 9th June 1688.<sup>3</sup>

July 9, 1681, Capt. William Davis of Barbadoes, executed a power of attorney to his "trusty friend Mr. Peter Hearne Gent. of the Province of Carolina" (Misc. records, Office Hist. Commission).

Peter Hearne, Jr., Mary Hearne, Bridget Hearne, and Richard Hearne had warrants for 280 acres of land in September 1677. Jonathan Drake and John Hearne had warrant for 500 acres in August 1709.<sup>4</sup>

George Hearne had several warrants between 1699 and 1706, and was called Capt. George Hearne in 1711; he is apparently the Capt. Hearne who commanded a company during the Spanish and French invasion in 1706.<sup>5</sup>

Peter Hearne, Sr., of James Island made his will (now missing), in December, 1688, and appointed his wife Jane and his seven children executors; he died before January 17, 1694/5, for on that date an act of Assembly was passed, enabling Edward Drake and James Witter, both of James Island, in right of their wives, two of the executors of Peter Hearne deceased, to sell a town lot in CharlesTown, no. 15.<sup>6</sup> The executors of the will being incapacitated for "want of age." James Witter seems to have been a Quaker.

Peter Hearne, late of "Carolina beyond the seas" died on board the Royal ship Monmouth, and administration was granted January 2, 1695/6 to his relict Joane Hearne.<sup>7</sup>

Bridget Martin of St. Giles, Cripplegate, widow, appoints Edward Loughton of Carolina her attorney to receive from John Child of Carolina, carpenter, and his wife Jone, formerly known as Jone Hearne, all money which said Jone Child alias Heanre had received for 52 gross of buttons being the goods of the above Bridget Martin received for her use; dated March 5th 1700/1.<sup>8</sup>

An Edith Hyrne was a witness to the will of Mary Cross, the Quaker preacher, August 28, 1696.<sup>9</sup> Thomas Hasfort was appointed guardian of John Hearne, minor son of John Hearne deceased 5th February, 1718/9; and John Hearne, minor son of John Hearne deceased aged 14 years and upwards, petitioned 12 January, 1724, that Thomas Fairchild be made his guardian.<sup>10</sup> John Hern had a grant August 28, 1701, for 225 acres in Berkley County, formerly laid out to Peter Hern deceased, bounding on Wm. Chapman, James Witter, Edward Westberry and Joane Pulford, now in possession of James Markiss, and on Wm. Carlisle (Grant book, 1694-1739 Hist. Comm.) John Hearne of James Island, hat-maker, aged 68 years, "oath according to the form his profession" made his deposition concernig Mrs. Eleanor Wilkins and her children 27 February, 1745; this John Hearne, of James Island, hat-maker, "being aged" made his will 27 September, 1743, proved 27 November, 1745; mentions son Peter Hearne; grandson John Hearne, son of Peter; daughter Elizabeth Witter deceased; son-in-law Thomas Witter; grandchildren, Elizabeth, Thomas, James and Mary Witter; daughter Mary Holmes alias Frier and her children, William, John, Peter, and Daniel Holmes, and Ruth Fryer (sic); grand-daughter Ann Hearne.<sup>11</sup>

There has not been enough data found to show the exact relationship of the people mentioned above, but they seem to have consistently spelled their name Hearne, some of them were Quakers, and they seem to have lived on James Island or in that neighborhood; there has been nothing found which shows any connection with the family of Hyrne with which we are now dealing.

HYRNE

Edward Hyrne, Esq., was commissioned by the Lords Proprietors to be Naval officer of the Province of Carolina, 11th December, 1708.<sup>12</sup> He does not seem to have come out to serve in that office, for Nathaniel Sale or Sayle, was appointed his deputy February 9, 1709/10. On February 28, 1710/11, a letter from Arthur Middleton was received by the Proprietors, requesting a commission as Naval officer; inquiry was ordered to be made of Mr. Hyrne, "if he can go for Carolina," if not then Mr. Middleton to have the appointment; Middleton was appointed June 13, 1711.<sup>13</sup>

On January 14, 1709/10, Mr. Edward Hyrne of London, Gentleman and Elizabeth his wife, constituted Richard Berresford and Nathaniel Sale, Esqrs. of South Carolina, to be their attorneys in said province of South Carolina. (Book 1709-19, page 82-83, Hist. Comm.)

An Edward Hearne, or Hyrne, was in South Carolina before 1703, for in that year John Bonee had a warrant for land bounding on Edward Hearn, and in 1706, Arthur Middleton had a warrant for 440 acres between John Bonee, Edward Hearne, George Smith, Nicholas Bennett, and John Berrenger.<sup>14</sup> On 6th May, 1704, Ralph Izard made a motion that the House take into consideration the loss Mr. Edward Hearne had lately sustained by his house being burned, and motions was made that certain concessions be made him (Journal Common House Assembly Mss.). There has not been enough material found to show if this Edward Hearne, was the Edward Hyrne, naval officer, who was in London in 1709, nor just when the family we are dealing with, arrived.

Edward Hyrne of the county of Norfolk, merchant, is said, from a record found in a Hyrne family bible, imprint date 1706, to have married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Drayner Massingberd of the County of Lincoln, knight; this is supported by the names found in the Hyrne family in South Carolina. According to Burke,<sup>15</sup> Sir Drayner Massingberd, of Ormsby, County of Lincoln, married first an heiress of the Burrell family, had no issue by her, inherited her estate, and his son by his second marriage was Burrell Massingberd, sheriff of Huntington in 1707, who in turn had sons William Burrell Massingberd, who succeeded his father in 1728, and died in 1802; also Francis Burrell Massingberd; these two, William Burrell Massingberd, and Francis Burrell Massingberd, are mentioned as cousins in the will of Burrell Massingberd Hyrne of S. C., dated 1758. (Probate Court, Charleston, S. C.)

No will or inventory of the elder Edward Hyrne has yet been found here, nor any for his wife Elizabeth, who apparently lived after 1725, for in that year Henry Hyrne, and Elizabeth Hyrne widow, purchased lands, as will be shown further on; an Edward Hyrne was a member of the assembly in 1716,<sup>16</sup> but this was probably Capt. Edward Hyrne, a son of Edward Hyrne, Esq.

Edward Hyrne had issue, so far as we have found:

2. i. Mary Hyrne, born either 1690 or 1697, died November, 1776; married in 1713, Thomas Smith (1669?-1738) for his second wife.
3. ii. Col. Edward Hyrne, of South Carolina and of Hyrneham, New Hanover County, North Carolina; he was born 1694 or earlier; died between 1750 and 1758; married Barbara Smith (1696-17—) daughter of Thomas Smith, Second Landgrave and his first wife, Anna Cornelia [van Myddah?]; said Barbara had apparently died before 1738, for she is not mentioned in the will of her father, who there calls Col. Edward Hyrne his son-in-law.<sup>17</sup>
4. iii. Burrell Massingberd Hyrne, born 1708 or earlier; died without issue between October 1, 1757, and January 2, 1758.
5. iv. Col. Henry Hyrne, born June 29, 1704, died January 27, 1764; married (1) 1733, Susannah Bellinger married (2) 1751, Elizabeth Clark, widow of Joshua Sanders. Married (3) 1759, Mary Butler, widow of Culcheth Golightly.

Mary Hyrne, (Edward 1) wife of Thos. Smith according to Mrs. Poyas, died in 1777, aged 80;<sup>18</sup> according to the Hayne Record,<sup>19</sup> "Mary Smith of Goose Creek, died November, 1776, aged 86." She married about 1713, Thomas Smith, second Landgrave (born 1669? died May 9, 1738.)<sup>20</sup>

Mary Smith of St. James Goose Creek, widow, made her will 9th September, 1769. Requests to be buried in a plain cedar coffin and to be interred in a plain, decent and Christian like manner.

Mentions eldest son, Henry Smith; grand-daughter Ann Smith, daughter of said Henry; son Thomas Smith; son Benjamin Smith, four grand-children, Thomas Screven, James Screven, Martha Baker and John Screven; grand-daughters, Elizabeth Dixon, (needle work picture, history of Judith and Holifernes and other items); Rebecca Dixon and Mary Dixon, Anna Taylor, daughter of Andrew and Sabina Taylor, Sons Henry, Thomas and Benjamin, appointed executors, Samuel West, John Bowles and Thomas C. Hamilton witnesses; no date of proof.<sup>21</sup>

Mrs. Poyas, in Olden Time in Carolina, page 107, gives a different will evidently made at a later date 1776, and not properly executed since it was not recorded, the devisees are the same, but she mentions them by their married names, and adds Barbara Screven to her list of grand-children;

Mary Hyrne and Thomas Smith had issue:

1. Edward Hyrne born August 24, 1714, died young.
2. James Smith born August 13, 1715; died January 3, 1736.
3. Mary, born October 9, 1717, married James Screven, and had issue.
4. Margaret, born April 1, 1720; married Benjamin Coachman, issue.
5. Elizabeth, born January 6, 1722; died September 26, 1756; married March 21, 1745, Thomas Dixon (1720-1769) of James Island; was his first wife: had issue.
6. Josiah, born July 10, 1725; died young.
7. Henry, born August 6, 1727; died December 8, 1780; married September 27, 1753, Ann Filbein (1736-1762) married (2d) December 13, 1764, Elizabeth Ball (1746-1787) issue by both wives.
8. Thomas born January 26, 1729; died—1782; married—1751, Susannah Walker; had issue.
9. George, 1732-1738.
10. Benjamin, born September 15, 1735; died July 22, 1790; married 1st. December, 1759 Elizabeth Ann Harleston (1742-1769), issue. married 2d: April 8, 1773, Catherine Ball (1751-1774); married 3d. August 8, 1775, Sarah Smith, daughter of George Smith and Elizabeth Waring; she died August, 1785, issue. Married 4th—1787 Rebecca, [Singleton] the widow of Benjamin Coachman, Esq.; she died January 7, 1814, aged 62 years.

Edward Hyrne (Edward 1), born 1694 or earlier; died between 1750 and 1758; married before 1715, Barbara Smith, born July 6, 1697, daughter of Thomas Smith second Landgrave, by his first wife, Anna Cornelia, thus being a sister-in-law to her step-mother, Mary Hyrne Smith. The will of James Lawson "late of Carolina, now of Maryland" dated 4 February, 1715/16<sup>22</sup> mentions his "knavy" John Lawson, his "cozen" Ann Hyrne, wife Ann Lawson, father-in-law Landgrave Thomas Smith, Executors, relations and friends Landgrave Thomas Smith, Mr. Edward Hyrne, and Mr. George Smith; the witnesses were James Strawbridge, Samuel Morris, Mary Smith, Barbara Hyrne, Justina Smith, and Thomas Smith; proved by Landgrave Thomas Smith, and Mary his wife. James Lawson seems to have married Ann Smith, a daughter of Landgrave Thomas Smith by his first wife, and after Lawson's death, she married Benj. Waring.

Justina Moore, a daughter of Thomas Smith and his first wife, full sister to Barbara Smith Hyrne, made her will in Philadelphia, 14 April, 1743; she describes herself as the relict of Mr. John Moore, late of Cape Fear; mentions sons James and John, and daughter Rebecca Moore; her late father Landgrave Thomas Smith of South Carolina; her brothers-in-law Maurice Moore, Roger Moore, and Edward Hyrne; sisters-in-law Mary Clifford and Rebecca Dry; niece Elizabeth Hyrne; Aunt Sarah [Smith?], Brothers-in-law Maurice Moore, Roger Moore, Edward Hyrne and eldest son James Moore, all of Cape Fear to be executors. Proved at Philadelphia, August 20, 1743.<sup>23</sup> We have no date for the death of Barbara Hyrne, wife of Col. Edward Hyrne; in Olden Times in Carolina, page 85, there is a letter from Col. Henry Hyrne dated Hyrneham, August 1, 1738, written to his sister Mary Smith after the death of her husband; in it he mentions the recent death of his son Edward in his prime, the illness of his son Henry; gives advice about the management of the plantations, and speaks of his sons but not by names; there is no mention of his wife who lived after 1720,<sup>24</sup> but we do not know how much later.

Edward Hyrne was probably the Edward Hyrne, member of Assembly 1716, and lived in South Carolina until after 1724; on 25th October, 1720, Edward Hyrne, Elizabeth Hyrne, and Barbara Hyrne witnessed a transfer of land from Landgrave Thomas Smith and Mary his wife to their son-in-law John Moore, all of St. James Goose Creek.<sup>25</sup> On 12th June, 1724, Capt. Edward Hyrne was one of the appraisors of the estate of Col. Thomas Smith of Goose Creek. (Probt. Ct. 1722-24, p. 250.) Edward Hyrne was a Justice of the Peace North Carolina in 1734, 1736, 1739 and 1750; apparently from the title he is mentioned by, he was also a Colonel in the militia.<sup>26</sup>

James Ellerton, the schoolmaster in the Smith family, at St. James Goose Creek, whose journal Mrs. Poyas quotes in Olden Times in Carolina, (p. 183), mentions that on "Tuesday November 5, 1745, Col. Edward Hyrne's horses came here from Cape Fear 10th, He came himself and there was a joyful meeting. December 2, Madam went to town. [Mrs. Smith] 5th. She came up. 7th. Her Brother Col. Edward Hyrne came again from town, not meeting with a passage to go home to Cape Fear. 22 Col. Edward Hyrne went to town in order once more to go home, and was to sail the next day—he came alone it was many years since he left us."

Col. Edward Hyrne was dead in 1758, when his brother Burrell Massingberd Hyrne made his will.

We have no accurate list of his children; so far as we have found, they were as follows, order unknown:

1. Edward Hyrne died 1738, near maturity, unmarried.
2. Ann Hyrne, born before 1716, called "Cozen" in the will of James Lawson, who married her aunt, Ann Smith.
3. Elizabeth Hyrne, mentioned as niece in the will of her aunt, Justina Moore in 1743; married January 26, 1747/8, Daniel Britton of Craven County (Parish Register of Pr. Frederick), Daniel Britton made his will 8 June, 1748, proved 16 June, 1749; mentions his wife Elizabeth and unborn child; mentions in list of negroes one at "the ferry" and one at Cape Fear; leaves Capt. Francis Britton, George Hyrne and wife Elizabeth, his executors.<sup>27</sup> The child was a son, Daniel Britton, who died in infancy before July 24, 1751.<sup>28</sup>

The Britton nephews and niece, mentioned in the will of Henry Hyrne below, were apparently the children of Capt. Francis Britton who died in 1766, since they are the same as named in his will.<sup>29</sup> Apparently there was another Hyrne-Britton marriage

4. George Hyrne died before 1772, apparently without issue.

5. Henry Hyrne, of New Hanover, Province of North Carolina; he made his will 29 September, 1773, proved 26 October, 1773; Henry Walters, plantation in New Hanover County called Hyrnham, with additional lands "devised me by my honoured Father Col. Edward Hyrne," also land which came to said Henry Hyrne by the death of his brother George; niece Elizabeth Walters; nephews Joseph and George Walters; nephew Moses Britton; niece Mary Britton; nephews Henry Britton and Francis Britton; expresses appreciation of the kindness of the above nephews in coming to see him and staying with him; states that for 12 years he has been prevented by illness from attending to his affairs, his good friend Frederick Jones, having attended to same for him; speaks of having gone to Philadelphia for his health; mentions god-daughter Elizabeth, daughter of Frederick Jones; rest of estate to niece Mary Britton, and nephews Moses, Francis, and Henry Britton; his negro man Cato, to be sent with news of his death to nephews Moses and Francis Britton, and his will not to be opened until they have such notice. Frederick Jones, Moses Britton and Francis Britton to be executors.

Signed, Henry Hyrne (seal with arms).<sup>30</sup>

Burrell Massingberd Hyrne (Edward, 1) was born 1702 or earlier; he witnessed 11th March, 1725/6, a deed from George Atchison of CharlesTown, merchant, which conveyed to Elizabeth Hyrne of CharlesTown, widow and Henry Hyrne of the same place merchant, 500 acres in Colleton County.<sup>21</sup> The Memorial of the above Henry and Elizabeth Hyrne, states that the above mentioned 500 acres were in St. Paul's parish, on a branch of Toobedoo Creek, bounding southwest on lands of Proprietor Blake; the memorial registered April 27, 1733.<sup>22</sup>

Burrell Massingberd Hyrne died without leaving issue; no record of a marriage for him has been found. He made his will October 1, 1757, as Burrell Massingberd Hyrne of Colleton County, Gentleman; mentions sister Mary Smith widow; each of the children of his Brother Edward Hyrne, late of Cape Fear deceased.

To John Cumberlege, Gentleman, of Newgate Street, London, £20, of which he is to give to "my cousin William Burrell Massingberd, Esq; of South Ormsby in the County of Lincoln" a mourning ring valued at 25 or 30 shillings, and to cousin Francis Burrell Massingberd of the city of London, a ring of the same value, "if they please to accept them".

To brother Henry Hyrne all estate not otherwise disposed of, and said brother Henry to be sole executor.

Signed, Burrell M. Hyrne.

5

Col. Henry Hyrne (Edward 1), born June 29, 1704; died January 27, 1764. The following is taken from the papers and notes of the late Barnwell Rhett Heyward, Esq; now in the South Carolina Historical Society, and is stated to be an exact copy of a record on parchment, found in a Hyrne family bible, imprint date 1706.

"Henry Hyrne Son of Edward Hyrne of the County of Norfolk, Merchant and Elizabeth his wife, Daughter of Sir Drayner Massingberd of the County of Lincoln, Knight, was born June 29th, A.D. 1704.

Susannah Bellinger, daughter of Landgrave Edmund Bellinger and Elizabeth his wife, Daughter of William Baker both of the Province of Carolina, was born 1st September, 1715. The said Henry Hyrne and Susannah Bellinger were married May 8th, 1733, and had issue as follows.

- [6. i] Henry Hyrne born Friday October 18th, 1734.
- [ii] Ann Hyrne born Thursday February 19th, 1736; died June 23, 1737.
- [iii] Ann Hyrne born Monday October 24, 1737; died October 26, 1743.
- [iv] Edward Hyrne born Thursday March 6th, 1739; died April 1st, following.
- [v] Edward B. Hyrne born Thursday November 19th, 1741; died November 19th (sic), 1743.
- [vi] Ann Massingberd Hyrne, born Tuesday January 10th, 1743; died August 22, 1745.
- [vii] ——— Hyrne, born Monday October 27, 1746, died same evening.
- [7. viii] Edmund Massingberd Hyrne born Friday noon, January 14th, 1748.

Susannah Hyrne died April 25th, 1749, aged 33 years, 7 months and 25 days.

Henry Hyrne was married to his second wife Elizabeth Clark Sanders daughter of Mr. Alexander Clark, and relict of Capt. Joshua Sanders, 25th December, 1751, and had issue:

- [ix] Elizabeth Hyrne, born 30th October, 1752. [She married in September, 1779; Daniel Tucker, Esq; (1752–1797), of Georgetown, she died May 25, 1790; issue.]
- [8. x] William Alexander Hyrne, born 16th December, 1754. Elizabeth Clark Hyrne died 25th October, 1752, aged 41 years. Henry Hyrne was married to his third wife Mary Golightly, relict of Culcheth Golightly, Esq; 20th June, 1759.”

Most of the dates in the bible can be checked by newspaper notices and church registers; printed in this Magazine.

The second wife of Henry Hyrne, Elizabeth Clark, was the daughter of Alexander Clark, of Colleton County<sup>24</sup> and his wife Elizabeth,—who afterwards married—Hunt; Elizabeth Hunt died in December, 1766, aged 73 years (Hayne record). She made her will 30th April, 1757, as Elizabeth Hunt of Charles Town, widow; mentions her grand-daughters Mary Ann Clark Sanders, and Elizabeth Elliott; [These were the daughters of Elizabeth Clark and her first husband, Joshua Sanders. Elizabeth being the wife of Samuel Elliott.] Grand-daughter Elizabeth Hyrne under 16; grand-son William Alexander Hyrne. Executors, Samuel Elliott and his wife Elizabeth. Proved 16th January, 1767.<sup>25</sup> Mrs. Hunt was a practicing mid-wife, and was present according to a record kept by her, at the birth of nearly 4000 children. (This Magazine, vol. XVI, p. 35.)

Mary Butler Golightly, the third wife of Col. Henry Hyrne, was the daughter of Richard Butler; she married first in 1738, Thomas Elliott, Jr.; their issue died young. She married second in April, 1746, Culcheth Golightly, Esq., by whom she had two daughters, Dorothy, who married Ben. Huger, and Mary, who married Wm. Henry Drayton. Mrs. Golightly married Col. Henry Hyrne for her third husband, June 26, 1759, and they had issue:

- viii. Harriet Hyrne, born October 9th, 1760; married Richard Bohun Baker and had issue.
- ix. Sarah Hyrne, born February 16, 1763; Married about September, 1788 (Marriage Settlement No. 1, p. 377, Office Hist'l. Com'n.), Col. James Simons and had issue.
- x. Benjamin Hyrne, born April 2, 1764, after the death of his father, and died April, 1770. (St. Andrew's Register.)

Col. Henry Hyrne was a Justice in the Commission of the Peace in 1737, (This Magazine, V. XI, p. 189) is mentioned in various deeds as Colonel by 1751; was a major on Gov. Lyttleton's Staff in October, 1756, in the expedition against the Cherokees; (Mc-

Peter Bohun Girardeau, son of Peter Bohun Girardeau, and his brother John Girardeau. Mother for life, sister £20 sterling each year until she "again enjoys her own property." Wife, William Webb, and Daniel D'Oyley to be executors. Daniel D'Oyley, William Webb and Henry Hyrne (sic) qualified.

Elizabeth, the widow of Peter Hyrne married about November, 1795, Peter Bohun Girardeau; her marriage settlement states that she is entitled to one-fourth of an undivided tract of land, in St. Bartholomew's parish, left to her by her father, (name not given), bounding on lands of John Belinger, William Cothsworth Pinckney, and the public road from Edmundsbury to Salkehatchie Bridge, and 15 negroes. Dated 18 November 1795; Daniel D'Oyley trustee. (Mg. Settlements Columbia.)

v. Edmund Massingberd Hyrne, born October 20, 1765; died young.

Edmund Massingberd Hyrne (Henry 2, Edward 1), born January 14, 1748; died of apoplexy December 11, 1783 (Gazette of State of S. C., December 11, 1783).

He was Captain First South Carolina Continental Regiment 17 June, 1775; Major 12 May, 1779. Aide-de-Camp to General Greene in 1781. Deputy Adjutant-General 17 November, 1778, to end of the war. By act of Congress 29 October, 1781, Major-General Greene was desired to present the thanks of Congress to Major Hyrne, his Aide-de-Camp, in testimony of his particular activity and good conduct during the whole action at Eutaw Springs, S. C. (Heitman).

Major Hyrne was wounded in the action near Gibbes' farm, March 30th, 1780 (McCrady, v. 3). He rendered important services in the exchange of prisoners in 1781 (Garden's Anecdotes). Was member of Assembly from St. Bartholomew's parish in 1782.

Major Hyrne died intestate; Daniel Tucker of Georgetown and Henry Hyrne of St. Bartholomew's parish administered; his plantation in St. Bartholomew's parish was called Ormsby.<sup>39</sup> He

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE CITY GAZETTE

Died. On Monday morning last, Mrs. Mary Simmons Petrie, the wife of Lieut. George Petrie. (Wednesday, September 24, 1794.)

Departed this life on Thursday the 25th instant Capt. Henry Willis, son of Col. Lewis Willis, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, late a captain in the fourth regiment of Pennsylvania light dragoons commanded by Col. Stephen Moylan; a man of the most distinguished philanthropy, honor and integrity, and who fulfilled all the offices of a private life as well as he acquitted himself in a military character, with universal applause. The few friends and familiar acquaintances of the deceased, in this city, feel themselves particularly obliged to the officers of the Charleston Eastern Regiment, who honored his funeral by their attendance; a circumstance which, as often as reflected on will renew a sense of obligation. (Saturday, September 27, 1794.)

Died. On Thursday evening last, in the 57th year of his age, Mr. John Hughes, house carpenter; a tender husband, an indulgent father, and a kind master. . . . (Monday, September 29, 1794.)

Departed this life, on the 29th September in the 55th year of her age, Mrs. Mary Cox, after a long and painful illness; her remains were interred in the Catholic church. (Wednesday, October 1, 1794.)

Died. Last week, after a short illness, Mr. John Woodbury, of James Island, in the 48th year of his age, formerly of the house of Woodbury and Lord, merchants, of this city. For industry, honesty and sobriety, few, if any, exceed him. (Thursday, October 2, 1794.)

Married. On Thursday evening last, Mr. Daniel Bruce, to Miss Susannah Smith, daughter of Thomas Smith, Esq., late of Winyah, gentleman planter. (Saturday, October 4, 1794.)

Died. In the 25th year of her age, Mrs. Mary Eleanor Pinckney, wife of the late Governor Charles Pinckney, Esq. . . . (Tuesday, October 7, 1794.)

Married. On Monday night last, Mr. William Lenox, merchant, to Miss Mary Greebage, both of this city. (Thursday, October 9, 1794.)

Married. On Thursday the 2d inst. Mr. John Smith of this city, to Miss Elizabeth Cameron, of Christ Church parish. (Friday, October 10, 1794.)

Married. On Thursday evening last, Mr. William Chitty, to Miss Ann Cole, both of this city. (Saturday, October 11, 1794.)

HISTORIC HOUSES OF SOUTH CAROLINA

This Society has received for reviewing, from the publishers, J. B. Lippincott Company, through Hammond's Book Store, a copy of Historic Houses of South Carolina, by Hariette Kershaw Leiding.

The book is handsomely finished in the same style as the Smith book, Dwelling Houses of Charleston, and contains one hundred full page illustrations, most of them photographs. The pictures constitute one of its permanent values; several of them being from old prints or paintings of houses of interest, now no longer in existence.

The book contains a great deal of material of interest and entertainment, and adds in many ways to the literature about the State, especially the coast country. The style is easy and anecdotal; the necessary historical details are interspersed with many personal stories long current in print and conversation, and well worth preserving. The material is taken chiefly from printed sources and family tradition. Unfortunately much of it was not verified, and the book will have to be very carefully used as an authority, for it contains many errors, some of them concerning historical characters, which could have been avoided by consulting easily accessible authorities.

Most of the genealogy and personal accounts should not be taken as they stand without verifying; even in the case of persons who have lived so recently as Major Theodore G. Barker and his wife, formerly Miss Louisa King, daughter of Judge Mitchell King, the error is made of stating that Major Barker married "Miss Louisa Fitzsimmons;" Major Barker's sister married Dr. Christopher FitzSimons, which probably caused the confusion.

The house now used as the residence of the bishop of the Roman Catholic Church is stated (p. 10) to have been built by a Mr. Belling; the records show that it was begun by Ralph Izard of Fair Spring, was unfinished at the time of his death; in the division of his estate, it fell to his daughter Louisa Charlotte, who died unmarried in 1825; it was sold in 1829 to Col. Thomas Pinckney, and in 1866, his daughter Rosetta Ella, the widow of Ralph Stead Izard sold it to the Rt. Rev. Patrick N. Lynch. (Dwelling Houses of Charleston, p. 250.)

The account of Henry Laurens (pp. 42-44) is woefully mixed; the dates concerning Laurens and those of James Crockatt as given by Dr. Wallace in his Henry Laurens seems to have exchanged places; from Mrs. Leiding's book, it would appear that Henry Laurens was a merchant in London in 1739, when according to the birth date which is given, he was only five years old! Other dates are also given which make him seem even more wonderfully precocious. As a matter of fact, he was born in 1724. A correct account of the escape from being buried alive, when an infant of one year, of Martha, daughter of Henry Laurens and afterwards the wife of Dr. David Ramsay, will be found in the Wallace life of Laurens, and also in detail in Dr. Ramsay's memoir of his wife.

On page 76, Josia Quincy, Jr., of Massachusetts, who visited here in 1773, and kept a journal often quoted, and several times printed, recently in full by the Massachusetts Historical Society, is given as "Sir Joshua Quincy."

The date of the settlement of South Carolina is frequently anticipated by several years, as on page 132, when Anthony Cordes is made to arrive and settle on French Santee in 1665, some twenty years before his actual arrival.

In the account of Boone Hall, long in hands of the descendants of Major John Boone, who came out with the first fleet, and received a grant to the Boone Hall land before 1695, the statement is made that a Daniel Boone is buried in the family burying grounds. There is an unmarked brick tomb on this plantation, and the parish register of Christ Church shows that Major Thomas Boone was buried on his plantation in 1749, but the name of Daniel does not appear in any line of the family so far as the records show.

On page 207, Middleton Place, under the head "Middleton Gardens" is disposed of in four lines as the "old Pinckney place;" it had several owners before Henry Middleton married in 1741, the only child of John Williams, who had acquired the lands composing it. Thus it came into the Middleton family, and has remained in the hands of Middleton descendants ever since, but at no time in its history, was it ever owned by a Pinckney.

The accounts of the Pinckney family is also confused. Charles Pinckney 1757-1824, who was Governor of South Carolina, minister to Spain, and who made a draft of the Constitution, was not a son of Chief Justice Pinckney and Eliza Lucas, but was a grand-nephew, being a son of Colonel Charles Pinckney (1731-1784) and Frances Brewton, a grandson of Major William Pinckney (1703-1766) and Ruth Brewton. Major Wm. Pinckney was a brother of Charles Pinckney, the Chief Justice. General Thomas was not the author of the much quoted "millions for defence" phrase, but his brother General Charles Coatesworth Pinckney, on whose tombstone in St. Michael's churchyard the sentence is to be found.

The account of the Middleton family is as confused as that of the Pinckneys. On page 24, John Middleton should be given as the owner of Crowfield, not his brother Thomas. Page 25, Henry A. Middleton and Henry Middleton of Ashville, North Carolina, were wholly different persons, first cousins once removed. Henry Middleton had no connection with Crowfield.

Arthur Middleton was the father, not the grandfather of Governor Henry Middleton, and Henry Middleton of the Revolution was his grandfather, not his great grandfather.

Thomas Ferguson of the Revolution (p. 54), was the son of James Ferguson of Goose Creek by his wife Ann Barker, daughter of Thomas Barker and half-sister of John Parker. He was thus of one of the best families which then existed in the low country and went to Parkers Ferry with his uncle John Parker. His subsequent life shows that he was a man of education and by no means the poor unlettered boy to be inferred from Dr. Johnson's account.

Thomas Ferguson of the Revolution (p. 56), was not the founder but the grandson of Thomas Ferguson, the founder of the family.

Among further errors to be noted, are the following:

The statement that McDuffie fought a duel with "Colonel Cunningham," should be "Colonel Cumming." It is well known that he fought two duels with Colonel Cumming of the well known family of Augusta, Georgia. Again, General Gonzales did not marry "Mary Elliott," but her sister "Harriet Rutledge Elliott" daughter of Hon. William Elliott. Mary married Mr. Andrew Johnstone. Thomas Rhett Smith, the father of Mrs. William Elliott, was born in 1769 and not in 1800. We have never heard of any brother of Mrs. Elliott who grew to manhood named "Thomas Rhett Smith, Jr." Again what is known now as "The Point" at Beaufort, South Carolina, at one time called "Blacks Point" was not built upon until after the death of "Tuscarora John Barnwell" and Washington and Carteret Streets do not extend to the Point. The "John Barnwell" who married Sarah Bull, was the great-grandson not grandson of "Tuscarora" John. The oldest house in Beaufort was certainly not built in 1690, as the town was not directed to be built until 1712. Only a part of Beaufort District was known as the "Indian Land." The house built by Captain Edward Barnwell, now occupied by Mrs. O'Dell, so far from being built "with substantial wings" and a "very large piazza" to accommodate his large family, did not receive those additions until many years after his death. Mr. James Elliott, never became a bishop, it was his brother, Stephen Elliott who became bishop of Georgia. No smoking dinner was left by any family at Beaufort at the time of its evacuation in November, 1861, and was devoured by the incoming army, for no part, either of the navy or army of the United States came to the town until several days after the evacuation.

In spite of the many errors, some of them serious, the book serves a very valuable purpose; it will awaken an interest and pride in the old places, and help to preserve the personal and traditional accounts of many communities.

The type of early country house which remains, show that the plantation homes as a rule, were not as handsome or as stately as those of Virginia; possibly because Charleston was the social center, and most of the low-country planters had houses in town, and for the provincial and later period, Charleston houses were very fine. Very many of the best of the early country houses were destroyed during the later period of the War between the States, those along the Ashley River having been, from all accounts, very handsome, most of them built of brick, but enough remain to show the general type of the country house, which seems to have been chiefly built of wood, and to have been a plain square house of from four to eight rooms with a central hall.

GRIMBALL OF EDISTO ISLAND

Compiled by MABEL L. WEBBER

Paul Grimball, an English merchant, came to the Province of South Carolina in Feb. 1682; on April 10, 1681, Lord Shaftesbury and two others of the Lords Proprietors, address a communication to the Governor and Council, containing among other things, a commission to grant 3000 acres of land to "Mr. Paul Grimball, Merchant bound for Ashley River to settle there."<sup>1</sup>

In March 1682/3 he had a warrant for land on Cooper River bounding on land already purchased by him from Samuel Boswood<sup>2</sup> and in October 1683, he received a warrant for 600 acres due him for arrival of self and servants; he became a Proprietor's deputy in 1683;<sup>3</sup> settled on Edisto Island, where in 1686 his house with that of Governor Morton, was sacked by the Spaniards<sup>4</sup>.

He was Secretary of the Province by 1683 and in October 1688 was appointed Receiver General and Escheator;<sup>5</sup> was a member of the committee to consider the modification of the Fundamental Constitution in July 1687; was disqualified by Seth Sothell from holding office in 1690, and was sent to jail and forcibly dispossessed of the records intrusted to him because he would not deliver the seal used for granting lands;<sup>6</sup> Grimball in his petition to the Governor and Council<sup>7</sup> recites the outrages committed by Sothell and his followers, and among other things states that William Chapman, the constable at CharlesTown with seven others from Berkley County went to the petitioners house on "Edistoh" Island Colleton County "forty miles by water" on February 3, 1691, entered his house with clubs, frightening Mrs. Grimball and the family, making the search upon the pretence of hunting for public papers and records, from there they went to the house of Mr. John Hamilton "your Petr's sonn in Law" a mile distant, and searched his house under the same pretense.<sup>8</sup>

The Proprietors granted Grimball a new commission in May 1691.<sup>9</sup> In April 1693 they wrote to Col. Ludwell transmitting to Mr. Grimball a power to appoint and remove Judges or Sheriffs of the counties at pleasure; they also stated that Mr. Grimball complained that he was obliged to stay in town longer than is needful, and requested that the duties of his office be made as little irksome as possible.<sup>10</sup> The Proprietors wrote to Mr. Grimball June 28, 1695 concerning the appointment of Archdale as Governor, and Grimball in his will, proved February 20, 1696, requests that a ring be given to Gov. Archdale as a token of respect.

Paul Grimball made his will December 13, 1696, as Paul Grimball Esq; of Edisto Island, Colleton County; a full abstract was printed in this Magazine, vo. XI, page 55. He mentions his wife Mary, sons Thomas and John, daughter Providence Grimball, daughters Mary Hamilton and Ann Linkley; son-in-law Christopher Linkley; the lands mentioned in his will were on Edisto; 1600 acres to his wife for life, and then to his son, Thomas; 400 acres to his daughter Linkley; there is no mention of lands to any of his other children. He had formerly owned lands on Cooper river the plantation known later as Wraggs or Marshland,<sup>11</sup> but sold during his life time.

Mary Grimball, wife of Paul, mentioned several times in the records and Statutes at large as Madam Mary Grimball, was living in 1711, when she was made guardian of her grand-son Christopher Linkley,<sup>12</sup> but was dead by 1720, when her son Thomas made his will; Mary Grimball left a will but it is now missing.

Paul Grimball the first and his wife Mary had issue:

2. i. Mary Grimball, married to John Hamilton, deputy Secretary of the Province, and had three children by 1695, when John Hamilton of Edisto Island registered a stock mark for them; Hamilton was a member of the House of Assembly in 1696, and 1698, and is mentioned in 1696 as Capt. John Hamilton. There is some evidence that he was the John Hamilton who came out with Lord Cardross and William Dunlap, but this would have to be proved.<sup>13</sup> Mary Hamilton died before her husband, and he married next Dorothy ———, who administered upon his estate November 6, 1707; after his death she married Thomas Ogle of Edisto Island, survived him also, and died leaving a will dated 1719 which mentions among others, her son-in-law Paul Hamilton.<sup>14</sup>

Of the children of John Hamilton, only three are known to be by Mary Grimball: i. Mary Hamilton, born before 1695, married first about 1705, John Wilkins, who died in 1730, she then married Archibald Neal,<sup>15</sup> John Wilkins and Mary Hamilton had issue several children, among them Paul Wilkins, mentioned in the will of his uncle Paul Hamilton. ii. Paul Hamilton, born before 1695, married Martha Bower, daughter of William Bower and his wife Martha Hext; Paul Hamilton died about March 1738/9 when his will was proved, his wife had predeceased him; their children were Paul, John, Archibald, daughters Martha and Dorcas; Paul was a Tory, and died in England about 1799, leaving no issue; Dorcas and John seem to have died young, Martha married Rev. John McLeod, and Archibald (1736-1766) married Rebecca daughter of Ezekial Branford, and was the father of Paul Hamilton, Governor of S. C., and Secretary of the Navy. iii. Ann Hamilton, born before 1695; married first before 1713, David Loughton, no issue; married 2d. George Barnet, one daughter Ann Barnet; married 3d. before 1717, David Hext, and had five daughters<sup>16</sup>; her daughter Ann Barnet married in 1731, Charles Codner<sup>17</sup> and had Richard, born 1732, Grace, born 1742, married John Ash, Charles, born 1734, Sabina, born 1735, married William Elliott, Providence married 1761, Joseph Eddings, Ann.

John Smith, an English merchant, and second Benjamin D'Harriett, also a merchant<sup>22</sup> no issue by either husband; 3, Charles Odingsell, minor in 1718, when his half-brother Christopher Linkley was appointed his guardian<sup>23</sup> died on a trip to Savannah about 1740 leaving issue, Charles, Mary, and possibly others.<sup>24</sup> Ann Grimball seems to have married for a third husband, Lawrence Dennis, who afterwards married her sister Providence.<sup>25</sup>

4. iii. Providence Grimball, daughter of Paul and Mary, unmarried when her father made his will in 1695; she married first Lawrence Dennis,<sup>26</sup> and second, November 25, 1733, Ribton Hutchinson; she had no issue. Lawrence Dennis left a will now missing, but from recitals, we find that he left land to Paul Grimball, his nephew by marriage.

Providence Hutchinson made her will 9 January, 1755, proved 27 February, 1756; mentioning many of her friends and relations; she speaks of her husband Ribton Hutchinson and marriage settlement with him; the Antopedo Baptist church, 400 Pounds, and her silver tankard. nephew John

As we know that d'Harriett married Anne Odingsell, widow of John Smith, the explanation seem to be that Lawrence Dennis had first married Anne Odingsell, widow, sister of Providence Grimball, and thus Anne d'Harriett was his step daughter.

Jones, neices Elizabeth Baynard, and Providence Grimball "who lives with me" daughters of her nephew Paul Grimball deceased. Nephew Joshua Grimball; neice Mary Simmons now wife of Capt. Ebenezer Simmons and her four children, Samuel Jones, Mary Broughton, John Jones and Charles Jones; neice Mary Simmons and then her daughter Mary Broughton, the mourning ring "I had for my Mother;" Sister Sarah Pitman, in Manchester New England, and her daughter Elizabeth [a sister of Lawrence Dennis]

Late nephew Paul Grimball and his eight children not named; Nephew Thomas Grimball and his four children [not named] Nephew Joshua and his five children; neice Rebecca Grimball; children of nephew Isaac Grimball deceased, all under age; neice Sabina Elliott, wife of William Elliott; three neices Ann Codner, Providence Codner, and Grace Codner; Mrs. Mary Baker, widow of Capt. Francis Baker; kinsman Thomas Hutchinson; nephew Benjamin D'Harriett, "mourning ring I had for my late husband" and 500 pounds; residue to all the children of three nephews, Paul Grimball Esq; deceased. Thomas Grimball, and Isaac Grimball deceased.

5. iv. John Grimball, mentioned in the will of his father; John Grimball, of Charlestown, Hatter, made his will 11 Feb. 1722/3, leaving James Ellis his sole executor; Benjamin Cotell to have all his hat-makers tools. Sons Samuel and John Grimball to have all his property if they come to Carolina within a year and a day;<sup>27</sup> the records show nothing further concerning John Grimball's descendants.
6. v. Thomas Grimball, son of Paul and Mary, and the ancestor of all the Grimball's of the name in South Carolina; he married first before 1707, Elizabeth, daughter of William Adams;<sup>28</sup> married second, August 8, 1722, Sarah, widow of William Pert, a Baptist minister; no issue by this marriage; she married next, in 1724, Samuel Scriven, and after his death, Dr. George Smith, a son of the second Landgrave, and died in Philadelphia.

Thomas Grimball and his wife Elizabeth Adams has issue

7. i. Paul Grimball, died about 1750
8. ii. Thomas Grimball, died after 1783
9. iii. Joshua Grimball, died 1757
10. iv. Isaac Grimball, died 1752.

Thomas Grimball of Edisto Island left a will, dated 26 October, 1721, proved Feb. 7, 1722; leaves wife Sarah for widowhood, use of his plantation where he lives; personal estate in to three equal parts, one third to wife for life, then to all his sons. The other two thirds to his four sons, Paul, Thomas, Joshua and Isaac, when the younger sons are 21, son Paul to receive his share immediately three younger sons to be maintained out of labor of their respective slaves, stock of horses, cattle &c.

“All possible Endeavours be used to give each of my Children a competent measure of learning and education, at least that they may be taught to read perfect English, write a legible hand fitt for public business or office, and Arithmetick through the rule of Fellowship.”

Son Paul, after death of Wife Sarah, plantation where testator lived, 1000 acres; to son Thomas, 500 acres on Port Royal island;

Son Joshua remaining part of the tract where he lived, situated on Burned House Creek; to son Isaac Grimball land on Edisto Island, 290 acres adjoining Lawrence Dennis and Thomas Parmenter, a grant from Gov. Moore; wife Sarah and son Paul to be executors. Joseph Sealey, Edmond Puysley, Chas. Odingsell, Joseph Sealey Jr. and Daniel McFarland, witnesses.<sup>29</sup>

ST. HELENA'S PARISH REGISTER

Copied and arranged for printing by JOSEPH W. BARNWELL AND

The register for St. Helena's parish which we are now printing, is a compilation, begun in 1752, by William Gough; the volume in which it was recorded is a large folio, bound in parchment; the first page is elaborately illuminated in colored floral designs, and ornate lettering which reads as follows:

"St. Helena Parish / P. Register Containing / the Marriages, Births, Baptisms / and Burials which have happened in the said Parish, being transcribed from the old Register & from the / private Minutes of the late Rev'd Lewis Jones Decd."

"Minister / Rev. Wm. Peasely / Church Wardens / , Mr. Andrew Bell / Mr. Wm. Waight [bad break here]

"Vestry Coll. Nath'l [Barnwell] / Coll. Tho's: [Wigg?] / Coll: M[ulryne ?] Capt: Jno: G [break] / Mr. Jno: [Barnwell ?] / Mr. Chas.—, Mr. —"

Between the list of the wardens and the vestry is the Royal Coat of Arms, and just below it appears the following:

"Done at Beaufort in the 25th year of the / Reign of his Majesty George II, and is most / humbly inscribed unto the Revd: the minister, the church / wardens and Gentlemen of the Vestry and the other / the Gentlemen Freeholders of the Said Parish / by their most humble and oblg. Servant / William Gough, St. George, 1752."

The old register is in very bad condition; fortunately a copy was made over twenty-five years ago, and this copy is now the property of this Society.

The register is a rather complicated compilation, arranged in tabular form, running across the double page, and there is an elaborate system of abbreviations and cross references by numbers, too confusing and cumbersome to reproduce. Since it has not been practicable to reproduce the exact form of the original, the subject matter has been put into a new form; the copy is used, after having been carefully verified with the original, loaned by the parish for this purpose: Mr. Joseph W. Barnwell and Miss Webber have done the verifying, and have again checked the copy after the new compilation was made.

With the completion of the printing of the St. Helena register all of the Provincial Church of England registers, which now remain, will have been printed with the exception of the second part of St. Philip's register, beginning 1754. This Society has printed to date, St. Andrews, St. James Santee, and Christ Church besides a fragment in the Independent Congregational (Circular) Church. St. Thomas and St. Dennis, Prince Frederick's and the first part of St. Philips have been printed by others. The other parish registers have long been missing; in a few cases the minutes of the vestry remain where the registers are gone.

The William Gough who began the compilation, the form of which was used until the register was full, was born in London in 1703, and died in Beaufort in May 1758; he has the schoolmaster and auctioneer. The register records the usual details concerning his family; They seem to have come out to Georgia in 1733, and to have shortly after come over to Beaufort. There is no apparent connection between this William Gough and John Gough, who came to Carolina from Barbadoes about before 1709, and left descendants here.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE CITY GAZETTE

Died. Yesterday morning, Mrs. Swadler, and Mr. John McCall, taylor (Thursday, Jan. 1, 1795).

Married on Thursday last, William Clarkson, Esq; to Miss Elizabeth Anderson Harris, daughter of Dr. Tucker Harris. (Sat. Jan. 3, 1795.)

Married at Stono, on Thursday last, Daniel Fludd, Esq. to Miss Elizabeth Stanyarne Mathewes, only daughter of John Raven Mathewes esq. deceased. (Monday, Jan 5, 1795.)

On the first of December ultimo, capt. Benjamin Darrell sailed from this port for Georgetown and was upset in a gale of wind, not having sufficient ballast in his vessel. His activity, and wish to provide for his family led him to a conduct bordering on temerity which would admit of no dissuasion from putting to sea when scarcely any other mariner would venture, which proved his over throw. . . . By his industry he accumulated a pretty capital, which enabled him to build a new vessel, for which he was offered 1400 £ and manned her with his own slaves. Himself, mate and thirteen negroes together with his vessel, have all gone to the bottom . . . . (Thursday, Jan. 8, 1795.)

Died, on Monday last, Mr. Benjamin Wish, sen. an old inhabitant of Charleston. (Friday, Jan. 9, 1795.)

Died, on Thursday last, in Marion county, St. John's, that worthy veteran, Francis Marion, who was major of the second South-Carolina regiment when the British were repulsed at the attack of Fort Moultrie; some time after, he rose to the command of the said regiment: soon after the fall of Charleston he was appointed a brigadier-general in the militia of this state; in which stations his services during the war are well known to the citizens of this state. (Tuesday, Mar. 3, 1795.)

Died, on Tuesday last, Mr. James Hamlin Thomson, A.M. for upwards of thirty years an eminent instructor of youth. (Thursday, Mar. 5, 1795.) [Corrected in the next issue to James Hamden Thomson]

Died, on Tuesday last the 3d inst. Mrs. Mary M'Cants, consort of William M'Cants esq. of the Round O. . . . her loss is irreparable to her helpless offspring . . . . (Friday, Mar. 6, 1795.)

The schooner Cornelia is owned in New-Brunswick, (New Jersey) On her outward bound passage, she was commanded by capt. Auten, who with Mr. Dennis, the supercargo, died of yellow fever, in Kingston. By a gentleman who arrived in this vessel, we are informed that the yellow fever continues to make great havoc, particularly among the foreigners who arrive there; he says that the physicians informed him that more than three fourths of the strangers who had come there in the last two years, had died. There was at first a great difference of opinion among the physicians respecting the proper mode of treating the disorder; but of late they had followed the plan of Dr. Rush, which they found to be the best method. (Monday, Mar. 9, 1795.) [In the next issue it is stated that it was a younger brother of Mr. Denis who died and not [the supercargo]

Admonrs of Hooper Vs Swallow 23 Aug. 1765

A Citation or Monition at instance of James Wright and John Burrell admors. of Thos. Hooper deceased against Newman Swallow late admor. of sd. eestate, citing him to appear this day and render account.

It was suggested that the Debts due from Hooper Swallow and Company amounted to Sixty Seven thousand three Hundred and Ninety one pounds four shil's and eleven pence Currency which tho' it is probable the Debts due the partnership is sufficient to make good that sum, yet as there may be bad debts and Remittances it is possible they might fall short; In which case the private estate of Mr. Hooper will be called upon to answer the deficiencies And that the estat of Mr. Hopton one of the sureties in the Admin granted to Wright and Burrell at least the most part is settled on his Family. Prayed in behalf of the creditors of Hooper Swallow and Company that the goods of said Hooper now in hands of said Swallow may not be delivered to present admirs. but in trust to some person for benefit of his creditors. His honor agreed to consider same until next Friday.

His Honor finds security given by James Wright and John Burrell in the admor. aforesaid sufficient and Ordered that ad. Newman Swallow deliver the goods to same. 30th Aug. 1765

Doctor Gibb Vs. Thomas Lynch.

GRIMBALL OF EDISTO ISLAND

Paul Grimball (Thomas, 2, Paul, 1.) since he is named as executor in his fathers will, was probably born about 1700, and died between Jan. 29, 1749/50 and Jan. 25, 1750/51. He was a planter on Edisto Island, and died there. Paul Grimball married several times, certainly three, and we have the maiden name of only one of his wives, Mary Barnwell, daughter of Col. John Barnwell<sup>1</sup> who seems to have been his second wife. His last wife was Mary, daughter of Susannah Winborn, widow of Thomas Winborn, by a former marriage; after the death of Paul Grimball, this wife, Mary, married Capt. William Lawton for his third wife and after his death, she married again for her third husband, Samuel Fickling<sup>2</sup>

M. C. O. Book S. S. p. 136. 13 Aug. 1757. George Cuthbert of St. Helena and Mary his wife to Philip Box; undivided third of 500 acres granted 14 May 1706, to John Barnwell Esq. who by will 4 May 1724 to daughter Mary; said Mary intermarried with Paul Grimball of Edisto Island; issue 3 daughters, 1. Mary Md. to George Cuthbert. 2. Catherine, now wife of David Adams of Edisto. 3. Elizabeth, now, wife of Wm. Baynard of Edisto. On 16 Aug. 1757, Box reconveys to Geo: Cuthbert.

Paul Grimball and his first wife, name unknown, had issue:

- i. Ann Grimball, born 1728 or earlier, married June 20, 1744, John Paul Grimké; she died in 1747; had one child, Providence Grimké, born March 6, 1746, and died Oct. 1747 (St. Philip's Register).
11. ii. Paul Grimball, born about 1730, married Mary Ann Calder, daughter of John Calder and Sarah his wife;<sup>3</sup> he made his will Feb. 1, 1757, proved May 1, 1767; mentions wife Mary Ann Grimball, daughter Martha Grimball, nephew Thomas Baynard and nephew Wm Baynard Jr. Island known as Grimball's island to be sold, interest to be used for education of daughter, who is to inherit at 17 or marriage said daughter to have plantation where he lives when of age or married; if she die without issue, then brother John Grimball, and sister Ann Roberts.

Mary Ann Grimball widow of Paul, married for her 2d. husband, Ephriam Mikell<sup>4</sup> and Martha Grimball, their daughter married Joseph Jenkins, and died without issue.

Paul Grimball and his wife Mary, daughter of Col. John Barnwell had issue:

- iii. Mary Grimball, born 1738 or earlier, married Feb. 3, 1754 George Cuthbert (St. Helena's register).
- iv. Catherine Grimball, born 1737 or earlier; married Feb. 1, 1753, David Adams, widower. (Ibid.)
- v. Elizabeth Grimball, born 1737 or earlier, died 1773; married Feb. 1, 1753, William Baynard, bachelor. (St. Helena's reg.) he died 1773. They had issue; 1. Elizabeth Ann Baynard, who married Dr. John Hall, of Philadelphia, and had one son, Baynard Rush Hall 1798-1863. 2. Thomas Baynard 1763-1805; married July 6, 1784, Sarah Calder, and had issue. 3. William Baynard, 1772-1802; married first, April 6, 1791, Sarah Black, one son, William Grimball Baynard, who married first Ann Ninian Jenkins, and second Mary Swinton. William Baynard married second, Elizabeth Mikell, who married next, Mungo Macky; issue by Elizabeth Mikell, Elizabeth Grimball Baynard, who married Dr. Edward Mitchell and had issue; and Abigail Baynard, who married Edward Whaley, and had issue.

Paul Grimball and his third wife Mary ——— had issue:

- vi. Providence Grimball, unmarried when her father made his will, married to Ephraim Mikell by 1762; died without issue. (Receipt for her share of fathers estate.)
- 12. vii. John Grimball, born between the making of his fathers will 1746, and the codicil dated 1750.
- viii. Ann Grimball, born between 1746 and 1750; married Peter Robert Jur. They moved to Woodville Miss. about 1810; and she is said to have died in 1818; as wife of Peter Robert Jr. she receipts for a child's share of the estate of Paul Grimball, April 10, 1760; she left issue.
- ix. Thomas Grimball, born, about 1750, apparently after the death of his father; he died young.<sup>5</sup>

Paul Grimball made his will Nov. 24, 1746; Codicil dated 9 Jan. 1749; Will proved 25 Jan. 1750; Paul Grimball of Edisto Island, Colleton County. Wife Mary 1/4 of slaves and use of 500 acres on Edisto Island for life or widowhood; [Copy is badly mutilated, and parts not decipherable.] Son Paul Grimball Island called Linckley's Island, 842 acres, south west of Edisto; but if son Paul die under 21 without issue, then to the next son born of my said wife, and in want of such son, executors to sell and divide among daughters Mary, Catherine, Elizabeth and Providence and any other daughter or daughters which may be born when 21 or married.

Has already given to daughter Ann Grimké, wife of Mr. Paul Grimké of CharlesTown jeweller certain parts of personal estate as is equal for her; to said daughter Ann Grimké 500 acres on Edisto Island commonly called the P—— Pines adjoining the plantation where he now lives. Unto . . . . Susannah . . . and her heirs [bad break here] -undred acres Land . . . rest of estate to son Paul, and daughters Mary, Catherine, Elizabeth and Providence and any other child or children.

Brothers Joshua and Isaac Grimball, brother in law Robert Sams and friend John Jenkins to be executors. Elizabeth Pinckney William Pinckney, and Cs. Pinckney witnesses. Codicil states that a son John and a daughter Ann have been born since the making of the will, and makes provision for them. C. Pinckney Wm. Davis and Thos. Grimball witnesses. Joshua Grimball and John Jenkins qualified.

8.

Thomas Grimball (Thomas, 2. Paul, 1.) not of age when his father made his will in 1721, he inherited land from his father on Port Royall Island, and lived in St. Helena's parish; the name of his wife has not been found; he was living in March, 1779, when his son Thomas made his will; according to the will of his aunt, Providence Hutchinson, he had four children in 1756; the names of only two have been recovered; in one account of the family, a daughter of this Thomas is said to have been one of the wives of John Grimball, son of Isaac, and to have died without issue; this is some what supported by the will of John Grimball, who speaks of Thomas, son of the above Thomas, as his nephew in one place, and as his cousin in another.

Thomas Grimball and his wife (name unknown) had issue:

- i. Thomas Grimball, born 1745, died in Feb. 1783; he was an attorney at law; married June, 1765, Mary Magdalen Prioleau, second daughter of Samuel Prioleau, Esq; he was Major of the CharlesTown Battalion of Artillery; was captured at the surrender of Charles-Town and banished to St. Augustine. His will, dated 6 Mar. 1779,<sup>6</sup> Thomas Grimball Jr., mentions Honoured father, who is to have £ 100 a year for life, and wife Mary Magdalen Grimball. They had no issue.
13. ii. Joseph Grimball, died intestate before 23d. Oct. 1777, when John Grimball and "Mrs. Sison" administered. The records give very little information concerning him; according to a family account, he married Mary Elliott, and had several children; among them, a son Thomas, who married Ann Audubert, and moved to Mississippi about 1810; this Thomas Grimball is said to have been brought up by Col. John Grimball, son of Isaac. Joseph Grimball had also, daughters Esther and Sarah, for their grandfather Thomas Grimball gives to each of them a negro in 1763, describing them as his grand-daughters.

Other children of Thomas Grimball, of St. Helena's parish if any, unknown.

Joshua Grimball, (Thomas, 2. Paul, 1.) under age when his father made his will Nov. 2, 1757; proved 2d. Dec. 1757; married Mary, ———. He was a planter on Edisto Island; a member of the Baptist Church, and friend of Rev. Isaac Chandler; his will leaves sons William Maxwell and Joshua Grimball executors; to wife Mary Grimball in lieu of dower, the estate he received by marriage with her, consisting of 12 negroes, and certain named personal property for widowhood and no longer; use of house he lived in, or that he was then building, but if wife claims any dower rights then bequest to her is void. To daughter-in-law Ann Grimball, relict of his son Paul Grimball, £ 60 currency for life, to be paid by his three children and grandchild, vizt. Mary Grimball Joshua Grimball, Elizabeth Grimball, and Sarah Maxwell; son Joshua Grimball all Lands, 2320 acres more or less; rest of estate to his three children and grand child, when 18 or married; each of them to have until of age sufficient quantity of land to support their slaves.

Joshua Grimball had issue by his wife [or wives, for from the reading of his will, apparently Mary Grimball was not the mother of his children].

- i. Sarah Grimball, 1738–1757; married William Maxwell, had one child Sarah, who from a mutilated inscription on a tombstone an old Grimball burying ground on Edisto Island seems to have died young.
- ii. Paul Grimball; died intestate before Feb. 9 1757; married Ann Jenkins spinster 8 July, 1756; his widow married William Patureau, 23 Oct. 1760.
14. iii. Joshua Grimball born 1744 or earlier; married 1765 Hannah Rippon, widow.

- iv. Mary Grimball, born 1742 or earlier; married Benjamin Jenkins.<sup>7</sup>
- v. Elizabeth Grimball, married James Clark, before April 2, 1767, when she receipts for her share of her fathers estate as the wife of James Clark; James Clark and Elizabeth Grimball had issue: James Clark, who married 1788, Sarah Grimball, daughter of Charles; Martha Clark, who married 1790, Charles Isaac Grimball, brother of Sarah. Elizabeth Clark, and Sarah Clark.

10.

Isaac Grimball (Thomas 2, Paul 1.) under age in 1722 when his father made his will; died in 1752 leaving a will. He married first before June 4, 1734 Elizabeth Pemberton, daughter of Charles Pemberton, of Parish of St. Georges, Barbadoes, and Rebecca his wife. Rebecca Pemberton, widow, married about Sept. 1718; Henry Livingston, of St. Michael's parish, Barbadoes; the marriage settlement<sup>8</sup> mentions her children, Charles Sawyer Pemberton, Ann Pemberton, and Elizabeth Pemberton; in Jan. 1722/3 Henry Livingston and his family were in Charleston; he was the brother of the Rev. William Livingston, and married for his second wife Sept. 2, 1726, Ann Harris widow, born Alston (St. Phillip's reg.). He had two sons by his first marriage, Henry and William (Will of Ann Livingston, dated 16 May 1732.)

The will of Henry Livingston, of Colleton County dated 29 Jan. 1785, leaves his estate to his [grand?] nephew and [grand?] neice Charles Isaac Grimball and Sarah Grimball. Makes his two nephews Chas. Isaac Grimball and Isaac Jenkins Exors.

Isaac Grimball married for, his second wife, Rebecca (Sealey?) she died between January and April 10, 1767., leaving her son John Grimball and John Sealey Sr. executors of her will, which mentions her sister Mary Whippy, and Cousins Ann, John, Rebecca Whippy; Elizabeth Wilkins, Dorcas and Tabitha Sealey; Ann Askew, Thomas Askew; Isaac Grimball, son of Charles.

Isaac Grimball, in his will dated Feb. 4, 1753, proved Nov. 3, 1753, mentions wife Rebecca, daughter Elizabeth, daughter Providence son John son Charles, and an unborn child; makes wife, brother Thomas Grimball, and son Charles Grimball executors. Had land in CharlesTown, Edisto Island, and Euhaws.

Isaac Grimball and his first wife Elizabeth Pemberton had issue:

- i. Elizabeth Grimball, no further record of her; she is not mentioned in the will of her half uncle Henry Livingston, nor any issue by her.
- ii. Providence Grimball, married first, John Jenkins, had two children, Isaac Jenkins and John Jenkins<sup>9</sup> married second, Christopher Jenkins, no issue married third in 1775, Samuel Eaton; married fourth Abraham Bush, who died in 1788; she died intestate Samuel Fickling administered on her estate 28 March 1806.
15. iii. Charles Grimball, born 1735 or earlier, died 1770 married 1756, Ann Sealey.

Isaac Grimball and his second wife Rebecca Sealey had issue:

16. iv. John Grimball, born 12 Sept. 1748; died 10 Nov. 1804.
(Tombstone in Unitarian Church yard.)

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE CITY GAZETTE

Break in file from July first to October 5, 1795.

Died, the 3rd instant, Mr. James McGill Wright, hatter, late of Newery, Ireland, aged 25 years—a man much esteemed and greatly regretted by all who knew him. (Saturday, October 10, 1795.)

Died, on the 3rd instant, Mr. Morris Dean, hatter, late of Easton, in Pennsylvania, who was on his way to visit his parents residing in this state, about 30 miles from Augusta. (Monday, Oct. 5, 1795.)

Married, Mr. Daniel Symmes, of the county of Newberry, to Mrs. Ann Tourtellet, of the County of Pendleton. Tuesday, Oct. 6, 1795.

Died, on the evening of the 5th instant, on board the brig Russell, at Fort Johnson, capt. Charles Tallman, master of the said brig, lately arrived from Leogane.

Died, yesterday, after a short illness, capt. John Dickinson, master of the brig Nancy, of New-York, last from Wilmington. (Thursday, Oct. 8, 1795.)

Capt. Osborne, late master of the schooner Averick, Sellers, Died about six weeks ago at Aux-Cayes. (Friday, Oct. 9, 1795.)

Died, on Friday last, Mr. James Chapstick, after a short illness.

Died on Thursday evening, 3rd instant, Mr. Ebenezer Carter, printer, from Concord in New-Hampshire.

Died, at Norfolk in Virginia, on the 15th ult. Mr. J. Kenna, comedian.

Augusta, Sept. 26. Was Killed lately at his House in South-Carolina, Robert Thomas, Esq. one of the senators of this state in the last general assembly: he was shot dead by some person unknown—but it is generally supposed his death was occasioned by his voting for the Yazou bill, and receiving upwards of 4000 dollars for that vote. (Monday, Oct. 12, 1795.)

Died, on Sunday evening, major Timothy Olcott, late of the state of Vermont. (Tuesday, Oct. 13, 1795.)

Died, on Wednesday last, in Beaufort, the Rev. Matthew Tate. (Wednesday, Oct. 14, 1795.)

Died, yesterday morning, Mr. George Henry Schmidt, Merchant, from Dudley. (Thursday, Oct. 15, 1795.)

Married, on the 15th instant, John Logan, esq. adjutant of the Colleton county regiment, to Mrs. Catherine Postell, both of the Round O. (Friday, Oct. 16, 1795.)

Died, on Thursday last, in the prime of life, after a short illness, Mr. Edward Jaffray, of Glasgow, merchant.

Died, on Monday night last, at Mount Pleasant, near Dorchester, in the 41st year of his age, capt. Nathaniel Bradwell, late of the continental army. (Sat. Oct. 17, 1795.)

Died suddenly, and alone, on the 6th instant, in the town of Beaufort, the Rev. Matthew Tate, A.M. and pastor of the Episcopal Church in that place, in the 46th year of his age. Mr. Tate had been indisposed, but not confined, for a few days previous to this unexpected and truly affecting event. During this time when visited occasionally by his friends, he conversed with his usual cheerfulness, and refused the constant attention which was proposed and offered, and entirely unnecessary. The very day of his departure, he went down stairs about his concerns, and in the evening, sent his servant to prepare something for his nourishment; but upon her return, she found him lying upon his bed a corpse. This is the more surprising, as Mr. Tate's health had been scarcely ever interrupted by a day's confinement or endangered by an act of intemperance. He was regular and abstemious to an uncommon degree. But, improbable as so sudden a death was in his case, his prudence led him to make the most ample preparations for it. His affairs could not have been settled with more exactness and accuracy, had the manner of his dissolution been ever so probable, or even inevitable. In Mr. Tate, learning, the religious, and the poor, have lost a sincere friend. He shared, it is true, in the common lot of humanity, in having his foibles; but they were over-weighted by many good qualities. He was the author of many charities, which could be dictated by nothing but the purest and most disinterested benevolence.

Died, at St. Helena, on Sunday the 11th instant in the prime of life, Mrs. Harriet Bland, the amiable wife of Mr. Rich. Bland, and daughter of Mr. Charles Capes. (Monday, Oct. 19, 1795.)

Married, Thursday evening last, Mr. William Blair, to Mrs. Elizabeth Chadwick, both of this city.

Married on Saturday evening, Mr. William Lovely, merchant to Miss Margaret Cullin, both of this city.

Died, yesterday, James Ballentine, esq. coroner of Charleston district. (Tuesday, Oct. 20, 1795.)

Died, suddenly on the 17th instant at his place in St. Bartholomews parish Frederick Wetsell, esq. . . . (Wednesday, Oct. 21, 1795.)

Died, on Sunday last, Miss Ann Joanna Swallow, daughter of Mr. Newman Swallow; (Verses.) (Friday, Oct. 23, 1795.)

Died, at an advanced age, on Tuesday last, the 20th instant, at his residence in Prince Williams parish, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian fortitude, Thomas Heyward sen. an old and respectable inhabitant of this state. In him the widow and fatherless have ever found a friend, and the poor were never suffered to leave his door unassisted.

Died, at Port Royal, in the Island of Martinico on the 27th March last, Mr. Thomas I. Lyon, in the 18th year of his age, youngest son of John Lyon deceased, of this city.

Died, on Thursday last, after a short illness, Mr. Michael Carroll, a young gentleman much regretted by all who knew him. (Sat., Oct. 24, 1795.)

Died, on Saturday last, capt. Ebenezer Little Dearing, commander of the ship Polly, of Portland. (Tuesday, Oct. 27, 1795.)

Died, yesterday, after a lingering illness, Mr. John Cox.

Died, on Monday last, capt. William Robinson.

Died, on the 24th instant, in the 18th year of his age, Joseph Brown Edwards, late of Mecklenburg county, Virginia, at the house of his brother-in-law, Mr. Henry Bailey.

Died, in France, January last, Mr. Samuel Palmer, eldest son of Mr. Job Palmer, of this city. (Thursday, Oct. 29, 1795.)

Died, yesterday morning, William Fuller, esq. second son of Thomas Fuller, esq. of St. Andrew's parish. (Saturday, Oct. 31, 1795.)

Died, on Friday last, Mrs. Martha Baker, widow of the late Mr. William Baker.

Died, yesterday morning, after a lingering illness, Mr. Matthew Peppin. (Tuesday, Nov. 3, 1795.)

Married, on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Purcell, William Peters, esq. of PonPon, to the amiable Miss Mary Williman, daughter of Mr. Christopher Williman, of this city. (Saturday, Nov. 7, 1795.)

Died, a few days ago, at Jacksonborough, Mr. John Caskins, aged 50 years.

Died, on Tuesday, Mr. John Woodward from Connecticut. (Thursday, Nov. 12, 1795.)

Died yesterday, in this city, capt. James Tate junr. of Pendleton county, in this state. (Saturday, Nov. 14, 1795.)

Married, at NewPort, R. I. on Thursday the 5th inst. Mr. John Robinson, of this city, merchant, to Miss Abigail Robinson, of that place.

Died, suddenly, on Friday last, in the 72d year of her age, Mrs. Ann Burgess, of this city. (Wednesday, Nov. 18, 1795.)

Died, on Wednesday morning last, capt. John B. Cotterell, of the ship Hope. (Friday, Nov. 20, 1795.)

Court of Ordinary, 23d. May, 1766.

Upon a Business of Citation at Instance of Anna Neilson, widow and nearest of kin of — Neilson, deceased, to cite the kindred and creditors of the said Neilson, to show cause if any why administration of estate of said deceased should not be granted to the said Anna Neilson, and caveat entered against granting thereof to — Young, the husband of the mother of the deceased.

Mr. Rutledge as Proctor for the said Young moved that his wife being nearly related and himself principal creditor of the deceased, that he might be joined in the Letters of administration with said Anna Neilson, the widow.

Mr. Parsons in behalf of the Defendant observed and cited an Act of Parliament and several cases to show that the Ordinary had not a power of refusing the widow when there was no Child, the Stat. of Henry 8th not being of force in this province.

Thereupon ordered that Letters of administration be granted to the widow of the deceased, having first examined her securities on Oath.

Mr. Parsons as Proctor for James Whitter & Joanna his wife moved that administration be granted sd. James and Joanna Whitter on estate of John Newington of St. John's parish Colleton. Granted.

SWISS SETTLERS IN SOUTH CAROLINA

By R. W. KELSEY, of Haverford College, Pa.

The following translations are descriptive of the Swiss settlements in southern South Carolina, along the Savannah River. Purrysburg was settled through the efforts of John Peter Purry, of Neuchâtel, Switzerland. The actual settlement began apparently in 1732. The climate turned out to be poor, the settlers did not prosper, and they gradually scattered to more favored places in South Carolina or elsewhere.

The two following descriptions, so contradictory in their conclusions, illustrate in outstanding fashion the difficulty of valuing critically the accounts of uncritical writers. Such variety of opinion must have been equally baffling to prospective emigrants in Switzerland. Of the two characterizations, "an earthly paradise," and "a damned fraud," the more profane phrase seems more nearly to have gained the warrant of history.

The pastor referred to in the Gondy letter was the Reverend Joseph Bügnion, a Swiss minister, who received Episcopal ordination in England as he passed through that country on his way to South Carolina.

A detailed description of the Purrysburg settlement, by Judge Henry A. M. Smith, was printed in the South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine, 10 (Oct., 1909): 187-219.

The German manuscripts from which the translations were made are in classification, "Auswanderung A," in the Staatsarchiv at Basel, Switzerland. The Dyssli letter is a contemporary copy. The one by Gondy may also be a copy, although the archivists at Basel believe it is the original.

The present writer wishes to acknowledge the skilled help of his former teacher, Dr. Adolph Gerber, in preparing the following translations.

LETTER FROM ANTHONY GONDY, CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, TO HIS BROTHER IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF LAUSANNA, SWITZERLAND

"Schaletton [Charleston] May 28, 1733 S. C.

Dear brother:

I did not wish to fail to report to you upon our condition and life in Carolina. Because Rev. Pignaud has left for Purisburg, where he has been engaged as pastor, and made me the solemn promise to send my letter together with his own to England and to recommend strongly that it be duly forwarded to Switzerland, hence I wished to report by these lines that by the help of God we, some 170 persons, arrived here safely and in good health after having been out on the sea 11 weeks. People in Virginia showed us much and great kindness and received us with such hospitality that it is indescribable. Thence we went to Purisburg where we were treated in the same manner and entertained hospitably for fully 6 weeks and where cousin Marianne married a man worth 50 m. [thousand ?] dollars (Thaler), who was a widower and had an only child by his first wife. He made over to her all he owns and possesses. He is a Palatine, born at Speier, by the name of Thomas Baumgartner. We attended the wedding and had a very good time. The new cousin presented me with 8 horses for the journey.

Thence we came to Charlestown, where we were again entertained hospitably as at Purisburg. Then the Commissary took us to the Savannah, a large river abounding with fish, 8 leagues, Swiss leagues, from the sea, where we built our cabins; there we assigned 50 yokes [here probably = acres] of good land, women as well as men. The soil is exceedingly good, rich and fertile. Now nobody in this country works more than 2 m. [= months]. The remainder of the time he may go fishing or hunting. There are Indians living among us, the best people, except that we cannot talk to each other, but must communicate with each other by tokens and signs. They go half naked and have only a deer skin about their loins. For the rest they do nothing but fish and hunt, know of no other work nor like to do any other work. We have provided well for all our single women, who consisted of 13 persons. They have all been favorably married. In the old country they would not have had such good fortune. Our children have become as much acclimated to this country as if they had had been born here, because the air is so very healthful. Yet it is as hot all the year round as near Lausanne in August. Winter is unknown. When we have winter, there is occasionally a cold dew or rain, yet only by night. As soon as day comes it is warm again. There are also exceedingly fine large trees in the forests, oaks about 10 feet in diameter and more, and bearing very many acorns, so that the domesticated and wild hogs do not lack food in summer and winter. The cattle are allowed to go outdoors in summer and winter like the game. This country is quite an earthly paradise. There is plenty of all one desires.

Since the Swiss people came here, they make cheese and butter, which the people did not have before. They have also planted vines in various places which yield good wine, but they have not the presses and casks as in Europe. If, therefore, our neighbors of Morges, Nyon, St. Pré, Etoy, Aubronne, Rolle, wish to come over here, they should bring coopers with them, also whatever artisans they can get, who will become prosperous and wealthy people in this Canaan. We have immense forests from 8 to 10 days long and wide. They teem with game like ants. I and cousin Albert went hunting once with the Indians, to see how they shoot the game with their bows and arrows. It is a curious thing, but we almost missed our way home, so that we should have been obliged to pass the night with the wild beasts in the forest, if one of the Indians had not found the way by which we had entered. There are in the forests cypress trees of astonishing size, nuts, chestnuts, citrons, oranges, lemons, pomegranates, dates, jujubes, and a thousand kinds of other trees and fruit, herbs, roots. If one of our doctors of medicine could come to this country and had a knowledge of herbs, he might discover all sorts of delicious things there are herbs of quite delicious odor. We have all we want except wine, which is imported from England or Spain, so that it costs 4 shillings a quart. For the rest we feel as if we were living in a terrestrial paradise. There are a thousand kinds of birds of all sorts of colors, red, white; large and small parrots; also a kind, of which it is said none has yet been carried to Europe, which is green and like pure gold, mingled with gray, the name of which nobody knows. The Indians call them Pitivaor. They sing as beautifully as a musical instrument, wonderfully sweet, like small flutes.

My pen cannot possibly describe the loveliness and charm of this country, and who does not come himself to this country cannot possibly believe it. I could not have believed it either if I had not seen it myself for it has been with me as with the unbelieving Thomas. What I heard related about this country in Switzerland I just regarded as a fable, but everything is even much lovelier, better and more beautiful than it was described. The Europeans have about 300-400 chickens, geese, ducks, about 6-700 pigs, 200 cows, about 400 horses. In short, it is incredible; wherefore I ask all our friends and relatives who are not of great means that they may please join us here. They will thank me for it.

Nor is the voyage at all so dangerous as we were made to believe, yet it is well if many people come together. It is less expensive. It is also well if they bring artisans of all kinds with them who are getting along best of all. They are making as much as they please, particularly the blacksmiths, cart-wrights, carpenters, masons, potters, rope-makers, linen-workers who also know how to weave cloth, because there is very much cotton here, whole forests full of it. Also all poor females who are of scanty means should come along to America if they are virtuous and sensible. They will all get along nicely inasmuch as all can make their fortune, for here men do not care for the money as they do in Switzerland. Dear brother, I feel sure that these lines will appear to you as a veritable fable, but I should be ashamed of myself if I told in them a single word not based upon truth. I am looking for you and your entire family.

A thousand regards to you, your wife, dearest children and friends! I commend you all together to the protection of the Most High.

Antony Gondy."

LETTER FROM SAMUEL DYSSLI, CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, TO HIS MOTHER, BROTHERS AND FRIENDS IN SWITZERLAND

“Carlestatt [Charleston] in Carolina,
Dec. 3, 1737.

Praised be the Lord to the end of the heavens! In the name of Jesus my special childlike and kind regards in the first place to you, my dear mother, and to you, my dear brother Albrecht, as well as to the dear children and other brothers and sisters, friends, relatives and acquaintances! In haste I send you these few words from Carolina, through a good friend who has gone back to Switzerland. I am over here, thank God, hale and hearty, and doing at present quite nicely. I am working with an English master. He gives me every week two Bern kronen, say 50 shillings, and a plentiful board, food and drink in abundance, in addition. I have already been half a year with him. Apart from this, I was ill with fever in Purisburg about 3 months, and afterwards in Georgia at Savannah, the capital, I had the bloody flux [?] or dysentery for about six months. Also a great swelling befell me. My whole belly was swollen so that I might have burst. My doctor in these perilous times was our Lord God, for I did not take medicine from men, but trusted myself to divine care. My heart trembles when I think of the following, that once upon a farm, where many people were together and felling large trees, calling to each other when one was about to fall, when I was passing by there, a mighty large oak fell over me which ordinarily would have crushed me to atoms. But the hand of the Lord ordained that I come through between the branches and remained unhurt. Oh, how much the prayer of pious parents can accomplish! How sincerely I have always felt that on the part of my mother!

To report something of the quality of this country, I herewith wish to have everybody warned that he should not hanker to come into this country, for diseases here have too much sway, and people have died in masses, [now the children leaving their parents] then the parents leaving their children. Moreover, the children soon go [to work] the one here the other there, and are treated like slaves and brought up in ignorance like the savages. Nor are provisions given any more to the new comers, as used to be done. Moreover, everything is exceedingly dear, e.g. a pound of butter, 7½ shillings, a pound of cheese 5 shillings, white wine 5 shillings a quart, red wine 10 shillings, beer 3 shillings.* What is bought in Switzerland for a kreutzer is here a shilling. Besides the quart in this country is no larger than half a Bern "maass," the pound is also very small. In short everything is dreadfully dear. Cheapness has retired into the raw ox- or cattle-hide, an ox-hide, indeed without distinction the largest, is 20 shillings, just think, 20 shillings, and the pound of leather 2 shillings.

Carolina looks more like a negro country than like a country settled by white people. In Charleston and that neighborhood there are calculated to be always 20 blacks, who are called negroes, to one white man, but they are all slaves. The whites mix with the blacks and the blacks with the whites, and if a white man has a child by a black woman, nothing is done to him on account of it. Such swinishness is not punished in this country. There are brought large shiploads of these people from the African negro country. Thereupon they are put on the market and sold as a head of cattle is sold. It also occurs that the English marry, nay, mar themselves, by marrying black women, often also Indian women.

Regarding the savages: these savages are by no means terrible, ferocious brutes, as many may imagine. If one lets them alone, they will not do harm to anybody. They are kind natured, well built, strong people, but alas! they do not know anything at all of the true God. If, however, they are harmed by somebody, there is no reconciliation any more, but they try to avenge themselves in any possible way. They live like the birds of heaven, do not work, do not sow, but go hunting, pursue the deer very vigorously and the bears. There are also mighty, large buffaloes, wild ones, also tigers, wolves, wildcats twice as large as the domesticated, beavers, crocodiles. These are more than plenty, but they do no great damage. The rattle snake is a huge animal. There are some which are as thick as an ale-pot and thicker, yet they pursue no one, unless he steps on them unawares.

* So. Ca. currency was then about 1/7 the value of sterling.

My journey hither was quite safe, thank God. On the way through France we found kind people everywhere. In London I spent 2 weeks. Across the great sea we were especially favored, for we got across in 6 weeks. God gave us very welcome winds. Our captain said he had never had such a good passage in all his life. When we were a fortnight out on the sea, we came to the exceedingly beautiful island of Madeira. There we saw the first flying fish, many hundreds of them together. Two of them dropped on our vessel. Besides, we saw horribly large fishes near our vessel. They drew in large streams of water and spit them out again with a horrible rushing and snorting.

In the meantime I tell you once more: Let nobody hanker to come to this country! True, there have come to Switzerland people whom I know well, and they have had villainous letters with them, as if Carolina were such a good country, but it is a damned fraud. If one man is well off, about 1000 others are so much the worse off. As reported above, I am at present, thank God, so well off that it would be a sin if I desired anything better. But what of it? One swallow does not make a spring. I ought to answer Puri's mendacious booklet, paragraph by paragraph, but I have not time. All citizens be kindly warned, especially those who eventually would send sons abroad, that they beware of enlisting to work in their professions in this country, unless they desire to get into great slavery, as it has happened to many whom I know quite well.

If it please God, I hope to write to you more in detail from Philadelphia or Pennsylvania in half a year hence. I must close. May the God of all grace give his peace to all of you! Amen!

N.B. My regards to cousin Andreas Grimm! Have him also read this letter.

Samuel Dyssli."

GRIMBALL OF EDISTO ISLAND

John Grimball (Paul 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1), son of Paul Grimball (7) and his third wife Mary—, was born between Nov. 1746, and December 1747, for on December 2, 1768, he gives receipt to William Maxwell, executor of Joshua Grimball deceased, who was the surviving executor of Paul Grimball, for the personal property and titles of lands, left to him by his father.<sup>1</sup> James Wright and James Robert witnesses.

On December 14, 1768, as John Grimball of St. Lukes Parish, planter, he released to Thomas Searson, 194 acres, part of 1000 acres originally granted to Capt. Charles Odingsell, bounding west on Col. Daniel Heyward, South on John Grimball, East on the estate of John Sealy, and — on branch of Port Royal River.<sup>2</sup>

On 25 Nov. 1773, as John Grimball, son of Paul, he gives bond for £10000 to John Grimball, son of Isaac, to secure the latter from any obligation which might arise from the fact that John, son of Paul, had been buying and selling lands and negroes under the appellation of John Grimball, Junior, when it should have been Senior; signed John Grimball Sr., James Pelot, Samuel Pelot and John Swinton witnesses.<sup>3</sup>

On 26 July, 1778, as of St. Peter's Parish, with Elizabeth his wife, planter, he conveys to Abraham Ginerat (?) 400 acres in several tracts, on New River, Calf Pen Bay, sold to him by Elias Robert, John Audebert and Elias Robert witnesses.<sup>4</sup>

married Peter Robert Junr., brother to Elizabeth, and to the Elias Robert of the deed above.<sup>5</sup> John Grimball died before Feb. 6, 1795, for on that date Paul Grimball Junr., of Beaufort district conveyed to William Evans of Edisto Island, two tracts of land, in all 600 acres, conveyed to Paul Grimball Sr. of Edisto Island 10 Nov. 1750, by Richard Ash. The said 600 acres at the death of Paul Grimball Sr. fell to his son Paul, as heir at law; this second Paul died leaving an only child and daughter Martha, at whose death, without issue, the said lands reverted to Paul Grimball Junr., by right of his father John Grimball, who was eldest brother to the said Paul Grimball, son of Paul.<sup>6</sup>

According to a family record, Elizabeth Robert, widow of John Grimball, married after his death, Rev. Alexander Scott, moved to Woodville, Miss. in 1810, and died in 1818 at Bayou Boeuf, La. A son by her second marriage was a Governor of Miss.

John Grimball and his wife Elizabeth had issue:

- i. Paul Grimball Junr. of St. Peters Parish, Beaufort Dist. born 11 Oct. 1773; died 23 April, 1841, in Rapides parish, La. Married Esther Jaudon, born in S. C. 12 July 1777, died in Rapides parish, La., 22 Oct. 1822. They are said to have had five daughters; Mary, who married John Calihan; Sarah Robert, born in S. C. Oct. 4, 1805, married in Louisiana, Dr. J. D. Wright; Ann, who married Mr. Foland?; Jane, a Mr. Pomfrey, and Amanda, a Mr. Crawford.
- ii. John Grimball, have no data concerning him beyond a family chart which states that he moved away about 1806, with 60 people, all of the family connection; he is also stated to have married a first cousin, Mary (or Ann) Robert, daughter of Peter Robert and Ann Grimball, and have had three daughters, Sarah, Esther and Elizabeth, and one Son, Paul Jabez Grimball, who married and left issue.
- iii. Providence Grimball, who married a Mr. McNeely.

13.

Joseph Grimbball (Thomas 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1.) born 1746 or later, died intestate before 23 Oct. 1777, when John Grimbball, [son of Isaac] and "Mrs. Sison" administered; estate valued at 6000 Pounds, Samuel Porcher, Paul Porcher, and John Booker appraisors. He is said to have married Mary Elliott; little appears about him on the records; it is stated that he had several daughters, most of them dying unmarried, and one son, Thomas Grimbball, who was brought up by his cousin and uncle-in-law, John Grimbball (son of Isaac) and to have married Ann Audibert in S. C. and to have moved with his family to Miss. about 1810, and died there; the issue of Thomas Grimbball and Ann Audibert were: 1. John A. Grimbball, married Eugenia Bracy, had one daughter, Laura, who married T. J. Lenoir. 2. Thomas, born in 1800; died unmarried. 3. Leroy, unmarried. 4. Caroline, married Dr. Theophilus Hawkins. 5. Eliza A., who married Dr. David McRae and had issue. 6. Daughter —.

14.

Joshua Grimbball (Joshua 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1.) born 1744 or earlier, lived on Edisto Island; married 29 Oct. 1765, Hannah Rippon, widow (St. Philip's Register). He gave William Maxwell, executor of his father Joshua Grimbball, a receipt for his one fourth, or child's share of the estate on 8 Nov. 1766,<sup>7</sup> and died intestate before March 8, 1768, when Hannah Grimbball and Benjamin Jenkins advertised his estate.<sup>8</sup>

His widow, Hannah Grimbball of Edisto Island also died intestate before Feb. 11, 1771, when Benjamin Jenkins administered upon her estate;<sup>9</sup> her maiden name has not been found.

Joshua Grimbball and Hannah his wife had issue:

17. i. Paul Grimbball, born on Edisto Island, Oct. 1766; died 1836; married June, 1787, Sarah Chaplin, 1766-1822, of St. Helena.

15.

Charles Grimball (Isaac 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1.), merchant of CharlesTown, born 1735 or earlier, died June 1st 1770; married Sept. 9, 1756, Anne, daughter of William and Sarah Sealy; she was born at Euhaw, Indian Land, Jan: 4, 1740. After the death of Charles Grimball she married April 4, 1774, Rev. Oliver Hart, pastor of the Baptist church in CharlesTown.<sup>10</sup>

Charles Grimball made his will 29 May, 1770; leaves each of his children (not named) £20, and leaves the remainder of his estate to his wife Anne, who is sole executrix.

Charles Grimball and Anne his wife had issue:

- i. Charles Isaac Grimball, of Edisto Island, born about 1761, died — 1793, married May, 1790, Martha daughter of James Clark; they had no issue; his will mentions his wife Martha, mother Anne Hart, sister Sarah Clark, formerly Sarah Grimball. Brother-in-law, James Clark, and wife Martha to be exors.; dated June 3, 1791; proved Feb. 4, 1794.
- ii. Sarah Grimball, born about 1767, married 1788, James Clark, son of James Clark and Elizabeth Grimball, and brother to Martha Clark, who married Chas. Isaac Grimball.

16.

John Grimball (Isaac 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1.), son of Isaac Grimball and his second wife Rebecca Sealy, was born according to the family account, 12 Sept. 1748; his tombstone, in the Unitarian (formerly Congregational) Church Yard, states that he died Nov. 8, 1804, aged 53 years, which brings his birth date in the year 1751; this John Grimball had lands in St. Luke's Parish, Fairfield plantation, and owned a house on South Bay in Charleston; according to his family, he was married at least six times, one wife being his cousin, a daughter of Thomas Grimball (no. 8), and sister to Major Thomas Grimball, Jr. and to Joseph Grimball (no. 13), this is supported by the will of John Grimball, who calls Thomas Grimball, son of Joseph, his nephew. In June 1784, John Grimball of Edisto Island, married Mrs. Ann Adams, widow of Mr.

John Adams.<sup>11</sup> The family account states that he married two Miss Berkley's; certainly he married some time in April, 1797, Elizabeth Berkley, daughter of Mr. John Berkley, of Wilton, planter; John Grimball being then described as of Beaufort District, planter, the marriage settlement was dated 21 April, 1797, Paul Hamilton of St. Bartholomew's Parish, and Morton Waring of Charleston being the trustees; the date of marriage is given in the Circular (Congregational) Church register, as April 2, 1797.

John Grimball's will, dated 17 December, 1801, proved 16 April, 1806, describes him as being of St. Luke's Parish Beaufort District, planter. He divides his plantation, Fairfield, from the north edge of the canal which joins near the house of Thomas Drayton Esq. on his Ocean plantation . . . to the west line of Jacob Guerard on Bee's Creek, with the use to the Old Settlement, to his wife Eliza for life or widowhood, then to his daughter Eliza Grimball; if his daughter died unmarried, then to his son John Berkley Grimball, and in case said son died unmarried under 21, then to his nephew Isaac Grimball Jenkins, son of Isaac G. Jenkins, of Edisto Island.

To son John Berkley Grimball, the tract of Fairfield plantation called the New Settlement, if he died under 21, unmarried, then to daughter Eliza Grimball, if said daughter die under 21, and unmarried then to nephew Thomas Grimball.

Wife to have use of three negroes, horses and furniture in house in Charleston, use of said house, and the house on Sullivans Island for widowhood, then to his two children, Eliza and John Berkley Grimball.

To son John Berkley Grimball, house and lot on South Bay, and if he die under 21, then daughter Eliza, and if she die under age and unmarried, then to nephew Isaac Grimball Jenkins, son of Isaac G. Jenkins, of Edisto Island. All negroes and other personal property to his son and daughter, and if they died under age and without issue, then to nephew Thomas Grimball, son of Joseph Grimball, 20 negroes, and the plantation left to son John B. Grimball. Remainder to nephews Robert and William Jenkins, sons of John Jenkins of Edisto Island, and to nephew Isaac G. Jenkins, and nieces Eliza and Providence Jenkins, children of Isaac Grimball Jenkins of Edisto Island.

To Cousin Thomas Grimball, watch, sword, and double barrelled gun.

Wife, executrix for widowhood, and friends John Potter, Morton Waring, William Smith, (son of Josiah) and Thomas Grimball to be executors. Proved before Charles Jones Jenkins, Esq. Eliza Grimball qualified, 25 April, 1806.

Eliza Grimball, widow of John, married Rev. Alexander Flinn, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Charleston, and died before August 5th, 1844, when her will was proved; buried in a vault in the Circular Church Yard.

John Grimball and Eliza Berkley had issue:

- i. Eliza Berkley Grimball, born about 1798, died 1863; married May 1824 (Marriage Settlement) Martin L. Wilkins, and had issue.
- ii. John Berkley Grimball, born 23 June, 1800, died Mar. 7, 1893, buried at Magnolia, married 10 Mar. 1830, Margaret Ann Morris (called Meta) daughter of Col. Lewis Morris, and Elizabeth Manigault of Morrisania, New York and Wilton, St. Paul's Parish, S. C. She died in 1863, buried in Magnolia. He was at one period President of the Charleston Library Society.

They had issue:

1. Elizabeth Berkley, married William Munroe, no issue. 2. Berkley, died unmarried. 3. Lewis M. married Miss Legg, two sons who left no issue. 4. William H. died unmarried. 5. John Grimball, born in Charleston, S. C. April 18, 1840, died there Dec. 25, 1922; was a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis; distinguished officer in the Confederate Navy.<sup>12</sup> He married first, 1875, Miss Catherine Moore of Ala. who died the same year; he married second, in 1886, Mary Georgiana Barnwell, (had four sons, i. Wm. Heyward, who married Panchita Heyward and has issue. ii. Arthur umd. iii. John Berkley, und iv George Elliott, who

Paul Grimball (Joshua 4. Joshua 3. Thomas 2. Paul 1.), born 1766, died 1832, married June 1787, Sarah Chaplin of St. Helena (1766-1832); his uncle in law, James Clark was appointed his guardian in October, 1781; on 14 Oct. 1789, as Paul Grimball of Edisto Island, with Sarah his wife, he conveyed to Ralph Bailey of same place the plantation called Point of Pines, 1262 acres, bounding North on North Edisto River, East on Josiah Mikell and Paul Hamilton, South on William Mikell, West on Thomas Whaley, Joseph Fickling and James Clark.<sup>13</sup> This plantation was part of a grant of 1500 to the first Paul Grimball, who seems to have left it to his wife for life, and then to his son Thomas; Thomas Grimball seems to have divided it between his son Paul (1000 acres) and his son Joshua (500 acres). Paul apparently gave 500 acres of his tract to his daughter Ann, and his son-in-law, John Paul Grimke; and Grimke sold this 500 acres to Joshua Grimball, June 20, 1749<sup>14</sup> the bounds then being N.E. on Joshua Grimball, S.E. on Paul Grimball, west on — Sams; the titles of all of this land have not been followed.

Paul Grimball and Sarah Chaplin had issue:

- i. Paul Chaplin Grimball born at St. Helena's March 17, 1788; died Oct. 3, 1864; married 1814, Eliza (Jenkins) Hanscome, widow, eldest daughter of Benjamin Jenkins.<sup>15</sup> She was born 8 Aug. 1786, and died 19 Dec. 1850, buried in St. John's Churchyard, John's Island; Paul Grimball is buried in Sumter District. They had issue: 1. Eliza Ann 1815-1836. 2. Benjamin Jenkins, 1820-1838. 3. Isaac Paul, 1822-1898, married 1845 Eliza Jenkins, (1836-1901) they had six children, some of whom have left issue. 4. Thomas Hanscome, 1824-1864, married 1857, Sarah Patterson Bailey, who died 1914; his will is on file in Barnwell; he left issue living, one son Henry Bailey Grimball who married and has issue. 5. Pauline, 1830-1888, married Robt. C. McFadden and left issue.

- ii. William Grimball, died young.
- iii. Isaac, married Ann Croskeys, lived and died in Waterboro; left no male issue.

For the names of the later generations we have been dependent upon family information, and for lack of space are unable to bring the various lines down to date. The Compiler does not claim that the genealogy is complete, but hopes that it will be of assistance to any one interested.

<sup>2</sup> The imperfection of the Julian computation of the annual calender, occasioned the Gregorian calendar to be adopted in many parts of Europe. In England it was not adopted till the year 1752, when the error required the intercalation of eleven days. Accordingly, by an Act of Parliament of that year, the 3rd of September was made the 15th; and the year which was heretofore reckoned as commencing in March, was ordered to commence the first day of January. Married on Saturday evening last, Mr. John Monk to Miss Rebecca Blandford Inglesby, daughter of Mr. William Inglesby.

Died, at his plantation, in St. James, Goose-creek parish, on Tuesday the 2d. instant, capt. Richard Gough, who served his country with fidelity and honour as a soldier in our glorious revolution under the command of the late brigadier general Marion. He has left an aged and disconsolate mother, with many friends, to bewail his loss. (Thursday, Feb: 11, 1796.)

Married, last evening by the right reverend Dr. Robert Smith, Edward Darrell, jun. esq. attorney at law, to Miss Sarah White, daughter of Sims White, esq. (Wednesday, Feb: 17, 1796.)

Died, on Sunday the 7th instant, in child-bed, at Greenville, Cheraw district, Mrs. Catherine Botsford, in the 34th year of her age, the wife of the rev. Edmund Botsford, of that place. (Thursday, Feb: 19, 1796.)

Married, last Thursday evening, James M'Call Ward, esq. attorney at law, to Miss Harriott Swinton, daughter of Hugh Swinton, esq. (Sat. Feb. 20, 1796.)

Married, on Sunday evening last, by the rev. Mr. Frost, Mr. Bayfield Waller, to Miss Charlotte Whilden, both of this city.

Died, in Christ church parish, on the 21st instant, in the morning, being the third day after her illness, Mrs. Ann Legare, relict of Isaac Legare, esq. at an advanced age. Having lived in the profession of the Christian faith, she died stedfast in the same, in strong hope of obtaining through that a better life.

Died, yesterday morning, in the 62d year of his age, Mr. John Waring, of this city. Displaying through his long life all the qualifications which are estimable in the relative situations of father, husband, friend, he was deservedly valued as a Member of Society. . . . (Tuesday, Feb: 23, 1796.)

Married, on Thursday last, Mr. William B. Fields, to Miss Ann M. Black, both of this city. (Thursday, Feb: 25, 1796.)

Died, yesterday morning, Mrs. Mary Baker, aged 63 years widow of Mr. Richard Baker. (Saturday, March 5, 1796.)

Died, on Monday, the 15th ultimo, ay his seat in Abbeville county, the hon. Patrick Calhoun, esq. in the 69th year of his age. He had served as a member of the legislature in this state for many years. Was the first person who ever acted in that capacity, from that part of the state in which he resided; and was a member of the senate at its last session. During the past summer he was attacked with a lingering fever, which much enfeebled his constitution. On his return from Columbia, he was seized with a bleeding at the nose, which exhausted him gradually till his life came to a close. He was a friend to virtue and piety; and a foe to vice in every form. The fidelity and patriotism which he exhibited as a public character, are too well known and acknowledged, by most of his numerous acquaintance, to need any encomium or eulogium.

Died, on the 28th of February last, in New Port, Rhode Island, Capt. Joseph Brown; he was a master of a vessel out of this port for a number of years past. (Monday, March 7, 1796.)

Married, by the Rev. Wm. Hammet, on Saturday evening last, Mr. William Lane, to Miss Elizabeth Stephenson, both of this city, and on Tuesday evening, Mr. Samuel Pilsbury, searcher of the custom-house office, to Miss Mehitable Emmerson Stevens, both of this city. (Thursday, March 10, 1796.)

Married, last evening, Mr. Francis Coram, to the amiable Miss Charlotte Mortimer, both of this city. (Friday, March 11, 1796.)

Married, on Tuesday evening last, at St. James, Hampstead, by the rev. doctor Buist, Mr. James Scot, of this city, to Mrs. Porcher, of Santee.

Married, on Wednesday evening last, by the Rev. Bishop Smith Doctor Alexander Garden, to Miss Harriet Hockley Hewie. (Saturday, March 12, 1796.)

Died, on the 9th instant, at his plantation near Beaufort, capt. John Joyner, in the 77th year of his age. He removed to this state from Frederica, in Georgia, about the year 1750. He was appointed in 1754, to command one of the scout boats employed in the then government service, in which he continued discharging his duty with vigilance, until it was deemed unnecessary to keep those boats any longer in service; from that time he became an industrious planter, until the American revolution began, in which he took a very early and active part in supporting the rights of America. Although he had several sons and a daughter, who were married, he has left no descendent but one grand son by Mrs. Smith, who was the last of his children. He was an affectionate husband and father, a kind friend, and a humane master; he has left a widow and many friends regretting his death. (Monday, March 14, 1796.)

Married, last evening by the rev. Mr. Jenkins, William M'Cord, esq. of the Wateree, to Miss Catherine Muldrop, youngest daughter of the late Christian Muldrop, esq. his Danish majesty's consul for Scotland. (Friday, March 18, 1796.)

ORIGINAL RULES AND MEMBERS OF THE CHARLES- TOWN LIBRARY SOCIETY

The Charleston Library Society owes its origin to a number of young gentlemen who, in 1748, met and formed an association for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase pamphlets and magazines which were published in Great Britain. They remitted to England ten pounds sterling, as a fund to purchase such pamphlets as had recently appeared, acting at first under verbal agreement, and without a name. Before the close of the year their views became more extensive, and on the 28th December they were organized under the name of a Library Society, and arrangements were made for the acquisition of books as well as of pamphlets<sup>1</sup>.

Officers were elected on the 1st of April, 1749, and some members were added that year; the association seems to have immediately filled a need in the Province, and by April, 1750, the Library Society was well organized, with rules, officers, and a respectable list of members, as is shown below.

The names of the first members of the Charles-Town Library Society have been preserved in two publications; Shecut's Medical and Philosophical Essays, printed in 1819, and in the Oration delivered by J. L. Petigru upon the first centennial of the founding of the Society, June 13, 1848. The names, as given by Shecut, are as follows: Alexander McCauley, Patrick MacKie, William Logan, James Grindlay, Morton Brailsford, Robert Brisbane, Paul Douxsaint, Alexander Baron, John Sinclair, John Cooper, Peter Timothy, Wm. Burrows, Chas. Stevenson, John Neufville, Jr.,

Thomas Sacheverell, Samuel Brailsford, Thos. Middleton. To these, Mr. Petigru adds Joseph Wragg Jr. and Samuel Wragg Jr.; the authority for these two lists seems to be now missing; the original records of the Society having passed through fires, storms and wars.

The rules and list of members appear in the South Carolina Gazette, April 26, 1750, as follows:

Mr. Timothy,

It having been agreed, at the last general meeting of the CHARLES-TOWN LIBRARY SOCIETY, that their RULES should be printed; I have by order of the President, herewith inclosed you a copy, which, with the names of the members, you are desired to insert in your next Gazette. April 21st, 1750.

John Remington, Secr. to the Society.

Rules of the Society for erecting a LIBRARY, and raising a FUND for an ACADEMY at CHARLES-TOWN SOUTH CAROLINA; begun the 28th of December, 1748.

ARTICLE I

The society shall be called by the name of the CHARLESTOWN LIBRARY SOCIETY.

II. The members of the society shall have four general meetings in the year, to wit, the friday after the third wednesday in March, the second wednesday in July, the friday after the third wednesday in October, and the second wednesday in January, which last shall also be the annual meeting. The secretary shall give timely notice, by an advertisement in the Gazette, of the hour and place of such a meeting. Any Member residing in Charles-Town, who shall not attend at a general meeting, shall for every such failure forfeit ten shillings currency.

III. At the annual meeting on the second wednesday in January, the members met, shall, by majority of votes, elect the officers of the Society for the ensuing year, viz. a President, Vice President, Treasurer, Librarian, Correspondent, Secretary and Steward. If any officer shall die or depart the province, the members present at the next general meeting, shall, by majority of votes, elect one in his stead, for the remaining part of the year.

IV. Any member duly elected an officer, refusing to act, shall forfeit the sum of five pounds currency, and another shall be immediately chosen in his room. But no person shall be obliged to serve in any office above once in seven years; and country members shall not be subject to the fine above mentioned, if they refuse to act in the office to which they shall be elected.

V. At every general meeting, a committee of twelve members shall be appointed by the president, or other officer who shall preside in his absence, (seven thereof to be a quorum) who shall meet the first wednesday in every month, or oftener if the business of the society requires it, to draw lists of books, and to prepare business to be laid before the society at their next general meeting, for their consideration.

Any member appointed to serve on a committee, refusing or neglecting to give due attendance at such committee, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding three pounds, to be adjudged of by a majority of the members present at the next general meeting.

VI. When any person applies to be admitted a member of the society, his name shall be given in to the secretary, who shall give three days notice, by fixing an advertisement on the exchange, desiring the attendance of the society. And the members met in pursuance of such notice shall have power to admit or reject such candidate; which admission or rejection shall be by ballot.

VII. The Society shall have a common seal, composed of such devices and motto, as shall be appointed by the president and the committee, at any time before the general meeting which will be on the second wednesday in July 1750.

VIII. Every member who hath already been, or hereafter shall be admitted into the said society, shall have a certificate of such his admission, under the hand of the president for the time being, and the common seal of the Society, and countersigned by the secretary for the time being, in the following form,

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

THESE are to certify, that.....of.....
was admitted a Member of the CHARLES-TOWN LIBRARY SOCIETY, at.....held the.....Day of.....Anno Domini.....And is intitled to all the Rights of a Member of the said Society.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Society, the Day and Year above-written.

Treasurer

President.

IX. That for raising a fund for purchasing books, pamphlets and papers, and a fund for the uses after mentioned, every member shall pay into the hands of the treasurer for the time being, at the rate of five shillings currency per week, from the commencement of the society; and the arrears of the weekly contributions, shall be paid by every member into the hands of the treasurer, at every general meeting.

X. If any member shall neglect to pay his weekly quota, and all fines or forfeitures he may have incurred, at the general meeting, or within sixty days then the next after, he shall from thence forward be utterly debarr'd and excluded from being a member of the society, and of any right or privilege in the books and other things belonging to the same. Members not in the province, for the time they shall be so absent, are hereby excepted; provided every such member discharge the arrears of his weekly contribution for the space of two years, such defaulter shall be for ever excluded and debarr'd of any interest in the society's stock, or any rights to any of the books, other things or privileges belonging thereto.

XI. After this society has laid out 1600 l. Sterling on books, only 100 l. Sterling of the money arising from fines, forfeitures and from weekly contributions, and from the donations which may be made to us, shall annually be applied towards purchasing books; and the remainder, after the expences attending the library are paid, shall annually be let out at interest on good personal security that funds may be raised, which will be disposed of in the following manner.

When this society has at interest as much money as will purchase instruments for a course of experimental philosophy, to the value of 8 or 900 l. Sterling, and likewise a fund, which, at interest, will annually produce 300 l. Sterling, and the 8 or 900 l. Sterling shall be immediately applied towards the purchase of those instruments; and the fund producing at interest 300 l. Sterling per annum to a professor of Mathematicks and of natural and experimental philosophy, and to his successors for ever.

And the residue of the money afterwards arising from the fines forfeitures and weekly contributions, and from donations (if any be made to us) after the 100 l. Sterling for books and the charges attending the library are deducted, shall annually be let out at interest and continued at interest until a fund is raised, which, at interest, will annually produce a salary of 300 l Sterling to a professor of.....and likewise 200 l Sterling which shall forever be applied towards the purchasing of books; and the 300 l Sterling salary shall be immediately and forever afterwards applied towards the use of the professor of..... and his successors.

XII. Two hundred or more copies, as occasion shall require, of every parcel of books sent over to the society, shall be printed in London, and distributed here among the members, who may send to the librarian for any of the books they chuse to read, by a written order or receipt to be given for the same, which shall be returned to the Librarian within forty-eight hours if pamphlets or papers, within six days, if a duodecimo or octavo, eight days if a quarto, and within twelve days if a folio, allowing to every country member, a further time, at the rate of a day for every six miles between Charles-Town and the place of his residence; under the penalty of five shillings current money for every twelve hours longer detention of each pamphlet, every three papers and each book, unless the book, paper or pamphlet be really lost, in which case the person shall only pay to such time he certifies the loss to the librarian.

XIII. If any member lose, lend or damage any paper, pamphlet, or book, he shall forfeit double the Sterling cost thereof, according to the then cost of exchange.

XIV. All books belonging to the society shall be lettered as usual, and upon the out side of the cover next to the title page, shall be impressed the words, CHARLES-TOWN LIBRARY SOCIETY.

XV. Any member of this society shall have liberty to dispose of his share and interest in the society's stock to any person not a member, with the approbation of the majority of the society at a general meeting. But no member shall dispose of his share of the books or effects of the society to any other member; and if any member, as executor or administrator of another, or by any other means, shall have a plurality of shares, he shall not have any greater privilege in voting, or taking our books, than any other member who hath but one share.

XVI. The heir or devisee of any member dying, being a minor, shall not be chargeable with weekly contributions, 'till such heir or devisee attains an age capable of making use of the society's books. And such minor, at the age of sixteen years, upon the executor, trustee or guardian becoming surety for the returning of the books such heir or devisee shall borrow, free from damage, according to the true intent and meaning of the foregoing rules, and paying the weekly contributions after such devisee attain such age, shall have the right of borrowing the society's books as any other member.

XVII. A book shall be provided, in which the secretary shall enter all rules and orders, which now or hereafter may be agreed upon, for the regulation of the society, the names, time of admission, deaths of the members, forfeitures, the election of the officers, and all other proceedings of the society. And one other bound book shall be provided, in which shall be entered a catalogue of all books imported for the society, with the price or cost of each book, which shall be lodged in the custody of the librarian.

XVIII. The treasurer for the time being, shall out of the society's stock, provide books, in which, he is to regularly enter all of money paid and received by him, with the names of the persons paying or receiving them. He shall also provide a strong box with a lock and key in which all rules and orders of the society, and all money in hand shall lodged, and delivered to the succeeding treasurer, on his becoming bound to the president and vice-president, for double the value of the society's stock then to be put into his hands, and to render to the society a just and true account of the same, and all subscriptions, fines and other things (fire and inevitable accidents only excepted) and to deliver the same to the obligees, the order of the society, or the next treasurer, when there-unto required by the majority of the members present at a general meeting.

XIX. At the monthly meeting next after every general meeting, the accounts of the treasurer shall be audited by the committee, who are to make report thereof to the society at their next general meeting.

XX. At the annual meeting shall be provided, at the discretion of the steward, a sufficient dinner, for the defraying of which, every member shall pay into the hands of the steward forty shillings currency the week preceeding.

XXI. No member, upon any pretence, shall presume to introduce any person into the society, before he has been proposed and approved of as a member.

XXII. At all meetings of the society, the rules shall be read immediately upon the presiding officer's taking the chair, to whom any member about to speak upon business shall address himself, and in case of debate, the president shall sum up the argument and propose them to the vote of the members present.

XXIII. If at any time any doubt shall arise concerning the meaning of any of these rules, the same shall be explain'd or determined by the majority of the members present at the next general meeting.

NOTE

An explanation of the way in which this register was saved during the Confederate War, may be of interest. Capt. Edward Barnwell for many years warden of St. Helena's Parish had it in his possession when he died in 1860. When Beaufort was evacuated in November 1861, his widow, Mrs. Sarah Caroline Barnwell (born Richardson) took it with her, preserved it during the war, and after it was over sent it to Mr. Robert Barnwell Rhett, Editor of the Charleston "Mercury," at his request, to allow him to obtain certain information about his family. He kept it until he removed to Huntsville, Ala., and left it with the Charleston Library Society. Some years afterwards, at the request of the Vestry, it was returned to them.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE CITY GAZETTE

Married on Tuesday evening last by the rev. Mr. Jenkins, Elias Lynch Horry, esq. to the amiable Miss Jennings, daughter of Daniel Jennings esq. deceased, late of this city merchant. (Friday, Oct. 28, 1796.)

Died, On Thursday morning last, in the 35th year of his age, after a severe indisposition of fifteen days continuance, Mr. Adam Ewing, of this city, merchant. During a residence of near sixteen years, such was his cheerful disposition, affable demeanor, benevolence, and integrity in his dealings, as to gain him many friends in this city, who now sincerely lament his early death. He has left behind him to mourn his loss, six small children, who about two years ago had the unhappiness to be deprived of their mother. His remains were conveyed, on the evening of the day he died, to the Presbyterian church, attended by a large concourse of citizens, who were conscious of the virtues which endeared him to society. A discourse well adapted to the occasion, was delivered by the rev. doctor Buist, the pastor of that congregation. (Saturday, Oct. 29, 1796.)

Married on Thursday evening last, in St. James's parish by the rev. Mr. Pugson, Bazil Lanneau, esq. to Miss Anne Vinyard, daughter of Mr. John Vinyard deceased. (Wednesday, Nov. 2, 1796.)

Married on Saturday evening last, by the rev. Thomas Mills, Alexander Petrie, esq. to Miss Mary Evans, daughter of the late George Evans, esq. of St. George's parish, Dorchester. (Friday, Nov. 4, 1795.)

Married, on Thursday evening last, by the rev. Doctor Keith, James Mathewes, esq. to Miss Frances Doughty, daughter of Thomas Doughty, esq.

Died, yesterday morning, after a lingering illness, which he bore with great patience and resignation, Mr. Thomas Montgomery, of this city, merchant, aged 40. His remains, attended by a number of his friends and acquaintances, was recently interred in the Presbyterian burying ground of this city. (Saturday, Nov. 5, 1796.)

Married, on Thursday evening by the rev. George Buist, Mr. Thomas Malcon, to Miss Elizabeth Cooper. (Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1796.)

Died, on the 25th ultimo at his plantation in Laurens County, district of Ninety-Six, Patrick Cunningham, esq; aged 53 years; his death is truly lamented by a large circle of acquaintance in the county in which he resided. He has left a widow and several children who sensible feel the loss of a beloved and tender parent. (Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1796.)

Married, on Thursday evening, by the rev. Dr. Isaac Keith, capt. Samuel Hayward, commander of the ship Gadsden, to Miss Mary Legare, daughter of Daniel Legare jun, esq. deceased, of this city (Saturday, Nov. 12, 1796).

Died, lately in Pennsylvania, at the seat of John Penn, esq. on Schuyskill, near Philadelphia, near Phylidelphia, James Heyward, Esq. of this city. Mr. Heyward served reputably as a volunteer in the American Army at the siege of Charleston, in our late Revolutionary war; and afterwards held a commission of captain lieutenant in the city corps of artillery. It may be truly said of him, that he was a warm friend, an affectionate relation, a worthy citizen, a brave and benevolent man.

Clasp'd in the cold embrace of death;
Snatch'd from bright scenes without alloy,
Domestic comfort, social joy—
Good, pleasure, ease, that charm our race
Gay fortune's plum and smiling face,
In the full hour of manhood's bloom,
Lo! Heyward sleeps in yonder tomb!
The sprightly note, convivial bowl—
The feast of friendship, flow of soul,
Or joy more gently sweet and gay,
Stirs not his cold unconscious clay.
Deaf to affection's tender tone
The sigh of grief, the sorrowing moan;
Torpid and deaf the insensate ear
Hears not her voice it loved to hear.

[Thirty more lines of a like nature.] (Monday, Nov. 14, 1796)

Married, on Tuesday evening last, by the rev. Mr. Jenkins

Married, on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Dr. Buist, Mr. Archibald Duncan, to the amiable Miss Peggy Spiers, eldest daughter of Mr. James Spiers, of this city.

Died, at the Sweet Springs, in Virginia, on the 2d ultimo,

Col. William Thompson, of Belleville, in this state, in the 67th year of his age. In his death a disconsolate widow has to lament the loss of an affectionate husband, children the loss of a fond parent and the citizens at large the loss of a patriot who early stepped forth in the defence of their liberty. By all who knew him he will be ever held in grateful remembrance.

"Behold another chief laid low! Withdrawn by the all conquering hand of time, he hath departed for those blessed regions where nought but happiness exists. . . .' [Twelve more lines of eulogy.] (Monday, Dec. 5, 1796.)

Died, on Tuesday last, Mrs. Love Stone, the amiable relict of Benjamin Stone, deceased, late of James Island. She was an affectionate wife, a fond and indulgent parent, and a friend to the distressed. . . . (Thursday, Dec. 8, 1796.)

Married, at Chachan, in St. John's parish, on Wednesday the 30th ulto, by the Rev. Mr. Parker, John Cordes Prioleau, esq. to Miss Marianne Cordes, daughter of the late Samuel Cordes, esq. of St. John's Parish. (Friday, Dec.— 1796.)

Married, on Thursday evening last, by the right rev. bishop Smith, Mr. Edward Edwards, to Miss Mary Wakefield, both of this city.

Died, on Saturday morning, in the 49th year of her age, Mrs. Leah Depass, wife of Mr. Ralph Depass, of this city . . . she was an excellent wife, a tender and affectionate parent, a sincere friend, and a good mistress. . . . (Tuesday, Dec. 13, 1796.)

Died, at his seat, Windsor Hill, in St. James Parish, Goose Creek, on the 11th instant, William Moultrie junr. esq. (Monday, Dec. 19, 1796.)

Died, on Monday the 12th instant, at Winnsborough, after a long and lingering illness, which he bore with the greatest fortitude, David Evans, esq. (a native of South Wales) aged 60 years. For fifteen years past he resided at Winnsborough, and filled many public offices of trust and confidence, the duties of which he discharged with the strictest integrity and honor. As an honest man, a loving husband, a tender and affectionate father, a kind master, and a friend to the poor, he was ever known. . . . His remains were the day following, interred in the family cemetery, in the Protestant Episcopal Church yard at Mount Zion College. . . . (Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1796.)

Married, on Wednesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Hollinshead, Charles Tew, esq. to Miss Mary Morgan, both of this city.

Married on Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. David Clarke, D.D. of Virginia, Mr. Jonathan O'Hara, lately from Philadelphia; to the amiable Miss Peggy Ready, of Savannah. (Thursday, Dec. 22, 1796.)

Married, on Sunday evening last, by the rev. Dr. William Hollinshead, Mr. Jabez Withers Johnson, to the amiable and much accomplished Miss Catharine Quackinbush, both of this city.

Died, on the 25th inst. near his seat, on his return from the legislature, the honorable Jacob Bond I'On, esq. In him his family have experienced the most afflicting and irreparable loss of a tender and affectionate parent; the community has sustained the loss of an honest and useful member of society, and the poor a humane and benevolent friend. (Wednesday, Dec. 28, 1796.)

Married, on Saturday evening last, by the rev. doctor Gallagher, Mr. Mathew Shields, to Miss Margaret Kirby, both of this city. (Thursday, Dec. 29, 1796.)

Died, a few days ago, at his plantation in Prince Williams parish, James Maine, esq. (Friday, Dec. 30, 1796.)

Died, on Thursday evening last, Mr. Samuel Bonsall, in the 62d year of his age, an old and respectable inhabitant of this city. (Wednesday, Jan. 4, 1797.)

Married, on Tuesday evening last, at Mrs. Porter's seat, in St. George's parish, by the Rev. Mr. Pogson, Mr. Edward Hughes, to Miss Louise Mathews, daughter of Mr. George Mathews, of this city.

Married, last evening, Mr. Thomas Flint, to Miss Sarah Forshaw, both of this city. (Thursday Jan. 5, 1797.)

Married, on Tuesday evening last, Robert J. Turnbull, esq. to Miss Claudia Gervais, daughter of John Lewis Gervais, esq. both of this city.

Married, on Tuesday evening last, at the house of James Bentham, esq. East Bay, by the Rev. Mr. Jenkins, Mr. James Reid, to Miss Eleanor Gale Philips, daughter of col. James Philips of the Island of Jamaica deceased. (Thursday, Jan. 12, 1797.)

Married, last evening, by the Rev. Mr. Mills, George Caborne esq. to Mrs. Cam, of this city.

Died, on Sunday evening last, in the 47th year of his age, Mr. Barnard Richardson, carpenter, much lamented by a numerous acquaintance. (Friday, Jan. 13, 1797.)

Died, very suddenly, on the 31st of December last, at the plantation of Mr. Alexander R. Chisolm, near Beaufort, where he was buried, Mr. Pierce, aged 53 years. The inhabitants of this state, but particularly the cultivators of cotton, have to lament the loss of this most useful and extraordinary mechanical genius, Mr. Pierce arrived not long since from the Paterson Cotton Manufactory, in the Jerseys, and had very nearly completed a most astonishing Water machine, for ginning, spinning, and weaving of cotton, which he had brought to such perfection, as led him to conceive he would obtain the very high premium offered by the English East India Company for the best model of a machine for the ginning of that article.

Departed this life, on Sunday evening, Mrs. Susanna Bee, the worthy and much lamented consort of Joseph Bee, esq. in the thirty-ninth year of her age; adorned with all that heaven or earth could bestow to make her truly amiable. (Sat. Jan. 14, 1797)

Died, on Saturday the 14th inst. Mrs. Sarah Thomas, wife of Mr. Francis Thomas, of this city. (Monday, Jan. 16, 1797.)

Married, on Sunday evening last, Capt. Samuel Cameron, to the amiable Miss Martha Dunbar, of this city.

Died, on Friday evening last, after a lingering illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude, Mr. Patrick Dougherty, a sail-maker, of this city. His remains were interred in the Roman Catholic Church, of which he was a member, on Sunday evening, attended by his relations and friends. (Tuesday, Jan. 18, 1797.)

Died, yesterday morning, Mr. Edgar Wells, merchant of this city. His friends and acquaintances are invited to attend the funeral this afternoon, at four o'clock.

Died, on the 2d inst. at Long-Cane, in Abbeville county, district of Ninety-Aix, in the 80th year of his age, Doctor John De La Howe. As a practitioner of physic, he was eminent in this country, for upwards of 30 years past; as a man of extensive learning he had few equals, and his benevolence endeared him to all who knew him. About twelve years ago he retired to Abbeville county, of which he was made a judge; there his whole time was spent in assisting those who stood in need of his advice. By his last will, having no children, he has left his estate to support a public school in Abbeville county. (Wednesday Jan. 18, 1797.)

Died, on Wednesday night, the 14th of December, at Presqu'isle, his Excellency Anthony Wayne, commander in chief of the federal army.

Extract of a letter from Captain Henry De Butts, to the secretary of war, dated Presqu'isle, December 15th, 1796.

"It is with extreme concern I discharge the melancholy duty of announcing to you the death of Major General Anthony Wayne, who, after an exceeding painful visitation of the gout, expired this morning between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock.

This disorder attacked him about the 17th ultimo, during a very favourable passage from Detroit hither, where we arrived on the evening of the succeeding day—it by turns affected his feet, knees and hands, with a considerable degree of inflammation and a great degree of pain, until about the 30th, when the violence of both beginning gradually to abate, inspired flattering hopes of his speedy recovery: alas! it appeared that the gout had taken possession of his stomach, where it remained with unconquerable obstinacy and extreme torture, until it put a period to his existence. His remains will be interred to-morrow, within the fort, with military honors."

Died, on Tuesday last, Mr. Edgar Wells, merchant, and was interred on Wednesday evening, at the Methodist Episcopal church. He was the first person that joined that society in this city, and continued a member of it during the remaining part of his life. . . . He was the loving kind affectionate husband; the fond generous beneficent father; and the benevolent, humane master. . . . An oration was delivered on the occasion, by the Rev. Doctor Coke. . . . (Saturday, Jan. 21 1797.)

The body of a man was lately found on Sewee Bay, in a sailor's dress, but so disguised that it was not possible to know who he might have been. A watch found upon him is left with the Printer here of, with a view of leading to a discovery. It is a yellow metal watch, with a chased case.

Married, on Saturday evening last, by the Rev. Dr. Keith, Jacob Ford, esq. to Miss Ann Motte Peronneau, youngest daughter of Arthur Perronneau, deceased, late merchant of this city. (Monday, Jan. 23, 1797.)

Married, last evening, by the Rev. Mr. Jenkins, Mr. James Poyas, to the amiable Miss Ann Frierson, both of this city. (Wednesday, Jan. 25, 1797.)

Died, on the 4th inst. at Leogane, capt. Benjamin Parker, late master of the schooner Three Friends, belonging to this port. A few days before his death capt. Parker had taken his passage in the schooner Alexander, having determined to abandon his vessel, as there was no prospect of her being acquitted. Walking on the deck he by some accident fell down the hatchway; he was so much injured by the fall that he died shortly after. He was a native of Newbury-Port.

[The same paper gives the arrival of the schooner Alexander, Newcome, master, 14 days from Leogane.] (Thursday, Jan. 26, 1797.)

On Monday evening was married, by the rev. Mr. Mills, Mr. John Izard Wright, esq. youngest son of Alexander Wright, esq. to Miss Rebecca Izard, eldest daughter of Ralph Izard, jun. esq.

Married, on Thursday Evening last, by the rev. Mr. Furman, Mr. James Lawson, to the amiable Miss Beattay, both of this city, (Saturday, Jan. 18, 1797.)

Married, by the rev. Parson Frost, on Saturday last, George Manson, ship carpenter, to the amiable relict of the deceased Captain Jacob Milligan, harbor-master of this port. (Monday, Jan. 30, 1797.)
